Pastoral Care And Counseling In Grief And Separation:

Grief, Transition, and Loss Wayne Edward Oates, In his creative pastoral care and counseling series veteran counselor Wayne Oates shares ideas from a lifetime of ministry Oates focuses on life situations in addition to death that can cause grief depression and a sense of loss such as divorce job change or relocation More common than ever in today's world these events offer opportunities for personal caregiving by ministers friends and family members      Pastoral Care and Counseling in Grief and Separation Wayne Edward Oates,1976      Pastoral Care and Counseling in Grief and Separation Wayne Edward Oates,1976      Basic Types of Pastoral Care & Counseling Howard John Clinebell,Howard Clinebell,Bridget Clare McKeever,2011 Basic Types of Pastoral Care and Counseling remains the standard in pastoral care and counseling This third edition is enlarged and revised with updated resources methods exercises and illustrations from actual counseling sessions This book will help readers be sensitive to cultural diversity ethical issues and power dynamics as they practice holistic growth oriented pastoral care and counseling in the parish      Pastoral Care of Battered Women Rita-Lou Clarke,1986-01-01 As Howard Clinebell states in his forward the problem of battered women is a tragedy that has reached epic proportions in our society Recognizing that it is pastors to whom abused women will often turn for help and that their advice can be counterproductive Rita Lou Clark directs this important book to them She provides a thorough and clear discussion of the problem and gives practical guidance for care considering such topics as the crisis situation couple counseling and help for the abusers      Hope in Pastoral Care and Counseling Andrew D. Lester,1995-01-01 In this ground breaking book pastoral counselor Andrew Lester demonstrates that pastoral theology as well as social and behavioral sciences has neglected to address effectively the predominant cause of human suffering a lack of hope a sense of futurelessness Lester examines the reasons that pastoral theology and other social and behavioral sciences have overlooked the importance of hope and despair in the past He then offers a starting point for the development of addressing these significant dimensions of human life He provides clinical theories and methods for pastoral assessment of and intervention with those who despair He also puts forth strategies for assessing the future stories of those who despair and offers a corrective to these stories through deconstruction reframing and reconstruction This book will be invaluable to pastoral caregivers who are looking for a vantage point from which to provide care and to pastoral theologians who are seeking to develop a theological lens through which to understand the human condition      Seven Steps for Handling Grief Barbara Russell Chesser,2014-02-25 Let me know if there is anything I can do This well meaning offer is frequently expressed when a relative or friend suffers a death or other heart wrenching loss such as divorce termination of a job having to put a parent in a nursing home or Alzheimer's facility loss of one's home or the empty nest syndrome This book moves beyond that offer and other platitudes and gives practical steps to take to help alleviate the pain of loss the heartbreak from a variety of shattering experiences These steps are drawn straight from real life experiences the stories of people demonstrate how one or more of these seven steps helped them turn grief of futility and despair into understanding faith and hope

Spiritual, Ethical, and Pastoral Aspects of Death and Bereavement Gerry Cox, Ronald Fundis, 2022-03-22 This collection of previously unpublished essays addresses a wide range of topics relevant to the on going debates regarding dying and death and the subtleties nuances and complexities accompanying these phenomena The authors have attempted to contribute their experiences insights and research results to clarify rather than obfuscate Topic coverage is broad however content depth is not sacrificed The diversity of authors backgrounds both geographical and disciplinary also serves to make this volume unique The chapters in this volume offer a substantial contribution in assisting care givers in arriving at acceptable ethical positions in their pastoral counseling medical and mortician roles

Biblical Approaches to Pastoral Counseling Donald Capps, 2003-01-17 What role should the Bible play in pastoral counseling Donald Capps here explores the use of the Bible in counseling and shows how the methods and objectives of counseling can be defined and shaped by three biblical forms psalms proverbs and parables Applying these forms Capps demonstrates how the Bible can influence the three major types of pastoral counseling grief premarital and marriage He examines the capacity of these forms to comfort to instruct and to diagnose problems He explains how through psalms feelings can be vented through proverbs moral learning can take place and through parables new understandings of experience can occur With actual case study examples and practical suggestions this refreshingly perceptive book offers positive steps for furthering dialogue between biblical scholarship and pastoral counseling

Saying Hello to Your Life After Grief Hardy Clemons, 2004 Veteran pastor Hardy Clemons has culled his experiences with grief into this easy to read volume Like birth and death grief is an inescapable but inherent part of life Saying Hello to Your Life After Grief is a book designed to help people who have experienced crushing losses survive and grow beyond the pain into the light of a new day Hardy Clemons takes an in depth look at grief one of the most common and universal experiences of life Clemons examines the situations that cause grief and describes the stages beyond grief He concludes his discussion by explaining how we can help each other grieve creatively and begin to live after its wake An appendix provides helpful suggestions for working with grieving persons

Department of the Army Pamphlet ,1980

Soul Care Herbert Kopp, 2001

The Psychological Anthropology of Wayne Edward Oates Samuel E. Stephens, 2020-07-24 Theological education has historically placed a strong emphasis on Scripture as the source of principle and practice for ministry However when it comes to the arena of counseling this has largely not been the case Focusing on the significant influence of Wayne Edward Oates 1917 1999 the author seeks to explore how and why the American Protestant church arrived at the place where psychological counseling has become the norm and biblical counseling is treated as novel A detailed study of Oates anthropology which served as the heart of his counseling theory and practice demonstrates that it was shaped and informed by secular concepts values and principles instead of what God has to say about who we are as people what plagues our souls and where we find our true hope and healing This subtle shift from the theological to the therapeutic has contributed to a much broader view from many in the church that counseling is more of a clinical and professional service rather than a personal or pastoral ministry of the Scriptures Through these unsettling warnings and implications the author hopes that the church will see the importance of once again engaging with the God glorifying Christ honoring and Spirit empowering ministry of counseling

Helping When It Hurts Robert L. Hunter, 1983 Robert L Hunter offers practical insight into how to be a friend to someone in crisis He contends that a focus on change an emphasis on the future a respect for people and faith in God are all crucial in the helping process

Nurturing Hope Lynne M. Baab, 2018-08-01 Trends and skills for those who offer pastoral care Christian pastoral care has changed a great deal in the past few decades in response to many factors in our rapidly changing world In part 1 of Nurturing Hope Lynne Baab discusses seven trends in pastoral care shifts in who delivers pastoral care the attitudes and commitments that undergird pastoral care and societal trends that are shaping pastoral care today She illustrates them with stories from diverse congregations where Christian caregivers are meeting those challenges in creative and exciting ways In the second half of the book Baab presents four practical doable energizing skills needed by pastoral carers in our time Focusing on skills that help carers nurture connections between everyday life and Christian faith she explores the need for carers to understand common stressors listen pray with others and nurture their personal resilience Grounded in an understanding of God as the true caregiver and healer the author offers tips for readers who are training other pastoral carers or developing their own understanding and skills Each chapter ends with discussion and reflection questions making the book helpful for groups Lynne Baab brings readers hope for their caring role and for their own spiritual journey

Five Cries of Grief Merton P. Strommen, 1996-08-01 Beginning with a dramatic story of the death of a young adult son this book presents a new paradigm for the grief process An alternative to Kubler Ross this text is structured around five cries of grief the cry of pain the cry of longing the cry for supportive love the cry for understanding and the cry for significance
