The Castle of Crossed Destinies Italo Calvino, 1997 Calvino tells the mingled tales of The Castle of Crossed Destinies by means of tarot cards Travellers meet in a castle or in a second section a tavern where their powers of speech are magically taken from them and a tarot card is placed at their disposal The velvet spiders: an atlas of the Eresidae (Arachnida, Araneae) Jeremy A. Miller, Charles E. Griswold, Nikolaj Scharff, Milan ?ez??, Tam?s Sz?ts, Mohammad Marhabaie,2012-05-18 The name velvet spider describes the dark and shiny appearance of members of the family Eresidae. Some species also have brightly colored highlights such as the red white and black ladybird spiders of Europe and North Asia. This family also includes some of the world's most cooperative spider species. Social species can be very abundant in parts of tropical Africa and Asia with conspicuous colonies dotting the landscape. Social colonies may consist of hundreds of closely related individuals that participate in dramatic mass attacks on prey and care for their young. The ecology of these social species is fascinating and has been the subject of several landmark scientific papers. By contrast, most kinds of velvet spider are rarely encountered. Most species keep well hidden or dig burrows and live underground. This monograph provides a generic level review of Eresidae documented with collections of photographs, scanning electron micrographs and illustrations. A key to the nine genera and other major lineages is provided. A new phylogeny of Eresidae based on molecular sequence data expands on a previously published analysis. Cybertaxonomic enhancements include an interactive map of the specimens used in the study, explorable using Google Earth, specimen records uploaded to GBIF and molecular sequence alignments and other data archived on Dryad. An EDIT Integrated Research grant provided principal funding for this project. Charlotte's Web E. B. White, 1952 Sixty years ago on October 15, 1952, E. B. White's Charlotte's Web was published. It's gone on to become one of the most beloved children's books of all time. To celebrate this milestone, the renowned Newbery Medalist Kate DiCamillo has written a heartfelt and poignant tribute to the book that is itself a beautiful translation of White's own view of the world of the joy he took in the change of seasons in farm life, in the miracles of life and death and in short, the glory of everything. We are proud to include Kate DiCamillo's foreword in the 60th anniversary editions of this cherished classic. Charlotte's Web is the story of a little girl named Fern who loved a little pig named Wilbur and of Wilbur's dear friend Charlotte. A Cavatica, a beautiful large grey spider who lived with Wilbur in the barn. With the help of Templeton, the rat who never did anything for anybody unless there was something in it for him, and by a wonderfully clever plan of her own, Charlotte saved the life of Wilbur, who by this time had grown up to quite a pig. How all this comes about is Mr. White's story. It is a story of the magic of childhood on the farm. The thousands of children who loved Stuart Little, the heroic little city mouse, will be entranced with Charlotte, the spider, Wilbur, the pig, and Fern, the little girl who understood their language. The forty-seven black and white drawings by Garth Williams have all the wonderful detail and warmhearted appeal that children love in his work. Incomparably matched to E. B. White's marvelous story, they speak to each new generation softly and irresistibly. Letters 1941-1985 Italo Calvino, 2014-06-05 Italo Calvino, Italy's most important postwar novelist, was also an influential literary critic, an important literary editor, and a masterful letter writer whose correspondents included Umberto Eco, Primo Levi, Gore Vidal, Michelangelo Antonioni, and Pier Paolo Pasolini. The letters included in this selection are filled with insights about Calvino's writing and that of others about Italian, American, English, and French literature, about literary criticism and literature in general, and about culture and politics.
