examines different sexual forms of Shiva in various myths as both androgynous and intersexual This orientation is commonly known as Shiva s Ardhanadheshwara avatar which is often depicted as possessing physical characteristics that are half male and half female Throughout the book she examines interlinking aspects portrayed in several myths related to Shiva with a particular focus on the balance she sees between asceticism and eroticism in his identity and actions

Isis Wept Stephan Michael Loy, 2024-10-23. Egypt 8000 years ago. The gods walk among men as titans, powerful beings with passions that move mountains, fix stars in the heavens and master the forces of life and death. Within this world the evil god Set betrays and murders his brother Osiris, king of rich and respected Abydos. Set steals all that Osiris had, including the queen Isis, the goddess of life and beauty. Isis escapes her monstrous conqueror and bends her powers toward finding her love and bringing him back from death. But like all gods, Isis is trapped despite her power for she can never go beyond the limits of her nature. For that she needs the assistance of man. In the course of this quest, kingdoms fall, armies clash and the balance of power between gods and men is altered forever. Who holds power in such cataclysmic conflict? Is it those who define power or those who define themselves?
