Compton-Burnett,1972 The Divided Mind of the Black Church Raphael G. Warnock,2020-11-03 A revealing look at the identity and mission of the Black church What is the true nature and mission of the church Is its proper Christian purpose to save souls or to transform the social order This question is especially fraught when the church is one built by an enslaved people and formed from its beginning at the center of an oppressed community s fight for personhood and freedom Such is the central tension in the identity and mission of the Black church in the United States For decades the Black church and Black theology have held each other at arm s length Black theology has emphasized the role of Christian faith in addressing racism and other forms of oppression arguing that Jesus urged his disciples to seek the freedom of all peoples Meanwhile the Black church even when focused on social concerns has often emphasized personal piety rather than social protest With the rising influence of white evangelicalism biblical fundamentalism and the prosperity gospel the divide has become even more pronounced In The Divided Mind of the Black Church Raphael G Warnock Senior Pastor of the historic Ebenezer Baptist Church the spiritual home of the Rev Dr Martin Luther King Jr traces the historical significance of the rise and development of Black theology as an important conversation partner for the Black church Calling for honest dialogue between Black and womanist theologians and Black pastors this fresh theological treatment demands a new look at the church s essential mission
