Passion For The Family:

God-Confident Kids Cyndie Claypool de Neve, 2019-10-01 Today's children and teens are growing up more anxious, depressed, and fearful than previous generations. But if we help this generation, often called Gen Z, to discover true God confidence instead of chasing the illusive self confidence, we can empower them to embrace their uniqueness and find their purpose, passion, and peace as they grow into humble, compassionate, and resilient young people. Cyndie Claypool de Neve, an Associate Marriage and Family Therapist, shares her personal journey from feeling anxious and suicidal to learning God confidence. She explains how parents and youth workers can use these principles to encourage this next generation to discover the purpose for which God created them. God Confident Kids is filled with stories, Scripture, psychological insights, and practical tips to help families move from fear-based parenting to faith-filled parenting, as we claim Ephesians 2:10 for our kids: For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works which God prepared in advance for us to do.

Passion and Prejudice Sallie Bingham, 1991 A member of the moneyed Bingham family recounts her family's rise to power over several decades and their subsequent downfall amidst family infighting and rumors of a family murder. Family Id ---

Intentional Direction Greg Gunn, Craig Groeschel, 2012-01-01 The first time we had lunch together over a decade ago. What I thought would be just another lunch with a great guy from my church turned into a pivotal meeting for my life and family. With overwhelming passion, Greg barely touched his chicken sandwich as he vividly described to me all the plans he had for the Gunn family. Our family is our most important ministry. And if we help them know Christ, we can change the world. Greg blurted out with contagious faith: Craig Groeschel, There is a gigantic disconnect that exists in our minds. Really, just a mirage like separation between worlds: the spiritual and the secular. Certain basic principles are required to run a successful business: a decent business plan and goals. Try to leave as little as possible to chance and maximize your efficiency by making sure everything you do has a purpose. And furthermore, that purpose serves the business. That same successful businessperson goes home and doesn't have a clue. It's as though he thinks everything that he wants to happen at home is just going to happen by accident. That somehow it's just going to come together. It does not. Our goal is to teach and train more than one million families to stir it up and draw out the God-given purpose for their family to lead them to write it down to equip them to live it out and inspire them to pass it on to future generations. Ancestral Passions Virginia

Morell, 2011-01-11 This biography of the First Family of anthropology reveals how their discoveries, collaborations, and rivalries contributed to our own knowledge of the origins of humankind. In this fascinating and authoritative work, acclaimed science writer Virginia Morell brings to vivid life the famous and infamous Leakey family pioneers in the field of paleoanthropology: Louis Leakey, the patriarch who persisted through initial scientific failures and scandal-ridden divorce to achieve spectacular success in digs throughout East Africa; Mary, his second wife who worked alongside Louis as they made their outstanding discoveries at Olduvai Gorge and elsewhere; and Richard, their son who ascended to the top of the field in his parents wake only to be threatened with both near fatal illness and fierce professional rivalry Morell transports us into the world of these compelling personalities demonstrating how a small clan of highly talented and fiercely competitive people came to dominate an entire field of science and to contribute immeasurably to our understanding of the origins of humanity
