Bagby,2002 Covers more than 25 pastoral care crises arranged from A Z Abortion to Suicide Pastoral Care of Alcohol Abusers Andrew J. Weaver,Harold George Koenig, Over 120 million American teens and adults use alcohol at one time or another While in most situations these individuals are able to use it responsibly and with moderation no one is immune to its destructive use which makes it a significant public health issue Many drinkers find that their otherwise responsible use turns problematic and abusive when faced with depression trauma grief undue social pressures or other tempting and potentially addictive behaviors Not all of these people become full fledged alcoholics but they do develop an alcohol problem that needs careful and sensitive pastoral care to understand the underlying issues for their alcohol abuse Because of this clergy and other pastoral counselors need to develop competence in recognizing alcohol abuse problems including alcoholism identifying when to make referrals helping persons to find available community resources and training congregational members to provide support to affected individuals and families

Crisis Counseling Scott Floyd, Dr Floyd helps readers understand the nature of crises events how individuals are impacted and how to best provide help during and following times of trauma loss and grief

?STREETISM? Isaac Ishmael Arthur, 2013 This book is a study that investigates the phenomenon of streetism the manner of life of homeless or unmonitored youth on the streets of Accra Ghana and other urban centers in a country where barrenness and childlessness are socially undesirable The study utilizes a qualitative ethnographic and critical theory based approach to present a socio culturally nuanced addition to the literature on street children The work engages in theological reflection on the basis of the experiences of poverty and marginalization of the youth on the streets and for their liberation This thesis also utilizes an intercultural methodology to examine the causes of streetism and liberation praxis for its eradication The findings of the study include how poverty dropping out of school breakdown of the extended family systems parental death urbanization adventure and earning of personal income influence the migration of youth to the streets The study also examines the effects of rape and the resilient and hopeful attitudes of the homeless youth The study proposes pastoral responses on three ecological levels At the macro level advocacy is proposed for addressing the problems embedded in social structures and government policies and ideologies At the meso level congregational and community response is offered to deal with issues emanating from local communities and institutions Dealing with the psychosocial effects at the micro level the study offers pastoral counseling for street youth and parents and individual group and narrative counseling approaches for individuals and groups within the community

When Children Suffer Andrew D. Lester, 1987-04-15 When Children Suffer is a collection of essays designed to help pastors Christian educators and other care givers work effectively with children in crisis This illuminating book includes background in child development and psychology as well as specific guidance for helping children who are facing difficult situations such as their parent s divorce or their own illness
