Passed On Karla FC Holloway, 2003-09-03 A personal and historical account of the particular place of death and funerals in African American life Representations, 2004 Program of the ... Annual Meeting Organization of American Historians. Meeting, 2003 Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2002 OAH Annual Meeting Organization of American Historians. Meeting, 2004 The Queer Art of Failure Jack Halberstam, 2011-09-19 The Queer Art of Failure is about finding alternatives to conventional understandings of success in a heteronormative capitalist society to academic disciplines that confirm what is already known according to approved methods of knowing and to cultural criticism that claims to break new ground but cleaves to conventional archives Jack Halberstam proposes low theory as a mode of thinking and writing that operates at many different levels at once Low theory is derived from eccentric archives It runs the risk of not being taken seriously It entails a willingness to fail and to lose one's way to pursue difficult questions about complicity and to find counterintuitive forms of resistance Tacking back and forth between high theory and low theory high culture and low culture Halberstam looks for the unexpected and subversive in popular culture avant garde performance and queer art Halberstam pays particular attention to animated children's films revealing narratives filled with unexpected encounters between the childish the transformative and the queer Failure sometimes offers more creative cooperative and surprising ways of being in the world even as it forces us to face the dark side of life love and libido AAR/SBL Annual Meeting Program American Academy of Religion. Meeting, 2002 Dust to Dust Allan Amanik, 2019-12-24 A revealing look at how death and burial practices influence the living Dust to Dust offers a three hundred year history of Jewish life in New York literally from the ground up Taking Jewish cemeteries as its subject matter it follows the ways that Jewish New Yorkers have planned for death and burial from their earliest arrival in New Amsterdam to the twentieth century Allan Amanik charts a remarkable reciprocity among Jewish funerary provisions and the workings of family and communal life tracing how financial and family concerns in death came to equal earlier priorities rooted in tradition and communal cohesion At the same time he shows how shifting emphases in death gave average Jewish families the ability to advocate for greater protections and entitlements such as widows benefits and funeral insurance Amanik ultimately concludes that planning for life's end helps to shape social systems in ways that often go unrecognized Liquidated Karen Ho, 2009-07-13 Financial collapses whether of the junk bond market the Internet bubble or the highly leveraged housing market are often explained as the inevitable result of market cycles What goes up must come down In Liquidated Karen Ho punctures the aura of the abstract all powerful market to show how financial markets and particularly booms and busts are constructed Through an in depth investigation into the everyday experiences and ideologies of Wall Street investment bankers Ho describes how a financially dominant but highly unstable market system is understood justified and produced through the restructuring of corporations and the larger economy Ho who worked at an investment bank herself argues that bankers approaches to financial markets and corporate

America are inseparable from the structures and strategies of their workplaces Her ethnographic analysis of those workplaces is filled with the voices of stressed first year associates overworked and alienated analysts undergraduates eager to be hired and seasoned managing directors Recruited from elite universities as the best and the brightest investment bankers are socialized into a world of high risk and high reward They are paid handsomely with the understanding that they may be let go at any time Their workplace culture and networks of privilege create the perception that job insecurity builds character and employee liquidity results in smart efficient business Based on this culture of liquidity and compensation practices tied to profligate deal making Wall Street investment bankers reshape corporate America in their own image Their mission is the creation of shareholder value but Ho demonstrates that their practices and assumptions often produce crises instead By connecting the values and actions of investment bankers to the construction of markets and the restructuring of U S corporations Liquidated reveals the particular culture of Wall Street often obscured by triumphalist readings of capitalist globalization

The Archive and the Repertoire Diana Taylor, 2003-09-12 DIVAn interdisciplinary study about the centrality of performance in Latin American culture and politics div The Writers Directory ,2013 You Need a Schoolhouse Stephanie Deutsch, 2011-12-30 Discusses the friendship between Booker T Wahington founder of the Tuskegee Institute and Julius Rosenwald president of Sears Roebuck and Company and how through their friendship they were able to build five thousand schools for African Americans in the Southern states A History of African Americans of Delaware and Maryland's Eastern Shore Carole C. Marks, 1998 Blacks at Harvard Werner Sollors, Caldwell Titcomb, Thomas A. Underwood, 1993-03 The history of blacks at Harvard mirrors for better or for worse the history of blacks in the United States Harvard too has been indelibly scarred by slavery exclusion segregation and other forms of racist oppression At the same time the nation s oldest university has also at various times stimulated supported or allowed itself to be influenced by the various reform movements that have dramatically changed the nature of race relations across the nation The story of blacks at Harvard is thus inspiring but painful instructive but ambiguous a paradoxical episode in the most vexing controversy of American life the race question The first and only book on its subject Blacks at Harvard is distinguished by the rich variety of its sources Included in this documentary history are scholarly overviews poems short stories speeches well known memoirs by the famous previously unpublished memoirs by the lesser known newspaper accounts letters official papers of the university and transcripts of debates Among Harvard s black alumni and alumnae are such illustrious figures as W E B Du Bois Monroe Trotter and Alain Locke Countee Cullen and Sterling Brown both received graduate degrees The editors have collected here writings as diverse as those of Booker T Washington William Hastie Malcolm X and Muriel Snowden to convey the complex ways in which Harvard has affected the thinking of African Americans and the ways in turn in which African Americans have influenced the traditions of Harvard and Radcliffe Notable among the contributors are significant figures in African American letters Phyllis Wheatley William Melvin Kelley Marita Bonner James Alan McPherson and Andrea Lee

Equally prominent in the book are some of the nation's leading historians Carter Woodson Rayford Logan John Hope Franklin and Nathan I Huggins A vital sourcebook Blacks at Harvard is certain to nourish scholarly inquiry into the social and intellectual history of African Americans at elite national institutions and serves as a telling metaphor of this nation's past

