Programs Harvard School of Public Health The Varieties of Religious Experience William James, 1920 Fear and Trembling Søren Kierkegaard, 2013-01-18 In our time nobody is content to stop with faith but wants to go further It would perhaps be rash to ask where these people are going but it is surely a sign of breeding and culture for me to assume that everybody has faith for otherwise it would be queer for them to be going further In those old days it was different then faith was a task for a whole lifetime because it was assumed that dexterity in faith is not acquired in a few days or weeks When the tried oldster drew near to his last hour having fought the good fight and kept the faith his heart was still young enough not to have forgotten that fear and trembling which chastened the youth which the man indeed held in check but which no man quite outgrows except as he might succeed at the earliest opportunity in going further Where these revered figures arrived that is the point where everybody in our day begins to go further A Hunger for God John Piper, 2013-04-23 There is an appetite for God And it can be awakened I invite you to turn from the dulling effects of food and the dangers of idolatry and to say with some simple fast This much O God I want you Our appetites dictate the direction of our lives whether it be the cravings of our stomachs the passionate desire for possessions or power or the longings of our spirits for God But for the Christian the hunger for anything besides God can be an arch enemy While our hunger for God and Him alone is the only thing that will bring victory Do you have that hunger for Him As John Piper puts it If we don't feel strong desires for the manifestation of the glory of God it is not because you have drunk deeply and are satisfied It is because we have nibbled so long at the table of the world Our soul is stuffed with small things and there is no room for the great If we are full of what the world offers then perhaps a fast might express or even increase our soul's appetite for God Between the dangers of self denial and self indulgence is this path of pleasant pain called fasting It is the path John Piper invites you to travel in this book For when God is the supreme hunger of your heart He will be supreme in everything And when you are most satisfied in Him He will be most glorified in you Roll Models Richard Holicky, 2004 I thought life was pretty much over Paul Herman I was afraid people wouldn't see me for who I still was Cathy Green I didn't need this to be a better person Susan Douglas I wasn't sure I wanted to live this way Kevin Wolitzky The above four people and 49 more just like them went on to find high levels of success and lead satisfying lives Together they tell 53 stories of moving forward to meet all the challenges fears obstacles and problems common to the life altering circumstances after spinal cord injury and doing it without benefit of wealth large settlements or solid health coverage Ranging in age from 21 to 67 disabled from three to 48 years they share 931 years of disability experience Roll Models is a valuable new resource for recently injured people and their families and for nurses therapists psychologists and all other professionals who treat work with and care for people with spinal cord injury Straight from the horse's mouth survivors explore their experiences with disability and answer many questions those in rehab are asking Early Thoughts What were your thoughts immediately following injury What were your initial thoughts and reactions regarding SCI and the future The First Years What were your biggest fears during that first year or so How did you get past
