Nathaniel Hawthorne's Passages from the English Notebooks Complete is a collection of journal entries and observations made during his travels in England showcasing his keen eye for detail and his introspective nature. Written in Hawthorne's signature literary style, these passages offer a glimpse into the author's thoughts on English society, culture, and history, as well as his personal reflections on his surroundings. This book provides readers with a unique perspective on 19th-century England, making it a valuable resource for scholars and enthusiasts of Hawthorne's work.

Nathaniel Hawthorne, known for his classic works such as The Scarlet Letter and The House of the Seven Gables, drew inspiration from his experiences abroad to create this literary masterpiece. His profound understanding of human nature and his ability to capture the essence of a place are evident throughout the English Notebooks, showcasing his talent as a writer and observer of the world.

I highly recommend Passages from the English Notebooks Complete to readers who appreciate insightful observations, elegant prose, and a deeper understanding of Hawthorne's literary genius. This collection is a must-read for anyone interested in exploring the mind of one of America's greatest authors.

Passages from the English Note-books [of Nathaniel Hawthorne.] Nathaniel Hawthorne,1872 Passages from the English Notebooks Nathaniel Hawthorne,2016-09-01

It seems justly due to Mr Hawthorne that the occasion of any portion of his private journals being brought before the Public should be made known, since they were originally designed for his own reference only. There had been a constant and an urgent demand for a life or memoir of Mr Hawthorne; yet from the extreme delicacy and difficulty of the subject, the Editor felt obliged to refuse compliance with this demand. Moreover, Mr Hawthorne had frequently and emphatically expressed the hope that no one would attempt to write his Biography, and the Editor perceived that it would be impossible for any person outside of his own domestic circle to succeed in doing it on account of his extreme reserve. But it was ungracious to do nothing, and therefore the Editor, believing that Mr Hawthorne himself was alone capable of satisfactorily answering the affectionate call for some sketch of his life, concluded to publish as much as possible of his private records and even extracts from his private letters, in order to gratify the desire of his friends and of literary artists to become more intimately acquainted with him. The Editor has been severely blamed and wondered at in some instances for allowing many things now published to see the light but it has been a matter both of conscience and courtesy to withhold nothing that could be given up Many of the journals were doubtless destroyed for the earliest date found in his American papers was that of 1835 Passages from The English Notebooks of Nathaniel Hawthorne Nathaniel Hawthorne,1871
