Fisher,2006-01-24 This interdisciplinary study participates in the ongoing critical conversation about postwar American poetry and visual culture while advancing that field into the arena of the museum Turning to contemporary poems about the visual arts that foreground and interrogate a museum setting the book demonstrates the particular importance of the museum as a cultural site that is both inspiration and provocation for poets The study uniquely bridges the dual canon in contemporary poetry and calls the lyric avant garde distinction into question by analyzing museum sponsored anthologies as well as poems by John Ashbery Richard Howard Kenneth Koch Kathleen Fraser Cole Swensen Anne Carson and others Through these case studies of poets with diverse affiliations the author shows that the boom in ekphrasis in the past 20 years is not only an aesthetic but a critical phenomenon a way that poets have come to terms with the critical dilemmas of our moment Highlighting the importance of poets peripheral vision awareness of the institutional conditions that frame encounters with art the author contend that a museum visit becomes a forum for questioning oppositions that have preoccupied literary criticism for the past 50 years homage and innovation modernism and postmodernism subjectivity and collectivity The study shows that ekphrasis becomes a strategy for negotiating these impasses a mode of political inquiry a meditation on canonization a venue for comic appraisal of institutionalization and a means of site specific feminist revision in a vital synthesis of critique perspicacity and pleasure What Matters Most Leonard Sweet,2012-03-13 Advocates a relationship with Jesus Christ based on personal engagement which can have life changing consequences Remote David Shields,2003-10-30 In this truly one of a kind book the author narrator a representative in extremis of contemporary American obsession with beauty celebrity transmitted image finds himself suspended fascinated in the remoteness of our wall to wall mediascape It is a remoteness that both perplexes and enthralls him Through dazzling sleight of hand in which the public becomes private and the private becomes public the entire book clicking from confession to family album photograph to family chronicle to sexual fantasy to pseudo scholarly footnote to reportage to personal essay to stand up comedy to cultural criticism to literary criticism to film criticism to prose poem to litany to outtake becomes both an anatomy of American culture and a searing self portrait David Shields reads his own life reads our life as if it were an allegory about remoteness and finds persuasive hilarious heartbreaking evidence wherever he goes Winner of the PEN Revson Award A
