examines architecture's relationship to history's greatest social technological and environmental dilemmas. He then presents a rich selection of work by a global array of practicing architects demonstrating how innovative design can dramatically improve life in big cities and small settlements around the world from campuses and refugee camps to mega cities like São Paulo, Lima, Los Angeles, New York, Paris, and Tokyo. Lavishly illustrated with a wealth of original graphics, data visualizations, photographs, and drawings, The Architecture of Urbanity eloquently explains why cities are the last best hope for humanity and why designers must, alongside political, business, community, and cultural leaders, steward the healing of our planet.

Air Transportation Robert M. Kane, 2003. The current conditions of the Air Transport industry as well as expectations for the future are presented in sections covering the historical and present status of air transportation regulation and administration of air transportation: air carrier aircraft, Boeing, McDonnell Douglas, Lockheed Martin, Airbus, and National Aerospace and general aviation. The final legislation of the General Aviation Revitalization Act 1994 is presented in a new chapter. The included disk contains a DOS-based summary of the chapters.
