presentations or in personal study      Speaking to the Soul Vicki K. Black, 2009-09 The flourishing website EpiscopalCafe.org produced by the Diocese of Washington attracts several thousand visitors a day Its popular column Speaking to the Soul which contains a concise well developed spiritual reflection for every day of the year draws from many different sources including scripture church history saints biographies books of prayers liturgies and ancient and contemporary theologians and spiritual writers This daily reader grew out of that column It follows the Episcopal Church's liturgical seasons and includes observation of major feast days as well as saints days The reading for a particular saint's day might be taken from the saint's writings prayers or biography or might develop a theme such as martyrdom or growth in the spirit Other readings focus on particular emphases of the seasons the Incarnation during Advent and Christmas spiritual disciplines during Lent or speak more generally to the Christian life prayer discipleship ministry the sacraments conflict and reconciliation and so on Readings are taken from every century of the church's life with particular attention to how the writings and experiences of earlier Christians can shed light on the difficulties joys and concerns of the church today Excerpts are long enough to give a satisfying and complete context of the writer's intended meaning      Getting Fired for the Glory of God Mike Yaconelli, 2008 Years after his death Christians across the world turn to the words of Yaconelli to uncover the divine mischief the shameless truth telling the love of kids and the passion for Jesus that make youth ministry an irresistible calling      The Spiritual Leader's Guide to Self-Care Rochelle Melander, Harold Eppley, 2002-02-01 As spiritual guides clergy and lay leaders alike often find themselves in need of direction about how to make changes in their personal life and ministry Rarely however do they find a book that presents self care as an integral part of being a spiritual leader The Spiritual Leader's Guide to Self Care gives readers the tools to discern God's intention for their lives and to be faithful to that vision through proper self care Arranged in 52 chapters one for each week of the year the guide addresses seven themes Creating a Life Vision Caring for Yourself at Work Nurturing Your Relationships Caring for Your Spirit and Body Caring for Your Finances Caring for Your Intellect and Sustaining a Life Vision Included are journal writing suggestions personal reflection questions and activities guidance for sharing the discovery process with another person an activity for the coming week and suggested further resources such as novels videos and Web sites      The Attentive Life Leighton Ford, 2008-04 Framed around the monastic concept of praying through the hours of the day Leighton Ford helps you to develop spiritual attentiveness so you can pay attention to how God is working through you and in the world around you      Widowhood: a Doorway to Calling and Conversion Elizabeth Jacks Scott, 2010-01-05 There is no available information at this time      The Irrational David Ken Evers-Hood, 2019-03-19 In The Irrational Jesus Leading the Fully Human Church Ken Evers Hood explored how our predictable irrationality can trip us up and how we can adjust for biases But irrationality isn't all bad Leaders who live in their heads will never connect deeply with the hearts of those they serve Because we are like small rational riders astride enormous emotional elephants leaders must learn how to sing to elephants even as they speak to riders In The Irrational

David The Power of Poetic Leadership Ken invites you to sing Through his work with poet David Whyte Ken explores poetic leadership in King David a fully human irrational leader who knew how to stir people with song In four sections The Irrational David observes King David the believer the beloved the beautiful mess and the broken hearted Offering his own poetry as a lens Ken enters into scripture and creates a conversation between the spoken word and sacred text Discover how irrationality and poetry can prepare us for the real conversations for which our communities are so hungry Find new layers of meaning in familiar Scriptures And welcome a fellow traveler into your life who has found strength through vulnerability and is willing to share his journey on the beautiful and messy road of faith with you      Fearful Times; Living Faith Robert

