The Way of Goodness and Holiness Richard M. Gula, 2011-01-01 How do ministers whether lay or ordained form their spiritual life What practices do they need to foster in order to become good and to be holy in their service To answer these questions Richard Gula invites readers to think along with him about the kind of minister they want to be. If we don't know where we want to go, he writes, we will easily end up somewhere else. Gula then presents a variety of virtues including gratitude, self-care, humor, and courage, and explains how developing these qualities is essential for a minister's moral and spiritual life. By grounding a spirituality for pastoral ministry in the virtues, Gula provides a way for ministers to bridge the gap between who they are and who they hope to become in imitation of Christ Jesus.

Nurturing Hope Lynne M. Baab, 2018-08-01. Trends and skills for those who offer pastoral care. Christian pastoral care has changed a great deal in the past few decades in response to many factors in our rapidly changing world. In part 1 of Nurturing Hope, Lynne Baab discusses seven trends in pastoral care: shifts in who delivers pastoral care, the attitudes and commitments that undergird pastoral care, and societal trends that are shaping pastoral care today. She illustrates them with stories from diverse congregations where Christian caregivers are meeting those challenges in creative and exciting ways. In the second half of the book, Baab presents four practical, doable energizing skills needed by pastoral carers in our time. Focusing on skills that help carers nurture connections between everyday life and Christian faith, she explores the need for carers to understand common stressors, listen, pray with others, and nurture their personal resilience. Grounded in an understanding of God as the true caregiver and healer, the author offers tips for readers who are training other pastoral carers or developing their own understanding and skills. Each chapter ends with discussion and reflection questions, making the book helpful for groups. Lynne Baab brings readers hope for their caring role and for their own spiritual journey.

Spiritual Dimensions of Pastoral Care David Willows, John Swinton, 2000. Written by significant researchers and practitioners within the field, this unique collection of key texts introduces the reader to practical theology. It critically explores the way in which the spiritual dimension of pastoral care has entered into constructive dialogue with other disciplines and ways of thinking, including psychiatry, psychology, counselling, intercultural studies, educational methodology, narrative theory, and political studies. Set within this multidisciplinary context, the individual contributions—a selection of articles from a leading journal of pastoral theology, Contact: The Interdisciplinary Journal of Pastoral Studies—cover a wide range of practical and theological issues that alert the
