Crisp, 2015-11-01 Joy is crucial to human life and central to God's relationship to the world yet it is remarkably absent from contemporary theology and increasingly from our own lives This collection remedies this situation by considering the import of joy on human flourishing These essays written by experts in systematic and pastoral theology Christian ethics and biblical studies demonstrate the promise of joy to throw open new theological possibilities and cast fresh light on all dimensions of human life With contributions from Jurgen Moltmann N T Wright Marianne Meye Thompson Mary Clark Moschella Charles Mathewes and Miroslav Volf this volume puts joy at the heart of Christian faith and life exploring joy's biblical dogmatic ecclesiological and ethical dimensions in concert with close attention to the shifting tides of culture Convinced of the need to offer to the world a compelling Christian vision of the good life the authors treat the connections between joy and themes of creation theodicy politics suffering pastoral practice eschatology and more driven by the conviction that vital relationship with the living God is integral to our fullest flourishing as human creatures A Pastor's Toolbox Paul A. Holmes, 2014-01-28 Today's parish leaders are expected to be holy and prayerful spiritual guides great preachers and compassionate confessors but also to make important decisions in key areas like finance budgeting hiring and firing fundraising risk management relationship building and more often with virtually no transition or training And with all the requisite education in philosophy and theology they must provide future pastors in addition to formation in priestly spirituality and pastoral care seminaries can do little to prepare priests to deal with the difficult temporal issues pastors face A Pastor's Toolbox is designed to help fill that void It is loaded with valuable information insights and practical tools that pastors need in order to begin handling the complexities of parish management in the twenty first century The book is an outgrowth of The Toolbox for Pastoral Management a nationally recognized joint project of The National Leadership Roundtable on Church Management and Seton Hall University The Leadership Roundtable is a nonprofit organization of Catholic lay leaders religious and clergy working together to promote excellence and best practices in the management finances communications and human resources development of the Catholic Church in the U S through the greater incorporation of the expertise of the laity Learn more at www TheLeadershipRoundtable org Renewing Pastoral Practice Neil Pembroke, 2013-05-28 This is the first comprehensive treatment of the relationship between the doctrine of the Trinity and pastoral care and counselling Neil Pembroke contends that an in depth reflection on the relational dynamics in the Godhead has the capacity to radically renew pastoral practice Pembroke applies the notion of relational space to care in a parish setting The life of the triune God is defined by both closeness and open space The divine persons indwell each other in love but they also provide space for the expression of particularity This principle of closeness with space is applied in three different pastoral contexts namely community life spiritual friendship and pastoral conversations The specialized ministry of pastoral counselling is the focus in the second half of the book Informing the various explorations is the principle of participation through love the divine persons participate in each other's existence through loving self communication Pembroke shows how this trinitarian virtue is at the centre of three key counselling dynamics the counselling alliance empathy and mirroring

A History of Pastoral Care G. R. Evans, 2000-05-01 A history of pastoral care is a history of the Christian church in action But if any sense is to be made of the centuries of Christian work and effort not only the practicalities of making the message of the Gospel a reality on earth but also the ideas which have shaped the attempt century by century must be examined This is the history of 2000 years of thought and practice in Christian pastoral ministry Until comparatively late in that story the bulk of the formative thinking took place in the Middle East and in Europe and this forms the background for recent developments in understanding human nature and the ways in which that understanding has influenced our thinking in pastoral care Subjects covered range from the Biblical foundations to the sects and new religious movements from the Fathers the monks the Friars the Templars to the changes at the end of the twentieth century

The Book of Pastoral Rule Saint Gregory the Great, Aeterna Press, With kind and humble intent thou reprovest me dearest brother for having wished by hiding myself to fly from the burdens of pastoral care as to which lest to some they should appear light I express with my pen in the book before you all my own estimate of their heaviness in order both that he who is free from them may not unwarily seek them and that he who has so sought them may tremble for having got them This book is divided into four separate heads of argument that it may approach the reader's mind by allegations arranged in order by certain steps as it were For as the necessity of things requires we must especially consider after what manner every one should come to supreme rule and duly arriving at it after what manner he should live and living well after what manner he should teach and teaching aright with how great consideration every day he should become aware of his own infirmity lest either humility fly from the approach or life be at variance with the arrival or teaching be wanting to the life or presumption unduly exalt the teaching Process and Pastoral Care Bruce G Epperly,2019-02-07 This concise book the sixth short guide on process theology and its practical implications by Dr Bruce Epperly applies process thought to the calling and activities of pastoral ministry Short and to the point as are all books in the Topical Line Drives series this text will provide pastors and others involved in caregiving ministries a new and adventurous way of thinking about and meeting the challenges of their vocation God is already present in the hospital room and even the funeral home You have the opportunity to experience the vision of what can happen when we discover that God is always opening up new possibilities empowering us to partner with God in healing the world and strengthening us for and comforting us in the difficult times of life Learn to connect more closely to the divine and the human to see more clearly and to participate more completely as God does A practical deeply theological and challenging guide to the adventure of pastoral care Spirituality and Pastoral Care

Counseling Movement after Adams (Foreword by David Powlison) Heath Lambert,2011-11-02 People inside and outside of the biblical counseling movement recognize differences between the foundational work of Jay Adams and that of current thought leaders such as David Powlison But as any student or teacher of the discipline can attest those differences have been ill defined and largely anecdotal until now Heath Lambert the first scholar to analyze the movement s development from within shows how biblical counseling emerged from and remains rooted in a commitment to the sufficiency of Scripture and the need to give practical help to struggling people He identifies contemporary leaders including Powlison Ed Welch Paul Tripp and Wayne Mack who emphasize the sinner as sufferer the heart as key to motivation and the need to interact humbly with critics Demonstrating how these refinements in framework methodology and engagement style are characteristic of a second generation of biblical counselors Lambert contends this new wave of counselors is now increasingly balanced in their counseling methods With a substantial foreword from David Powlison and strong support from prominent biblical counselors this book will help all Christians interested in the fundamentally theological task of counseling to think carefully and biblically about how it is taught and practiced Pastoral Care of Older Adults Harold George Koenig,Andrew J. Weaver, Killen,2005 An introduction to pastoral care for pastors of small membership churches If you spend your whole life serving small membership churches and doing it well yours will have been a life well spent Small membership churches have a real advantage when it comes to incorporating people into a fellowship where they are known and where their needs are met These churches and their pastors have an opportunity for excellence in this area and should make the most of it Good pastoral care can be the key to effectiveness in all of the other ministries of the church From getting acquainted with your congregation weddings and funerals picking up on subtle cues in a conversation to not so subtle conflicts Killen shares insights from years of ministry in a small membership church setting James L Killen Jr is a retired elder of the Texas Conference contributor to Circuit Rider and author of Who Do You Say That I Am A Personal Reader Remarks on the pastoral care of a parish Spencer Thornton,1849 Pastoral Care with Children in Crisis Andrew D.