Mirror to America John Hope Franklin, 2007-04-15 John Hope Franklin lived through America's most defining twentieth century transformation the dismantling of legally protected racial segregation A renowned scholar he has explored that transformation in its myriad aspects notably in his 3.5 million copy bestseller From Slavery to Freedom Born in 1915 he like every other African American could not help but participate he was evicted from whites only train cars confined to segregated schools threatened once with lynching and consistently subjected to racism's denigration of his humanity Yet he managed to receive a Ph.D. from Harvard become the first black historian to assume a full professorship at a white institution Brooklyn College and be appointed chair of the University of Chicago's history department and later John B. Duke Professor at Duke University He has reshaped the way African American history is understood and taught and become one of the world's most celebrated historians garnering over 130 honorary degrees But Franklin's participation was much more fundamental than that From his effort in 1934 to hand President Franklin Roosevelt a petition calling for action in response to the Cordie Cheek lynching to his 1997 appointment by President Clinton to head the President's Initiative on Race and continuing to the present Franklin has influenced with determination and dignity the nation's racial conscience Whether aiding Thurgood Marshall's preparation for arguing Brown v. Board of Education in 1954 marching to Montgomery Alabama in 1965 or testifying against Robert Bork's nomination to the Supreme Court in 1987 Franklin has pushed the national conversation on race toward humanity and equality a life-long effort that earned him the Presidential Medal of Freedom the nation's highest civilian honor in 1995 Intimate at times revelatory Mirror to America chronicles Franklin's life and this nation's racial transformation in the twentieth century and is a powerful reminder of the extent to which the problem of America remains the problem of color

FROM SLAVERY TO FREEDOM. JOHN HOPE. FRANKLIN, 1950 An African American and Latinx History of the United States Paul Ortiz, 2018-01-30 An intersectional history of the shared struggle for African American and Latinx civil rights Spanning more than two hundred years An African American and Latinx History of the United States is a revolutionary politically charged narrative history arguing that the Global South was crucial to the development of America as we know it Scholar and activist Paul Ortiz challenges the notion of westward progress as exalted by widely taught formulations like manifest destiny and Jacksonian democracy and shows how placing African American Latinx and Indigenous voices unapologetically front and center transforms US history into one of the working class organizing against imperialism Drawing on rich narratives and primary source documents Ortiz links racial segregation in the Southwest and the rise and violent fall of a powerful tradition of Mexican labor organizing in the twentieth century to May 1, 2006 known as International Workers Day when migrant laborers Chicana/os Afrocubanos and immigrants from every continent on earth united in resistance on the first Day Without Immigrants As African American civil rights activists fought Jim Crow laws and Mexican labor organizers warred against the suffocating grip of capitalism Black and Spanish language newspapers abolitionists and Latin American revolutionaries coalesced around movements built between people from the United States and people from Central America and the Caribbean In stark contrast to the resurgence of America First rhetoric Black and Latinx intellectuals and organizers today have historically urged the United States to build bridges of solidarity with the nations of the Americas Incisive and timely this bottom up history told from the interconnected vantage points of Latinx and African Americans reveals the radically different ways that people of the diaspora have addressed issues still plaguing the United States today and it offers a way forward in the continued struggle for universal civil rights 2018 Winner of the PEN Oakland Josephine Miles Literary Award I Love Jesus, But I Want to Die Sarah J. Robinson, 2021-05-11 A compassionate shame free guide for your darkest days A one of a kind book to read for yourself or give to a struggling friend or loved one without the fear that depression and suicidal thoughts will be minimized medicalized or over spiritualized Kay Warren cofounder of Saddleback Church What happens when loving Jesus doesn't cure you of depression anxiety or suicidal thoughts You might be crushed by shame over your mental illness only to be told by well meaning Christians to choose joy and pray more So you beg God to take away the pain but nothing eases the ache inside As darkness lingers and color drains from your world you're left wondering if God has abandoned you You just want a way out But there's hope In I Love Jesus But I Want to Die Sarah J Robinson offers a healthy practical and shame free guide for Christians struggling with mental illness With unflinching honesty Sarah shares her story of battling depression and fighting to stay alive despite toxic theology that made her afraid to seek help outside the church Pairing her own story with scriptural insights mental health research and simple practices Sarah helps you reconnect with the God who is present in our deepest anguish and discover that you are worth everything it takes to get better Beautifully written and full of hard won wisdom I Love Jesus But I Want to Die offers a path toward a rich hope filled life in Christ even when healing doesn't look like what you expect

Bibliographic Index, 2002 Slavery and the University Leslie Maria Harris, James T. Campbell, Alfred L. Brophy, 2019-02-01 Slavery and the University is the first edited collection of scholarly essays devoted solely to the histories and legacies of this subject on North American campuses and in their Atlantic contexts Gathering together contributions from scholars activists and administrators the volume combines two broad bodies of work 1 historically based interdisciplinary research on the presence of slavery at higher education institutions in terms of the development of proslavery and antislavery thought and the use of slave labor and 2 analysis on the ways in which the legacies of slavery in institutions of higher education continued in the post Civil War era to the present day The collection features broadly themed essays on issues of religion economy and the regional slave trade of the Caribbean It also includes case studies of slavery's influence on specific institutions such as Princeton University Harvard University Oberlin College Emory University and the University of Alabama Though the roots of Slavery and the University stem from a 2011 conference at Emory University the collection extends outward to incorporate recent findings As such it offers a roadmap to one of the most exciting developments in the field of U S slavery studies and to ways of thinking about racial diversity in the history and current practices of higher education
