Pastoral Care For Survivors Of Family Abuse:

Becoming a Church that Cares Well for the Abused Brad Hambrick, 2019-06-04 Is your church prepared to care for individuals who have experienced various forms of abuse As we continue to learn of more individuals experiencing sexual abuse domestic violence and other forms of abuse it is clear that resources are needed to help ministries and leaders care for these individuals with love support and in cooperation with civil authorities This handbook seeks to help the church take a significant step forward in its care for those who have been abused Working in tandem with the Church Cares resources and videos this handbook brings together leading evangelical trauma counselors victim advocates social workers attorneys batterer interventionists and survivors to equip pastors and ministry leaders for the appropriate initial responses to a variety of abuse scenarios in churches schools or ministries Though the most comprehensive training is experienced by using this handbook and the videos together readers who may be unable to access the videos can use this handbook as a stand alone resource

Pastoral Care for Survivors of Family Abuse James Leehan, 1989-01-01 In this important book James Leehan emphasizes the use of the religious communities spiritual physical and financial resources to alleviate the problem of family abuse He sees ministers and their congregations as a source of support that no other sector of society can provide This book will be an asset to anyone involved in helping the survivor of abuse

Understanding Male Violence James Newton Poling, 2003-06-01 Our society is experiencing an epidemic of violence against women and children Perhaps as many as a quarter of all children and a third of all women are victims of male violence Yet the church remains largely silent on this issue often enabling the perpetrator to continue such violence and abuse Few pastors and pastoral counselors are appropriately equipped to assist these victims and even fewer are prepared to deal with the perpetrators For the past fifteen years James Newton Poling has been the leading theologian and pastoral counselor dealing with issues of male violence working with perpetrators and those recovering from the cycle of violence In this book he presents for the first time a full analysis of the problem of male violence and the range of strategies to respond to and prevent the violence Poling proposes an understanding of male violence in the context of historical and social factors including the complexities of racial and economic dynamics He builds on his early work in theological ethics in order to show how pastors can respond to perpetrators and help them prevent their abusive behavior Poling calls us all to resist violence and to participate in the work of bringing about a just world that moves beyond the epidemic patterns of domestic and sexual violence He challenges us to hear the many silenced voices and to tell the truth about these painful issues He grapples with the dilemma of forgiveness that often jeopardizes the most vulnerable members of our communities Poling calls on the church to become involved through their practices and preaching in proclaiming the wrongness of abuse and violence and the need for justice help and care Through sample sermons worship services and other resources for ministry he encourages church to preach worship witness and counsel in ways that heal the violence in our midst

provides a well researched biblical and scientific overview of abuse A broad overview it deals with the various types of abuse the various effects of abuse and the means of healing Abuse can be sexual physical neglect spiritual and verbal The chief arguments pursued throughout the book are 1 abuse is far more rampant than most Christians realize but due to human depravity and satanic influence widespread abuse is predicable 2 All types of abuse create profound long term soul damage due to the way abuse perverts various aspects of the image of God 3 God is the healing redeemer Human salvation came through horrible physical abuse 4 Healing must take place in the context of relationships Humans are deeply impacted by others due to being made in the image of God Just as surely as abusive relationships have tremendous power to wound the soul so healthy relationships have tremendous power to nurture and heal the soul Questions answered in the book include How can a genuine believer abuse a child Why would someone abuse a child How can parents and childrens workers identify abusers How can abuse victims heal What does genuine healing look like Is anger appropriate or hurtful for abuse victims Where does forgiveness fit in Helpful sample child protection policy application screening interview and warning signs of potential abusers equip ministry leaders Illustrations case studies and art therapy drawings

