Pasyon and Revolution Reynaldo Clemeña Iletto, 1979 Relates the impact of passion play Kasaysayan ng pasiong mahal ni Hesukristong Panginoon natin on Philippine social action Christianities in Asia Peter C. Phan, 2011-01-21 Christianity in Asia explores the history development and current state of Christianity across the world's largest and most populous continent Offers detailed coverage of the growth of Christianity within South Asia among the thousands of islands comprising Southeast Asia and across countries whose Christian origins were historically linked including Vietnam Thailand China Hong Kong Taiwan Japan and Korea Brings together a truly international team of contributors many of whom are natives of the countries they are writing about Considers the Middle Eastern countries whose Christian roots are deepest yet have turbulent histories and uncertain futures Explores the ways in which Christians in Asian countries have received and transformed Christianity into their local or indigenous religion Shows Christianity to be a vibrant contemporary movement in many Asian countries despite its comparatively minority status in these regions The Art of Indigenous Inculturation Sison, Antonio D., 2021-06-16 The inculturation of the Christian message is examined through examples of art from Africa the Philippines and the Mexican American community An Intercultural Theology of Migration Gemma Cruz, 2010-01-15 Migration has long been associated with the social sciences However as a phenomenon that provides windows into possibly new forms of oppression and at the same time paths toward human liberation a systematic theological look at contemporary migration is long overdue Building on the emerging interest on migration in theology this book presents an intercultural theology of migration drawn from the experience of Filipino women domestic workers in Hong Kong in dialogue with theological ethics and liberationist theologies The result is a new look at the phenomenon of contemporary migration The Cambridge History of Southeast Asia: Volume 2, The Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries Nicholas Tarling, 1992 Southeast Asia has long been seen as a unity although other terms have been used to describe it Further India Little China the Nanyang The region has had a protracted maritime history Confucianism Buddhism Islam Hinduism Christianity are all represented It has seen a quintet of colonial powers Britain France The Netherlands Spain the United States Most recently it has become one of the fastest growing parts of the world economy The very term Southeast Asia is clearly more than a geographical expression The Cambridge History of Southeast Asia is a multi authored treatment of the whole of mainland and island Southeast Asia from Burma to Indonesia Unlike other histories of the region it is not divided on a country by country basis and is not structured purely chronologically but rather takes a thematic and regional approach to Southeast Asia's history This volume the second and final in the series takes us into the nineteenth and twentieth centuries from the late eighteenth century of the Christian era when most of the region was incorporated into European empires to the complexity and dramatic change of the post World War II period It covers the economic and social life as well as the religious and popular culture of the region as they develop over two centuries The political structures of the region are also closely examined from the insurgencies and rebellions of early this century to the modern Nationalist movements which challenged the control of the colonial powers and led to the formation of independent states Under the editorship of Nicholas Tarling Professor of History at the University of Auckland New Zealand each chapter is well integrated into the whole Professor Tarling has assembled a highly respected team of international scholars who have presented the latest historical research on the region and succeeded in producing a provocative and exciting account of the region s history The Philippines Reader Daniel B. Schirmer, Stephen Roskamm Shalom, 1987 The Philippines Reader illuminates the history of the continuing struggle of the Philippines people for true independence and social justice Daniel Schirmer and Stephen Shalom have put together a single volume readings and documents providing essential background from the turn of the century U S war of conquest to the new administration of Corazon Aquino Analytical articles from varying authors explore among other topics the nature of the U S colonial regime the role of the church conflicts with national minorities the situation of labor peasants and women and U S policy as well as prospects for the future Documentary selections in this Philippines Reader come from such diverse sources as the CIA and the State Department U S Presidents McKinley and Reagan Philippine leaders Aguinaldo and Aquino Philippine nationalist and left organizations such as the Anti Base Coalition Bayan Kaakbay and the New People s Army and U S opponents of foreign intervention The editors introduce explain and tie together over eighty readings making this the most complete introduction available on events in the Philippines Toward a Theology of Struggle Eleazar S. Fernandez, 2009-02-01 The Theology of Struggle is a genuinely popular Filipino theology rooted in the history and culture of a people who have endured colonial oppression at the hands of Spain North America and Japan as well as neo colonialism and home grown dictatorship Because Christianity has played a role in assisting the history of oppression in the Philippines a theology of struggle must include a struggle in theology to wrest Christian symbols from the hands of the oppressors and return them to the poor This theology which is otherwise expressed in articles poems art and action receives its first systematic treatment in Toward a Theology of Struggle In Part One Fernandez establishes the historical and cultural context out of which the Theology of Struggle has emerged Part Two represents Fernandez s own constructive work in which he shows how a theology of struggle must address the quest for identity and peoplehood In Part Three Fernandez explores the question of theological method outlining the areas of convergence and distinction between the Theology of struggle and other Third World theologies as well as setting forth the distinctive challenge that this theology of the Philippines poses to the authority and dominance of Western theology as a whole State and Society in the Philippines Patricio N. Abinales, Donna J. Amoroso, 2017-07-06 This clear and nuanced introduction to the Philippines explores the ongoing dilemma of state society relations explaining the peculiar nature of a weak state that has managed to survive rebellions dictatorship and economic crisis yet is unable to foster economic development and equality and guarantee long term political stability

