Paterson Ewen:

Paterson Ewen Paterson Ewen, Ron Graham, Art Gallery of Ontario, 1996 Paterson Ewen is one of Canada's most accomplished and admired painters. He is famous for his monumental paintings of phenomena, powerful works that capture the grandeur of nature and extend the tradition of landscape painting in Canada. According to Michael Ondaatje, "Perhaps there is a balance and security in these precarious works because of the very fact that they seem to have been torn out of the heart and earth." Born in Montreal in 1925, Paterson Ewen was heralded as one of the leading modern artists in Quebec. In 1968, he moved to London, Ontario, where he still lived and worked at the time of publication. Ewen's work is in the collections of most public art institutions in Canada and has been exhibited widely in North America and Europe. He was chosen to represent Canada at the 1982 Venice Biennale, and his numerous honours include the Chalmers Award for Visual Arts and the Toronto Arts Award. This beautifully produced volume presents a selection of Ewen's most important works: 50 in full colour and 72 in black and white, as well as four texts celebrating a career that spans six decades. Michael Ondaatje's introduction reflects on the act of making art and is rooted in his response to Ewen's works. Ron Graham's biographical essay presents much new information on Ewen and his community of artists in Montreal and London. Matthew Teitelbaum's critical essay examines Ewen's career, his development, influences, and achievement. Eric Fischl's afterword offers a personal view of his friendship with Ewen. This book was published in partnership with the Art Gallery of Ontario.

Depicting Canada's Children Loren Lerner, 2011-04-07 Depicting Canada's Children is a critical analysis of the visual representation of Canadian children from the seventeenth century to the present. Recognizing the importance of methodological diversity, these essays discuss understandings of children and childhood derived from depictions across a wide range of media and contexts. But rather than simply examine images in formal settings, the authors take into account the components of the images and the role of image making in everyday life. The contributors provide a close study of the evolution of the figure of the child and shed light on the defining role children have played in the history of Canada and our assumptions about them. Rather than offer comprehensive historical coverage, this collection is a catalyst for further study through case studies that endorse innovative scholarship. This book will be of interest to scholars in art history, Canadian history, visual culture, Canadian studies, and the history of children.

Beyond Wilderness John O'Brien, 2007-09-30 The great purpose of landscape art is to make us at home in our own country, was the nationalist maxim motivating the Group of Seven's artistic project. The empty landscape paintings of the Group played a significant role in the nationalization of nature in Canada, particularly in the development of ideas about northernness, wilderness, and identity. In this book, John O'Brien and Peter White pick up where the Group of Seven left off. They demonstrate that since the 1960s, a growing body of both art and critical writing has looked beyond wilderness to re-imagine landscape in a world of vastly altered political, technological, and environmental circumstances. By emphasizing social relationships, changing identity, politics, and issues of colonial power and dispossession, contemporary artists have produced landscape art that explores what was absent in the work of their predecessors Beyond Wilderness expands the public understanding of Canadian landscape representation tracing debates about the place of landscape in Canadian art and the national imagination through the twentieth century to the present Critical writings from both contemporary and historically significant curators historians feminists media theorists and cultural critics and exactly reproduced artworks by contemporary and historical artists are brought together in productive dialogue Beyond Wilderness explains why landscape art in Canada had to be reinvented and what forms the reinvention took Contributors include Benedict Anderson Cornell Grant Arnold Vancouver Art Gallery Rebecca Belmore Jody Berland York Eleanor Bond Concordia Jonathan Bordo Trent Douglas Cole Marlene Creates Marcia Crosby Malaspina Greg Curnoe Ann Davis Nickle Arts Museum Leslie Dawn Lethbridge Shawna Dempsey Christos Dikeakos Peter Doig Rosemary Donegan OCAD Stan Douglas Paterson Ewen Robert Fones Northrop Frye Robert Fulford General Idea Rodney Graham Reesa Greenberg Gu Xiong British Columbia Cole Harris British Columbia Richard William Hill Middlesex Robert Houle Andrew Hunter Waterloo Lynda Jessup Queen s Zacharias Kunuk Igloolik Isuma Productions Johanne Lamoureux Montreal Robert Linsley Waterloo Barry Lord Lord Cultural Resources Marshall McLuhan Mike MacDonald Liz Magor ECIAD Lorri Millan Gerta Moray Guelph Roald Nasgaard Florida State N E Thing Company Carol Payne Carleton Edward Poitras Dennis Reid Art Gallery of Ontario Michel Saulnier Nancy Shaw Simon Fraser Johanne Sloan Concordia Michael Snow Robert Stacey David Thauberger Loretta Todd Esther Trepanier Quebec Dot Tuer OCAD Christopher Varley Jeff Wall Paul H Walton McMaster Mel Watkins Toronto Scott Watson British Columbia Anne Whitelaw Alberta Joyce Wieland Jin me Yoon Simon Fraser Lawrence Paul Yuxweluptun and Joyce Zemans York Paterson Ewen, 1988 Entangled Bruce Grenville, David MacWilliam, 2017 Entangled Two Views on Contemporary Canadian Painting offers an insight into two distinctly different modes of painting that have come to dominate contemporary painting in this country The origins of both can be effectively traced back to the 1970s to a moment when the continued existence of painting was hotly debated Within that debate two new strategies were devised one that proposed the possibility of conceptual painting a highly refined notion of painting that emerged from and returned to the idea and a second ambivalent proposition that valued actions and materials over ideas in short doing and making were pitted against ideas and concepts now enjoys in Canada Robert Houle Shirley Madill, 2021-10-18 Saulteaux artist Robert Houle b 1947 has claimed space and authority for Indigenous representation in contemporary art for more than fifty years This new publication celebrates his generational influence and coincides with his exhibition Red Is Beautiful organized by the Art Gallery of Ontario and touring to the Winnipeg Art Gallery and the National Museum of the American Indian at the Smithsonian Institution A curator writer and educator as well as an artist Houle has made a profound impact Growing up on the Sandy Bay First Nation Kaa wii kwe tawang kak in Manitoba he was placed in residential school and denied access to his family and traditions Always fiercely principled he has dedicated his career to challenging colonialist perspectives In 1980 he resigned

Double-cross
Philip Monk, Douglas Gordon, Power Plant (Art gallery), York University (Toronto, Ont.). Art Gallery, 2003 How to double cross Hollywood as an artist This first monograph on British artist Douglas Gordon analyses all of the artist's video projection installations that are based on his appropriations of Hollywood film noir or Hitchcock films examining Gordon's language works as well Counter to the usual interpretations of Gordon's work as a dichotomy between good and evil Double Cross argues that his work is all about dissemblance with the dichotomy only one deception among others It also argues that with the inaugural separation of the components of sound and image in his work one of the artist's disguises is that of an author All the fragments of the artist's work projections language works photography add up to the production of a criminal author His final disguise is that of an experimental filmmaker whose subject is not the film noir themes of trust guilt fate and the madness of the double that appear as the content of his work but the temporality of the spectator's engagement
