Pastoral Care And Pastoral Theology:

A Theology of Pastoral Care Eduard Thurneysen, 2010-07-01 From a thoroughly biblical viewpoint Eduard Thurneysen probes deeply into the nature and practice of pastoral care His rich understanding of men his experience in counseling and his grasp of theological thought infuse his approach with vitality and truth As he considers the basis of pastoral care Thurneysen puts forward the thesis that the purpose of counseling is to communicate the Word of God to individuals Pastoral care is a ministry along with those of sermon and sacrament its aim is to lead the counselee back to sermon and sacrament in the worship of the church Although he does little more than hint at rules and techniques for pastoral care Thurneysen is greatly concerned with its practical aspects It is his belief that the care of souls occurs through conversation confident open minded conversation which is founded on the Word of God informed by prayer and manifested in active listening to and acceptance of the counselee Thurneysen demonstrates the importance of a knowledge of psychology and the principles of psychotherapy Depth psychology and psychotherapy deeply enrich our understanding of human nature and serve to communicate the message of forgiveness all the more powerfully This book provides a critical theological study of the whole field of pastoral care As a work in practical theology it will be stimulating and useful to professors of counseling as well as to students in the field Counselors and pastors will find it helpful because it throws light on the fundamental issues involved in problems which they face in their ministries

Pastoral Theology in the Classical Tradition Andrew Purves, 2001-11-01 Too often pastoral care is uninformed by historical practice and is overly influenced by psychological theory and practice according to

Andrew Purves At least one consequence of this is that it is often disaffiliated from the church's theological heritage Purves examines Christian writers from the past who represent the classical tradition in pastoral theology classical in the sense that they and their texts have shaped the minds and practices of pastors in enduring ways He reflects on texts from Gregory Nazianzus John Chrysostom Gregory the Great Martin Bucer and Richard Baxter He includes a brief biography of each author introduces the major themes in the writer's theology and discusses the issues arising for pastoral work The Pastoral Care Case Donald Capps, Gene Fowler, 2010-03-01 The case study method is popular and effective in the pastoral care of individuals This book outlines a method for using the case study approach on a congregational level offering guidelines for analyzing and refining such aspects of ministry as worship preaching and Christian education The Practice of Pastoral Care Carrie Doehring, 2006-01-01 Drawing on psychological theological and cultural studies on suffering Carrie Doehring encourages counselors to view their ministry through trifocal lenses and include approaches that are premodern apprehending God through religious rituals modern consulting rational and empirical sources and postmodern acknowledging the contextual nature of knowledge Utilizing strategies from all three perspectives Doehring describes the basic ingredients of a caregiving relationship shows how to use the caregiver's life experience as a source of authority and demonstrates how to develop the skill of listening and establish the actual relationship She then explains the steps of psychological assessment systemic assessment and theological reflection and finally she delineates the basic steps for plans of care attending to the careseeker's safety building trust mourning losses and reconnecting with the ordinariness of life

Care Elaine Ramshaw,1987 Pastoral counseling can be imbued with a sense of community and of the transcendent there is no surer way for this to happen than through a vital and self conscious connection with the worship life of the community Ritual can resonate to human need and to this end there is much the ritualist can learn from the psychological insights into human development and personality familiar to those in the field of pastoral care Drawing on a range of practical concerns and issues in worship life and pastoral care Elaine Ramshaw shows how ritual can communicate care and be shaped by care for the individual society and the world African American Pastoral Care Edward P. Wimberly,2010-10-01 Respond to God's unfolding drama to bring healing and reconciliation In this major revision of his classic book Dr Edward Wimberly updates his narrative methodology by examining current issues in African American pastoral care and counseling Reconstructing Pastoral Theology Andrew Purves,2004-09-20 In Pastoral Care in the Classical Tradition Andrew Purves argued that pastoral care and theology has long ignored Scripture and Christian doctrine and pastoral practice has become secularized in both method and goal the fiefdom of psychology and the social sciences He builds further on this idea here presenting a christological basis for ministry and pastoral theology Pastoral Care in Context John Patton,2005-02-18 An expert in the field of pastoral care John Patton demonstrates that pastoral care is a ministry of the church He focuses on the community of faith as an authorizer and source of care and upon the relationship between the pastor and a caring community Patton identifies and compares three paradigms of pastoral care the classical the clinical pastoral and the communal contextual This third paradigm emphasizes the caring community and the various contexts for care rather than focusing on pastoral care as the work of the ordained pastor A Roman Catholic Theology of Pastoral Care Regis A. Duffy OFM,2010-05-01 Drawing upon the long history of care in the sacramental mission of the clergy especially since the reforms of Vatican II Father Duffy offers a new model that can stimulate both Catholic and Protestant pastoral care to fresh thinking and imaginative reconstruction The model derives from the catechumenate that lengthy process of study and service which down through the ages has preceded baptism and guided Christian formation Reflecting a judicious use of interdisciplinary insights and praxis theology Father Duffy's vision represents an ecumenical contribution to sharpened focus and strengthened identity for pastoral care and practice Pray Without Ceasing Deborah van Deusen Hunsinger,2006-08-10 Taking seriously Paul's exhortation in 1 Thessalonians to pray without ceasing Deborah van Deusen Hunsinger challenges pastors and congregations to put prayer at the center of their Christian practice and theological reflection In this thought provoking book Hunsinger reclaims spiritual practices from token use and unites them in a dynamic network of interdependent caring traditions The book begins with the three foundational disciplines of spiritual reading careful listening and self reflection Hunsinger then explores prayers of petition intercession confession lament and thanksgiving Finally she offers practical workable suggestions for developing pastoral care groups and teaching care giving skills at the congregational level Clergy and laity alike will reap the benefits of this revitalizing look at the spiritual disciplines as dynamic forces in the life of the church Renewing Pastoral Practice Neil Pembroke,2013-05-28 This is the first comprehensive treatment of the relationship between the doctrine of the Trinity and pastoral care and counselling Neil Pembroke contends that an in depth reflection on the relational dynamics in the Godhead has the capacity to radically renew pastoral practice Pembroke applies the notion of relational space to care in a parish setting The life of the triune God is defined by both closeness and open space The divine persons indwell each other in love but they also provide space for the expression of particularity This principle of closeness with space is applied in three different pastoral contexts namely community life spiritual friendship and pastoral conversations The specialized ministry of pastoral counselling is the focus in the second half of the book Informing the various explorations is the principle of participation through love the divine persons participate in each other s existence through loving self communication Pembroke shows how this trinitarian virtue is at the centre of three key counselling dynamics the counselling alliance empathy and mirroring

Hope in Pastoral Care and Counseling

Andrew D. Lester, 1995-04-01 In this ground breaking book pastoral counselor Andrew Lester demonstrates that pastoral theology as well as social and behavioral sciences has neglected to address effectively the predominant cause of human suffering a lack of hope a sense of futurelessness Lester not only looks at the reasons why addressing the ideas of hope and despair has been overlooked by pastoral theology and other social and behavioral sciences He also offers a starting point for the development of addressing these important dimensions of human life He provides clinical theories and methods for pastoral assessment of and intervention with those who despair He also puts forth strategies for assessing the future stories of those who despair and offers a corrective to these stories through deconstruction reframing and reconstruction