Boak Slocum, Martyn Percy, 2021-11-19 We live in fearful times with many threats and horrors We've seen a pandemic systemic racism and violence resurgent nationalism and tribalism polarization and mutual suspicion insurrection environmental peril due to climate change and on We can feel helpless But these threats give impetus for reflection on what faith has to say in any time of challenge Where do we turn in real need What makes a difference What do we really believe Can we speak in Christ's name against dishonesty cruelty and neglect of the most needy and vulnerable in times of crisis The recent pandemic and other horrors provide the catalyst for theology that lives today and in the future in fearful times and whatever comes next As Christians as people of faith how do we find God alive in us and present in our turmoil And how do we share that hope with others How can Christian faith help us bring the best out of the worst Can we rediscover our faith our church our lives in these times of crisis This volume presents a variety of perspectives and answers for questions of fearful times and living faith      A Spirituality of Listening Keith R. Anderson, 2016-02-09 God is speaking in our everyday world How can we become more attuned to listening for God's voice Keith Anderson walks us through key biblical themes that help us see and experience how God is present with us if we would only listen paying attention to the moments that make up our days Listen and step into a world alive with God's presence      Embracing Life Again After the Death of a Spouse Dr Anniekie Ravhudzulo, 2011-01-12 When someone we love dies our whole world is knocked off balance One of the most common and yet difficult feelings you experience is isolation It seems no one understands what you are going through And many of us are so busy you don't take the time to fully grieve and therefore heal from your losses It is very true that people who are grieving often feel extremely tired because the process of grieving usually requires physical and emotional energy The grief you are feeling is not just for the person who died but also for the unfulfilled wishes and plans for the relationship with the person Death often reminds most of the people of past losses or separations Remember there are a number of conditions that can make it harder for you as a person to successfully make it through the grief process For example sudden losses are harder to deal with than ones that have been anticipated With anticipated losses the knowledge that a loss will occur allows people to prepare both by feeling grief before the fact of the loss and also by planning ways to minimize the negative impact of the loss when it does occur The loss of a spouse lover child parent or best friend is usually more deeply felt than the loss of more distant relations and friends This is because such central relationships have long and deeply felt histories and an intensity of attachment that does not occur with more distant relationships Central relationships are more deeply and significantly knitted into the grieving persons sense of self and thus leave a bigger hole in the grieving persons sense of self when they are lost I discovered that when things are going badly whether in the family or work environment most of us strive mightily to improve our situations But what if the way to overcome a series of losses and failures is just to sink into them We all go through trials and tribulations Everyone has difficult situations in their life It is the way we look at them and the way we handle those situations I believe it is the struggle we must endure to gain the strength needed to break through the barriers With every victory comes the strength we need to overcome the obstacles and move forward Most people today give up easily because of what you may call emotional downturn This book in your hand has been written and carefully thought out with you in mind It has been written to bring you out of your sociological pit and emotional defeat I therefore gladly recommend this book to your reading that you may be built in His grace I believe that God will never give you more than you can handle You often wonder how some people cope with their situations in life I often hear people saying I dont think I could deal with that but we dont know what strength lies within us until the time comes to face the challenge The harder the struggle the sweeter the victory No test no rewards

Action Dialogues Debbe Kennedy, 2000 To be used as a part of Debbe Kennedy s Diversity Breakthrough Strategic Action series this is a pack of 52 glossy cards each isolating specific roadblocks that organisations commonly face when looking to launch a diversity initiative The first for example reads Our leadership team does not reflect our stated commitment to inclusion Another reads Resistance to change keeps diversity out of reach Grouped into seven areas leadership culture involvement the business strategies and measures staffing and ownership they can be passed out in groups of any size to allow participants to literally put their cards on the table about internal issues they d rather not bring up aloud The cards can be used alone or in conjunction with the six booklets in the Strategic Action series each of which focuses on a crucial phase in what Kennedy a veteran consultant and a former manager of Equal Opportunity and human resources at IBM calls the imperfect circle of change Assessment Acceptance Action Accountability Achievement and More Action

Pilgrim Road Albert Holtz, O.S.B., 2006-11-01 In the view of St Benedict of Nursia the Lenten journey is an inner pilgrimage with Christ into the deepest parts of ourselves to be marked not so much by external observances such as fasting and self denial as by a deepening of our relationship with God Benedictine monk Albert Holtz develops that journey theme through meditations written during a fifteen country pilgrimage during a sabbatical year At the heart of each reflection is the lesson it teaches about our inner spiritual journey By applying Benedict s monastic wisdom to the everyday concerns and aspirations of modern Christians Pilgrim Road helps contemporary spiritual seekers keep Lent as a positive meaningful and fruitful experience
