Passage To Ararat And Exiles:

Passage to Ararat Michael J. Arlen, 2014-06-17 In Passage to Ararat which received the National Book Award in 1976 Michael J Arlen goes beyond the portrait of his father the famous Anglo Armenian novelist of the 1920s that he created in Exiles to try to discover what his father had tried to forget Armenia and what it meant to be an Armenian a descendant of a proud people whom conquerors had for centuries tried to exterminate But perhaps most affectingly Arlen tells a story as large as a whole people yet as personal as the uneasy bond between a father and a son offering a masterful account of the affirmation and pain of kinship Exiles Michael J. Arlen, 1970 The Huntress Alice Arlen, Michael J. Arlen, 2016-08-23 From National Book Award winner Michael J Arlen and screenwriter Alice Arlen here is the fascinating adventurous life of Alicia Patterson who became at age thirty four one of the youngest and most successful newspaper publishers in America when she founded Newsday With The Huntress the Arlens give us a revealing picture of the lifestyle and traditions of the Patterson Medill publishing dynasty one of the country's most powerful and influential newspaper families but also Alicia's rebellious early years and her dominating father Joseph Patterson Founder and editor of the New York Daily News Patterson was a complicated and glamorous figure who in his youth had reported on Pancho Villa in Mexico and had outraged his conservative Chicago family by briefly espousing socialism Not once but twice first at age twenty Alicia agreed to marry men her father chose despite having her own more interesting suitors He encouraged her to do the difficult training required for an aviation transport license in 1934 she became only the tenth woman in America to receive one Patterson brought her along to London to meet with Lord Beaverbrook to Rome to meet Mussolini and to Moscow in 1937 at the time of Stalin's show trials where a young George Kennan took her under his wing Alicia caught the journalism bug writing for Liberty magazine an offshoot of the Daily News A trip to French Indochina highlighted her hunting skills and made the sultan of Johor an ardent admirer another trip would involve India the dangerous sport of pigsticking several maharajas and a tiger hunt A third marriage to Harry Guggenheim blew hot and cold but it did last it was with him that she started Newsday in a former car dealership on Long Island Governor Adlai E Stevenson two time Democratic candidate for president would be one of her last admirers With access to family archives of journals and letters Michael and Alice Arlen have written an astonishing portrait of a maverick newspaperwoman and an intrepid adventurer told with humor compassion and a profound understanding of a time and place With black and white illustrations throughout Say Goodbye to Sam Michael J. Arlen, 1984 Living-room War Michael J. Arlen, 1969 Black Dog of Fate Peter Balakian, 2009-02-10 His visions are burning his poetry heartbreaking wrote Elie Wiesel of American poet Peter Balakian Now in elegant prose the prize winning poet who James Dickey called an extraordinary talent has written a compelling memoir about growing up American in a family that was haunted by a past too fraught with terror to be spoken of openly Black Dog of Fate is set in the affluent New Jersey suburbs where Balakian the firstborn son of his generation grew up in a close extended family At the center of what was a quintessential American baby boom childhood lay the dark specter of a trauma his forebears had experienced the Ottoman Turkish government's extermination of more than a million Armenians in 1915 the century's first genocide In a story that climaxes to powerful personal and moral revelations Balakian traces the complex process of discovering the facts of his people's history and the horrifying aftermath of the Turkish government's campaign to cover up one of the worst crimes ever committed against humanity In describing his awakening to the facts of history Balakian introduces us to a remarkable family of matriarchs and merchants physicians a bishop and his aunts two well known figures in the world of literature The unforgettable central figure of the story is Balakian's grandmother a survivor and widow of the Genocide who speaks in fragments of metaphor and myth as she cooks up Armenian delicacies plays the stock market and keeps track of the baseball stats of her beloved Yankees The book is infused with the intense and often comic collision between this family's ancient Near Eastern traditions and the American pop culture of the 50s and 60s Balakian moves with ease from childhood memory to history to his ancestors lives to the story of a poet's coming of age Written with power and grace Black Dog of Fate unfolds like a tapestry its tale of survival against enormous odds Through the eyes of a poet here is the arresting story of a family's journey from its haunted past to a new life in a new world Exiles Michael J. Arlen, 1970 Fear and Trembling Soren Kierkegaard, 2013-01-18 In our time nobody is content to stop with faith but wants to go further It would perhaps be rash to ask where these people are going but it is surely a sign of breeding and culture for me to assume that everybody has faith for otherwise it would be queer for them to be going further In those old days it was different then faith was a task for a whole lifetime because it was assumed that dexterity in faith is not acquired in a few days or weeks When the tried oldster drew near to his last hour having fought the good fight and kept the faith his heart was still young enough not to have forgotten that fear and trembling which chastened the youth which the man indeed held in check but which no man quite outgrows except as he might succeed at the earliest opportunity in going further Where these revered figures arrived that is the point where everybody in our day begins to go further Exiles: Passage to Ararat Michael J. Arlen, 1970
