through its engagement with subjects derived from mythology history and available colonial models such as Shakespeare Bhatia s attention to local histories within a postcolonial framework places performance in a global and transcultural context Drawing connections between art and politics between performance and everyday experience Bhatia shows how performance often intervened in political debates and even changed the course of politics One of the first Western studies of Indian theater to link the aesthetics and the politics of that theater Acts of Authority Acts of Resistance combines in depth archival research with close readings of dramatic texts performed at critical moments in history Each chapter amplifies its themes against the backdrop of specific social conditions as it examines particular dramatic productions from The Indigo Mirror to adaptations of Shakespeare plays by Indian theater companies illustrating the role of theater in bringing nationalist anticolonial and gendered struggles into the public sphere Nandi Bhatia is Associate Professor of English at the University of Western Ontario

The Solaris Effect Steven Dillon, 2010-01-01 What do contemporary American movies and directors have to say about the relationship between nature and art How do science fiction films like Steven Spielberg's A.I. and Darren Aronofsky's represent the apparent oppositions between nature and culture wild and tame Steven Dillon's intriguing new volume surveys American cinema from 1990 to 2002 with substantial descriptions of sixty films emphasizing small budget independent American film Directors studied include Steven Soderbergh Darren Aronofsky Todd Haynes Harmony Korine and Gus Van

Sant as well as more canonical figures like Martin Scorsese Robert Altman David Lynch and Steven Spielberg The book takes its title and inspiration from Andrei Tarkovsky s 1972 film Solaris a science fiction ghost story that relentlessly explores the relationship between the powers of nature and art The author argues that American film has the best chance of aesthetic success when it acknowledges that a film is actually a film The best American movies tell an endless ghost story as they perform the agonizing nearness and distance of the cinematic image This groundbreaking commentary examines the rarely seen bridge between select American film directors and their typically more adventurous European counterparts Filmmakers such as Lynch and Soderbergh are cross cut together with Tarkovsky and the great French director Jean Luc Godard in order to test the limits and possibilities of American film Both enthusiastically cinephilic and fiercely critical this book puts a decade of U S film in its global place as part of an ongoing conversation on nature and art
