Jerry Roberts

Path To Paradise The Untold Story Of The World Trade Center Bombing:

Firestorm Stephen Prince, 2009 It was believed that September 11th would make certain kinds of films obsolete such as action thrillers crackling with explosions or high casualty blockbusters where the hero escapes unscathed While the production of these films did ebb the full impact of the attacks on Hollywood's creative output is still taking shape Did 9 11 force filmmakers and screenwriters to find new methods of storytelling What kinds of movies have been made in response to 9 11 and are they factual Is it even possible to practice poetic license with such a devastating broadly felt tragedy Stephen Prince is the first scholar to trace the effect of 9 11 on the making of American film From documentaries like Fahrenheit 9 11 2004 to zombie flicks and from fictional narratives such as The Kingdom 2007 to Mike Nichols's Charlie Wilson's War 2007 Prince evaluates the extent to which filmmakers have exploited explained understood or interpreted the attacks and the Iraq War that followed including incidents at Abu Ghraib He begins with pre 9 11 depictions of terrorism such as Alfred Hitchcock's Sabotage 1936 and follows with studio and independent films that directly respond to 9 11 He considers documentary portraits and conspiracy films as well as serial television shows most notably Fox's 24 and made for TV movies that represent the attacks in a broader more intimate way Ultimately Prince finds that in these triumphs and failures an exciting new era of American filmmaking has taken shape

Visions of the Apocalypse Wheeler Winston Dixon, 2003-09-17 Visions of the Apocalypse examines the cinema's fascination with the prospect of nuclear and or natural annihilation as seen in such films as Saving Private Ryan Bowling for Columbine We Were Soldiers Invasion U S A The Last War Tidal Wave The Bed Sitting Room The Last Days of Man on Earth and numerous others It also considers the ways in which contemporary cinema has become increasingly hyper conglomerised leading to films with ever higher budgets and fewer creative risks Along the way the author discusses such topics as the death of film itself to be replaced by digital video the political and social tensions that have made these visions of infinite destruction so appealing to the public and the new wave of Hollywood war films coupled with escapist comedies in the post 9 11 era Encompassing both questions of physical and filmic mortality Visions of the Apocalypse is a meditation on the questions of time memory and the cinema's seemingly unending appetite for spectacles of destruction

The Paranormal Surrounds Us Richard Reichbart, 2019-01-02 Shakespeare Tolstoy Joyce E M Forster and Ingmar Bergman all made the paranormal essential to their depiction of humanity Freud recognized telepathy as an everyday phenomenon Observations on parapsychological aspects of psychoanalysis also include the findings of the Mesmerists Jung Ferenczi and Eisenbud Many academicians attribute such psychic discoveries to poetic license rather than to accurate understanding of our parapsychological capacities The author a practicing psychoanalyst and parapsychologist and a lawyer familiar with Navajo culture argues for a fresh appraisal of psi phenomena and their integration into psychoanalytic theory and clinical work literary studies and anthropology

Hollywood in Crisis or: The Collapse of the Real Wheeler Winston Dixon, 2016-08-13 This book discusses the collapse and transformation of the Hollywood movie machine in the twenty first century and the concomitant social collapse being felt in nearly every aspect of society Wheeler Winston Dixon examines key works in cinema from the era of late stage capitalists analyzing Hollywood films and the current wave of cinema developed outside of the Hollywood system alike Dixon illustrates how movies and television programs across these spaces have adopted reflected and generated a society in crisis and with it a crisis for the cinematic industry itself
