Passage To Paradise:

Racing Through Paradise William F. Buckley, 2024-08-06 Racing Through Paradise is the third entry in Bill Buckley's now classic sailing trilogy. Here the irresponsible eloquent enjoyable Buckley guides us through his beloved Azores and through the Galapagos the Bronx Zoo at the Equator about which he inclines more to Melville's view than to Darwin's and through places such as Johnston Atoll where mysteries and hostilities await. On a hilarious side adventure we have a memorable encounter with The Angel of Craig's Point. Along the way Buckley navigates among pleasant diversions as well as unforeseen navigational and philosophical shoals. He adroitly excerpts the candid journals of his shipmates notably that of his son Christopher himself a best selling novelist. The fine photographs by Christopher Little illustrate throughout. When Buckley's Sealestial sails finally into New Guinea we have shared a unique experience with a special breed of sailor skipper host friend and human being.

Night Passage Robert B. Parker, 2001-07-01 Robert B Parker introduces readers to police chief Jesse Stone in the first novel in the beloved mystery series a New York Times bestseller. After a busted marriage kicks his drinking problem into overdrive and the LAPD unceremoniously dumps him thirty five year old Jesse Stone's future looks bleak. So he is shocked when a small Massachusetts town called Paradise recruits him as police chief. He can't help wondering if this job is a genuine chance to start over the kind of offer he can't refuse. Once on board Jesse doesn't have to look for trouble in Paradise it comes to him. For what is on the surface a quiet New England community quickly proves to be a crucible of political and moral corruption replete with triple homicide tight Boston mob ties flamboyantly errant spouses maddened militiamen and a psychopath about town who has fixed his violent sights on the new lawman. Against all this Jesse stands utterly alone with no one to trust even he and the woman he's seeing are like ships passing in the night. He finds he must test his mettle and powers of command to emerge a local hero or the deadeast of dupes.

Paradise Hanya Yanagihara, 2023-03-21 NATIONAL BESTSELLER NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER From the author of the classic A Little Life a bold brilliant novel spanning three centuries and three different versions of the American experiment about lovers family loss and the elusive promise of utopia In an alternate version of 1893 America New York is part of the Free States where people may live and love whomever they please or so it seems The fragile young scion of a distinguished family resists betrothal to a worthy suitor drawn to a charming music teacher of no means In a 1993 Manhattan besieged by the AIDS epidemic a young Hawaiian man lives with his much older wealthier partner hiding his troubled childhood and the fate of his father And in 2093 in a world riven by plagues and governed by totalitarian rule a powerful scientist's damaged granddaughter tries to navigate life without him and solve the mystery of her husband's disappearances These three sections are joined in an enthralling and ingenious symphony as recurring notes and themes deepen and enrich one another A townhouse in Washington Square Park in Greenwich Village illness and treatments that come at a terrible cost wealth and squalor the weak and the strong race the definition of family and of nationhood the dangerous righteousness of the powerful and of revolutionaries the longing to find a place in an earthly paradise and the gradual realization that it can't exist What unites not just the characters but these Americas are their reckonings with the qualities that make us human Fear Love Shame Need Loneliness To Paradise is a fin de siècle novel of marvelous literary effect but above all it is a work of emotional genius The great power of this remarkable novel is driven by Yanagihara's understanding of the aching desire to protect those we love partners lovers children friends family and even our fellow citizens and the pain that ensues when we cannot