Charry, 1999 This book develops the thesis that classical Christian theology seeks to help believers flourish by knowing and loving God Ellen Charry argues this premise by example offering a close reading of a number of classical texts from the New Testament era to the Reformation including works of Paul Augustine Athanasius Basil of Caesarea Anselm and Calvin She points out the pastoral and moral aims that shape the teachings of these theologians on a wide range of topics including the Trinity human beings as created in the image of God the incorporation of Jews and Gentiles into the body of Christ in baptism the incarnation death and resurrection of Christ and the divinity of the Holy Spirit Charry explains that the very logic of their arguments is shaped by the author's concern for the goodness and happiness that should result from living into the doctrines She further shows that although the spiritual and pastoral purposes of these writings are many and complex they are invariably concerned to foster what modern people can without difficulty recognize as human dignity what she calls excellence in action affection and self appraisal Suicide Loren L. Townsend,2006 Strategies for responding to persons at risk for suicide and families of suicide victims The Wounded Heart Dan B. Allender,2018-05-02 Help and hope for your journey toward healing Broken Trust Patrick Fleming,Sue Lauber-Fleming,Mark T. Matousek,2007 Fleming tells the stories of sexual abuse by priests and what brought them to abuse the boys and girls in their trust Counselors offer their own expert perspectives on the stories then introduce readers to stories from abuse survivors and how they have coped Victims of Child Abuse; Domestic Violence; Elderly Abuse; Rape; Robbery; Assault; and Violent Death Hans Walter Wolff,1992-06 Presents the findings of a project that was designed to assess current practices procedures used in the handling of criminal court cases involving children as victims witnesses Project utilized case reviews interviews of participants in recently adjudicated cases to describe current approaches to children in the criminal justice system Family Ministry Charles M. Sell,1995-02-28 A practical resource for developing congregational stability this updated book guides your church toward being capable of encouraging and sustaining healthy family life Gender, Violence, and Justice Pamela Cooper-White,2019-03-20 Gender Violence and Justice is a volume of collected essays by an expert in the field of violence against women and pastoral theology It represents over three decades of research advocacy and pastoral theological reflection on the subject of sexual and domestic violence Topics include intimate partner violence sexual abuse and trauma and clergy sexual misconduct controversial theological issues such as forgiveness and as well positive frameworks for fostering well being in families church and society Framed by a foreword and an introduction that place this work in the context of new and contemporary challenges in theory and practice these essays show an evolution of issues and frameworks for theology care and activism arising over time from the movement to end violence against women both within and beyond religious communities while at the same time demonstrating an unchanging core commitment to gender justice The Limits of Forgiveness Maria Mayo,2021-05-06 Demystifying an unrealistic ideal Maria Mayo questions the contemporary idealization of unconditional forgiveness in three areas of contemporary life so called Victim Offender Mediation involving cases of criminal injury the work of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission in post apartheid South Africa and the pastoral care of victims of domestic violence She shows that an emphasis on unilateral and unconditional forgiveness puts disproportionate pressure on the victims of injustice or violence and misconstrues the very biblical passages especially in Jesus teaching and actions on which advocates of unconditional forgiveness rely Responding Well to Domestic Abuse 2nd edition Church House Publishing,2017-04-27 The Church of England is committed to addressing and responding effectively to domestic abuse both within its own community and wider society This document sets out the Church of England s domestic abuse policy as well as detailed practice guidance on how the policy should be implemented in local churches Combining essential legal pastoral and practical information and resources within a clear theological framework it includes Approved national policy which applies to all Church bodies An overview of the issue of domestic abuse and how to recognise it Detailed guidance on how to respond to a disclosure of abuse and appropriate pastoral interventions Information on working with statutory and other specialist agencies Guidance on the training required for all those who will have roles with survivors and alleged or known perpetrators Information on legal pastoral theological and practical issues as well as further resources This document is commended by the House of Bishops as part of the Church of England s commitment to victims of domestic abuse and to addressing the circumstances that lead to domestic abuse

Why Are You Acting That Way? Pamela Scott, 2025-03-29

Everyone has a story and Pamela s is not unlike others that she has encountered There are many people both men and women who have suffered at the hands of those who should have been protecting them Parents are supposed to protect and comfort their children and husbands are supposed to love and cherish their wives This is the fairy tale of the perfect life one seen in movies and on TV where moms were perfect with husbands who loved them and their children Instead there are the secret families those where shame prevails The victims of these unhealthy families are like wounded soldiers showing a brave face to the world but secretly suffering an indescribable pain within When Pamela realized that her reaction to her past had affected all her relationships she decided to investigate the effects of her difficult childhood and identify behavior patterns that had developed over the years This was the first step to healing and recovery She wrote this document for her fiance so he could understand her reactions to incidents that triggered memories of her past She remarried in 2007 and is still married This is a miracle one that only God could provide by revealing behavior patterns that were sabotaging her relationships
