Pastoral Care And Liberation Theology:

Pastoral Care and Liberation Theology Stephen Pattison, 1994-03-10 This is the first book to show how Latin American liberation theology can be applied to and can transform pastoral care in countries such as Britain and the USA. Hitherto pastoral care has tended to concentrate on looking after individuals. Stephen Pattison suggests that much of the suffering endured by individuals is actually socially and politically caused and so is avoidable if the appropriate action is taken. The author argues that what we now require is a socio politically aware and committed pastoral care which makes an option for oppressed and poor people and engages in practical struggle against the forces of injustice and oppression. Focussing as it does especially on mentally ill people and on women the book will be of interest to all those who want to broaden their vision and knowledge of liberation theology or pastoral care whether theologians, pastors, students for ministry, members of caring professions or users of the services they provide.

Moving Beyond Individualism in Pastoral Care and Counseling Barbara J McClure, 2011-10-27 Despite astute critiques and available resources for alternative modes of thinking and practicing individualism continues to be a dominating and constraining ideology in the field of pastoral psychotherapy and counseling. Philip Rieff was one of the first to highlight the negative implications of individualism in psychotherapeutic theories and practices. As heirs and often enthusiasts of the Freudian tradition of which Rieff and others are critical, pastoral theologians have felt the sting of his charge and yet the empirical research that McClure presents shows that pastoral counseling practitioners resist change. Their attempts to overcome an individualistic perspective have been limited and ineffective because individualism is embedded in the field's dominant theological and theoretical resources, practices and organizational arrangements. Only a radical reappraisal of these will make possible pastoral counseling practices in a post individualistic mode. McClure proposes several critical transformations: broadening and deepening the operative theologies used to guide the healing practice; expanding the role of the pastoral counselor; reimagining the operative anthropology; reclaiming sin and judgment; nuancing the particular against the individual; rethinking the ideal outcome of the practices; and reimagining the organizational structures that support the practices. Only this level of revisioning will enable this ministry of the church to move beyond its individualistic limitations and offer healing in more complex effective and socially adequate ways Survival and Liberation Carroll A Watkins Ali,1999-01-01 For African American congregations and churches that would like to be more sensitive to African Americans in their community Watkins Ali offers an exciting new conceptual framework for an African American pastoral theology bringing together womanist theology traditional black theology psychological theory and spiritually informed clinical practice Pastoral Theology HardPress,Vinet Alexandre Rodolphe 1797-1847,2013-06 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy Pastoral Care and Counseling with Latino/as R. Dalit Theology and Dalit Liberation Peniel Rajkumar, 2016-05-13 In fulfilling the long awaited need for a constructive and critical rethinking of Dalit theology this book offers and explores the synoptic healing stories as a relevant biblical paradigm for Dalit theology in order to help redress the lacuna between Dalit theology and the social practice of the Indian Church Peniel Rajkumar's starting point is that the growing influence of Dalit theology in academic circles is incompatible with the praxis of the Indian Church which continues to be passive in its attitude towards the oppression of the Dalits both within and outside the Church The theological reasons for this lacuna between Dalit theology and the Church's praxis Rajkumar suggests lie in the content of Dalit theology especially the biblical paradigms explored which do not offer adequate scope for engagement in praxis
