Romancing the Novel Margaret Bruzelius, 2007 Romancing the Novel examines the ways in which romance forms characteristic of boys books as exemplified in the novels of Scott Dumas Verne and Stevenson influence narratives not generally put in the same category both psychoanalytical accounts of the psyche and novels by authors as diverse as George Eliot Ursula Le Guin Joseph Conrad and W G Sebald Adventure has been most recently studied largely as a symptom of imperialism s ideological apparatus But as an intensely familiar story available from the earliest reading adventure conditions the narratable its influence is felt from the nursery bed to the analyst s couch By reading Maurice Sendak with Melanie Klein and Peter Rabbit with Daniel Deronda Romancing the Novel argues that the power and depth of the generic constraints of the adventure form have not been recognized simply because they are so ubiquitous Adventure fiction is not merely summer reading whose ephemeral effects dissipate but rather a pervasive code that exerts powerful effects on the imaginable

More Conversations with Walker Percy Walker Percy, 1993 This collection of interviews supplements Conversations with Walker Percy and occasions an additional two dozen pleasurable encounters with Percy Primarily from the last ten years of Percy's life they show how his presence was stimulating thought in much of humanistic America in literature linguistics psychology and philosophy and in cultural life in general Although this acclaimed author of The Moviegoer Lancelot and Love in the Ruins never overcame his shyness with interviewers he continued to grant interviews as long as his health permitted This act of openness illustrates his humility before his ideas and his desire to help others understand them Although the questions he was asked almost invariably became predictable he always managed to add an anecdote an illustration a topical reference that would breathe new life into the responses he was making The interviews in this collection show him at the height when he knew that his illness would not allow him to write any more books and that the only way to restate his ideas and offer a valediction to the large audience to whom he had always been kind patient and appreciative was to speak out Percy despised the posture of many modern self-proclaimed intellectuals who delight in cloaking ideas in jargon and abstraction He always tried to express himself clearly and as free of reservations as possible These interviews reflect that clarity With this book readers will welcome yet more close encounters with him

Walking around the world Manolo Frediani Lima, 2021-09-21 Manolo Frediani Lima is a businessman from southern Brazil The hobbies he has are quite interesting traveling and climbing mountains The book Walking Around the World tells the story about his most exotic tourist adventures The last one was in 2020 when he made the so-coveted Three Passes trail in the Himalayas the highest mountain range in the world He just didn't imagine that after 140 km of hiking most of it on beautiful snowy paths his trip would end up becoming a distressing lockdown He spent 21 days of tension and uncertainty in Lukla and Kathmandu Nepal's capital between March and April a time when several countries closed their borders due to the coronavirus pandemic Manolo however was not there by accident He had planned the trip since the previous year So even on the other side of the planet away from family and friends he tried to live the circumstances and take advantage of them That's when something fantastic happened he started writing This book was born therefore from the improvised drafts of a Brazilian guy in trouble and the result was stupendous More than a travel story this book is also an excellent guide for people of all ages who dream one day making the big trip of their lives When tourists went out of home with curiosity willingness and planning skills they enjoy much more their trip be it for adventure studies or recreation By having these qualities Manolo could get to know different landscapes and customs outside Brazil Such experiences allowed him to perfect his rough stone Move away from his comfort zone routine and stress cause him an immense good He recovered energy rethought and changed his lifestyle for the better In these pages he tells what he saw and felt when climbing a mountain in Bolivia walking through the ruins of Machu Picchu in Peru and exchanging studies in Portugal Italy and England Manolo is an itinerant In this adrenaline search and later moved by professional improvement he witnessed a world full of economic cultural and social contrasts According to him when crossing from West to East he had another storm of lessons because of the unforgettable experiences in Thailand Singapore Indonesia and mainly in Nepal Amid beautiful photos comments on unmissable tourist spots and many reflections Manolo reminds us that traveling is also having an encounter with ourselves and with a beautiful world always waiting for us Charles Pimentel da Silva book editor

Deadlier Than the Male Fred Maddox, 2009-04-12 Peter Milton had always promised himself he would never again live in poverty as he had done as a child That promise became an obsession so great it took over his life He robs and cheats to climb the social ladder riding roughshod over anyone who gets in his way He warms his way into the affections of the Managing Director's only daughter Katherine whom he marries purely to get his hands on the business His mission is achieved when Katherine's father dies. He cheats on her at every opportunity. Katharine sets a trap springing it with perfect timing, causing him to be incarcerated, humiliated, and lose all his ill-gotten gains. After he is released, he sets about climbing the social ladder again by the only way he knows: using deviousness and underhand dealings. He is about to realise his goal, but an ex-girlfriend appears and threatens to throw a spanner in the works. He plots to have her done away with, but he is in for the shock of his life. Once again, he has failed to appreciate the cunning of the fairer sex. Book reviews online.

PublishedBestsellers website In The Sun's Shadow Charles Thrasher, 2014-03-23. An unlikely young hero is thrust into a fantastic and frightening world on a voyage of love, life, and revelations. Reading the City Stephanie Herold, 2010. German students of urban and regional planning from Berlin and Macedonian students of urban planning and architecture from Skopje will examine the construction of remembrance and its representation in the urban space of Skopje. Besides giving presentations on the theme during a workshop in May, the students will investigate specific sites of remembrance in Skopje and locate their nexuses of significance within different social contexts. Behind the ethnic divisions of the population lies the question of the similarities and differences between the various remembrance constructs. The workshop culminates in a presentation of the results and an exhibition in Skopje. At the final follow-up in Berlin, the planned publication of the results will be arranged and the exhibition in Berlin organised.