complex examination of criminality and the criminal as constructs and active presences in Southeast Asia Contributors explore such themes as surveillance incarceration law and custom secrecy and corruption A fascinating study of power and subversion in the modern postcolonial nation state Contributors include Daniel S Lev Henk M J Maier Rudolf Mrazek James T Siegel and others      Communication against Capital Rianne Subijanto,2025-02-15 Communication against Capital explores the revolutionary communication strategies of the pergerakan merah the anticolonial red movement in 1920s Indonesia Rianne Subijanto tells the story of ordinary lower class women and children and people of diverse races and ethnicities who waged their battles against Dutch colonialism within multiple arenas of communication including political associations assemblies printed matter schools and shipping lines Existing communication technologies were repurposed into mechanisms of struggle and used as weapons in anticolonial and anticapitalist resistance In this process communist ideas merged with ideals drawn from the Enlightenment to shape the emancipatory spirit of Indonesians This red enlightenment motivated the production of revolutionary communication strategies of mobilization Subijanto s innovative work shows that the novel techniques of the pergerakan merah served to shift anticolonial mobilization in Indonesia from warfare to modern forms of communication      Filipino Politics David Wurfel,1991 Wurfel presents a full examination of the island republic from independence to the present placed in the context of the Philippines long and rich history He has taken advantage of new research and publications and has devoted more than a third of the study to the Marcos and Aquino administrations This is an important book a study no student of Philippine politics and society can ignore Choice      Nationalism in Southeast Asia Nicholas Tarling,2004-08-02 Nationalism in Southeast Asia seeks a definition of nationalism through examining its role in the history of southeast Asia a region rarely included in general books on the topic By developing such a definition and testing it out Tarling hopes at the same time to make a contribution to southeast Asian historiography and to limit its ghettoization Tarling considers the role of nationalism in the nation building of the post colonial phase and its relationship both with the democratic aspirations associated with the winning of independence and with the authoritarianism of the closing decades of the 20th century      Amazons of the Huk Rebellion Vina A. Lanzona,2009-04-22 Labeled Amazons by the national press women played a central role in the Huk rebellion one of the most significant peasant based revolutions in modern Philippine history As spies organizers nurses couriers soldiers and even military commanders women worked closely with men to resist first Japanese occupation and later after WWII to challenge the new Philippine republic But in the midst of the uncertainty and violence of rebellion these women also pursued personal lives falling in love becoming pregnant and raising families often with their male comrades in arms Drawing on interviews with over one hundred veterans of the movement Vina A Lanzona explores the Huk rebellion from the intimate and collective experiences of its female participants demonstrating how their presence and the complex questions of gender family and sexuality they provoked ultimately shaped the nature of the revolutionary struggle Winner Kenneth W Baldrige Prize for the best history book written by a resident of Hawaii sponsored by Brigham Young University Hawaii      Dynasties and Female Political Leaders in Asia Claudia Derichs, Mark R. Thompson, 2013 This book is the first comprehensive academic effort to examine the phenomenon of top female political leaders in Asia It portrays prime ministers presidents and opposition leaders but it is not a conventional biographical volume Rather it analyzes female politicians by means of case studies that are based on a common theoretical framework The case studies were conducted over three years of field research which included interviews with the female leaders themselves and members of their inner circle Each chapter explores the similarities but also points to the distinctiveness of each female leader arising from political and social systems cultural and religious conditions and economic parameters Series Political Science Perspectives Politikwissenschaftliche Perspektiven Vol 16      Colonial Counterpoint D. R. M. Irving, 2010-06-03 Named one of BBC History Magazine s Books of the Year in 2010 In this groundbreaking study D R M Irving reconnects the Philippines to current musicological discourse on the early modern Hispanic world For some two and a half centuries the Philippine Islands were firmly interlinked to Latin America and Spain through transoceanic relationships of politics religion trade and culture The city of Manila founded in 1571 represented a vital intercultural nexus and a significant conduit for the regional diffusion of Western music Within its ethnically diverse society imported and local musics played a crucial role in the establishment of ecclesiastical hierarchies in the Philippines and in propelling the work of Roman Catholic missionaries in neighboring territories Manila s religious institutions resounded with sumptuous vocal and instrumental performances while an annual calendar of festivities brought together many musical traditions of the indigenous and immigrant populations in complex forms of artistic interaction and opposition Multiple styles and genres coexisted according to strict regulations enforced by state and ecclesiastical authorities and Irving uses the metaphors of European counterpoint and enharmony to critique musical practices within the colonial milieu He argues that the introduction and institutionalization of counterpoint acted as a powerful agent of colonialism throughout the Philippine Archipelago and that contrapuntal structures were reflected in the social and cultural reorganization of Filipino communities under Spanish rule He also contends that the active appropriation of music and dance by the indigenous population constituted a significant contribution to the process of hispanization Sustained enharmonic engagement between Filipinos and Spaniards led to the synthesis of hybrid syncretic genres and the emergence of performance styles that could contest and subvert hegemony Throwing new light on a virtually unknown area of music history this book contributes to current understanding of the globalization of music and repositions the Philippines at the frontiers of research into early modern intercultural exchange
