Knowing and Not Knowing Claudia Lapping, Tamara Bibby, 2018-02-02 The social world is saturated with powerful formations of knowledge that colonise individual and institutional identities Some knowledge emerges as legitimised and authoritative other knowledge is resisted or repressed Psychosocial approaches highlight the unstable basis of knowledge learning and research of knowing and not knowing How do we come to formulate knowledge in the ways that we do Are there other possible ways of knowing that are too difficult or unsettling for us to begin to explore Do we need the authority of legitimised institutions and regularized methods to build secure knowledge What might it mean to build insecure edifices of knowledge How might we trouble notions of knowledge in processes of teaching learning and research This collection addresses these questions drawing on a range of psychoanalytic and social theory from Bion Freud and Lacan to Derrida Kristeva and Zizek Showcasing work from North America Europe and Japan contributors explore writing as a practice that can stabilise or unsettle subjectivities the unconscious relations between school practices subjectivities educational spaces and ideologies implications of the productive energies and the deadening inwardness associated with mourning and melancholia for formal and informal learning and the authority we invest in apparently rigid or ephemeral institutional spaces Strongly empirical as well as theoretical in approach this collection will be of interest to students and academics seeking ways to resist normative orders of legitimacy and coherence in education and research This book was originally published as a special issue of Pedagogy Culture Society

Italian Women at War Susan Amatangelo, 2016-08-03 Italian Women at War Sisters in Arms from Unification to the Twentieth Century offers diverse perspectives on Italian women's participation in war and conflict throughout Italy's modern history contributing to the ongoing scholarly conversation on this topic Part one of the book focuses on heroines who fought for Italy's Unification and on the anti heroines or brigantesse who opposed such a momentous change Part two considers exceptional individuals such as Eva K hn Amendola who combatted both with her body and her pen as well as collective female efforts during the world wars whether military or civilian In part three where the context is twentieth century society the focus shifts to those women engaged in less conventional conflicts who resorted to different forms of revolt including active non violence All of the women presented across these chapters engage in combat to protest a particular state of affairs and effect change yet their weapons range from the literal like Peppa La Cannoniera's cannon to the metaphorical like Letizia Battaglia's camera Several of the essays in this volume discuss fictional heroines who appear in works of literature and film though all are based on actual women and reference real historical contexts Italian Women at War furthers the efforts begun decades ago to recognize Italian women combatants especially in light of the recent anniversary of the Unification in 2011 and global discussions regarding the role of women in the military Its aim is not to glorify violence and war but to celebrate the active role of Italian women in the evolution of their nation and to demystify the idea of the woman warrior who has always been viewed either as an extraordinary almost mythical creature or as an affront to the traditional feminine identity
