Pass The Polenta And Other Writings From The Kitchen:

Pass the Polenta Teresa Lust,1998 In The Tradition of M F K Fisher and Laurie Colwin Teresa Lust writes about the preparation of food and the breaking of bread with the exuberance of an impassioned cook and the clarity of a graceful writer The author venerates old fashioned simplicity from stove top coffee in a rustic Italian cucina to antique varieties of apples in a New Hampshire orchard She skewers passing food trends Polenta is family food Mama feeds it to her baby when his teeth are coming in Papa feeds it to his mama when her teeth have fallen out And she offers a smorgasbord of food trivia The artichoke enjoyed a long reign as an aphrodisiac because of its alleged ability to heat the body Catherine de Medici could not contain her scandalous predilection for artichokes A professional chef and skilled culinary historian Lust has created a book that is part memoir part cookbook and part exploration into the origins of her favorite foods and dishes It is a celebration of home cooking and of people who know how to make meals more than just thrice daily opportunities to refuel Lusts chapters typically revolve around stories that include the preparation or consumption of a particular dish from chicken with figs and fresh thyme to spaghetti alla carbonara and Pass the Polenta contains an index of recipes that readers will come to treasure

Voices in the Kitchen Meredith E. Abarca,2006-03-16 Literally chilaquiles are a breakfast I grew up eating fried corn tortillas with tomato chile sauce Symbolically they are the culinary metaphor for how working class women speak with the seasoning of their food from the Introduction Through the ages and across cultures women have carved out a domain in which their cooking allowed them to express themselves strengthen family relationships and create a world of shared meanings with other women In Voices in the Kitchen Meredith E Abarca features the voices of her mother and several other family members and friends seated at their kitchen tables to share the grassroots world view of these working class Mexican and Mexican American women In the kitchen Abarca demonstrates women assert their own saz n seasoning not only in their cooking but also in their lives Through a series of oral histories or charlas culinarias culinary chats the women interviewed address issues of space sensual knowledge artistic and narrative expression and cultural and social change From her mother s breakfast chilaquiles to the most elaborate traditional dinner these women share their lives as they share their savory symbolic and theoretical meanings of food The charlas culinarias represent spoken personal narratives testimonial autobiography and a form of culinary memoir one created by the cooks as writers who speak from their kitchen space Abarca then looks at writers as cooks to add an additional dimension to the understanding of women s power to define themselves Voices in the Kitchen joins the extensive culinary research of the last decade in exploring the importance of the knowledge found in the practical concrete and temporal aspects of the ordinary practice of everyday cooking Toxic Feedback Joni B. Cole,2023-05-14 From veteran teacher and acclaimed author Joni B Cole comes a revised and expanded edition of her popular writing guide Toxic Feedback Successful writers know that feedback is often the difference between writing and not writing and between writing and writing well But feedback mismanaged is more likely to leave the writer confused intimidated or even deflated This book not only detoxifies the feedback process with humor but it also shows writers and feedback providers how to make the most of this powerful resource at every stage of the writing and publishing process This new edition includes a second preface four new chapters updates throughout the original material and several additional exercises Cole also includes new and previous interviews with authors such as Khaled Hosseini Juan Morales Grace Paley Jodi Picoult and Matthew Salesses Toxic Feedback remains essential reading for all writers critique groups MFA programs and teachers of writing at every level Materialising Exile Sandra Dudley,2010-03-01 Focusing on the highly diverse Karenni refugee population living in camps on the Thai Burma border this innovative book explores materiality embodiment memory imagination and identity among refugees providing new and important ways of understanding how refugees make sense of experience self and other It examines how and to what ends refugees perceive represent manipulate use as metaphor and otherwise engage with material objects and spaces and includes a focus on the real and metaphorical journeys that bring about and perpetuate exile The combined emphasis on both displacement and materiality and the analysis of the cultural construction and intersections of exilic objects spaces and bodies are unique in the study of both refugees and material culture Drawing theoretical influences from phenomenology aesthetics and beyond as well as from refugee studies and anthropology the author addresses the current lack of theoretical analysis of the material visual spatial and embodied aspects of forced migration providing a fundamentally interlinked analysis of enforced exile and materiality The Daily Reader Fred White,2009-10-13 Let Great Reading Fuel Your Writing Great writers read voraciously and across many topics and genres They read to learn to research to study the style of others and to improve their own work They read because they love the written word But becoming well read takes time dedication and patience The thought can be daunting especially when you're eager to get to your own writing Fred White author of The Daily Writer helps you sort through the plethora of reading material available by providing you with 366 engaging excerpts from ancient poetry to modern science on topics from allegory to food to writer's block Each thoughtfully chosen excerpt is followed by a brief reflection and a prompt that allows you to integrate elements from each piece into your own writing The Daily Reader makes broad reading accessible invigorates your thirst for the written word and equips you to put the power of the pros behind your writing A Blissful Feast Teresa Lust,2020-03-03 A delicious journey through Italy and a celebration of the relationship between family and food Moving from the Italian Piedmont to the Maremma and then to Le Marche chef Teresa Lust interweaves portraits of the people who served as her culinary guides with cultural and natural history in this charming exploration of authentic Italian cuisine We learn how to prepare bagna cauda a robust dipping sauce of anchovies garlic and olive oil with Lust's relatives outside Torino We learn about making hand stretched grissini Italy's iconic breadstick the secrets of whipping up zabaglione a classic dessert of ethereal foam made with egg yolks sugar and marsala Then there is acquacotta a rustic soup that nourished generations of the area's shepherds and cowhands In the town of Camerano an eighty year old woman reveals the art of hand rolling pasta with a three foot rolling pin Underpinning Lust's travels is our journey from chef to cook mirroring the fact that Italians have been masters of home cooking for generations so they are an obvious source of inspiration Today more and more people are rediscovering the pleasures of cooking at home and Lust's account and wonderful recipes will help readers bring an Italian sensibility to their home tables Matzoh Ball Gumbo (Volume 2 of 2) (EasyRead Super Large 18pt Edition)
