Passionate Lives Eight Autobiographical:

Art for the Ladylike Whitney Otto, 2021 Explores the lives of eight pioneering women photographers to consider the struggles perils and rewards of being a woman artist Storytelling in Cambodia Willa Schneberg, 2006 Powerful poems about Cambodia awakening from the killing fields to the dawn of free elections In the Margins of the World Willa Schneberg, 2000 The Passionate Years Caresse Crosby, 2012-09-01 Struggles for Life, Or, The Autobiography of a Dissenting Minister William Leask, 1854 Excerpt from Struggles for Life Or the Autobiography of a Dissenting Minister Or memory may recall after the lapse of twenty or thirty years of youth and early manhood that invaluable period of being in which if a man is to do anything in this tumultuous market place called the world it must be done or left undone for ever scenes of strangely mingled complexion having all the colours of the rainbow without its unity and beauty and all the variety of a Persian bazaar without its order and elegance Alternations of hope and disappointment satisfaction and grief gladness and tears About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Philosophy as Passion Karen Vintges, 1996-11-22 Philosophy as Passion refutes the commonly held view of Simone de Beauvoir as no more than an acolyte of Jean Paul Sartre Karen Vintges delineates Beauvoir's independent original ethics and philosophy drawing on the moral philosophical treatises of the 1940s and 1950s along with The Second Sex her novel The Mandarins and autobiographical works A Desperate Passion: An Autobiography Helen Caldicott, 1997-11-17 She showed me what one set on fire human being can do to shift the consciousness of the world Sister Helen Prejean author of Dead Man Walking Dr Helen Caldicott the Sunday San Francisco Chronicle declares is back on the scene A Desperate Passion is Caldicott's engaging inspiring memoir chronicling her life both on and off the scene Raised in Australia and trained as a physician she first found her voice protesting French nuclear tests in the Pacific Years later she rose to international prominence founding Physicians for Social Responsibility which did perhaps more than any other group to thrust the nuclear issue under the public eye New York Times Driven by intense passions she seems to have adopted the world's population as her children And all of us are probably better off as a result East Bay Express Books but Caldicott wife and mother of three found that her success did not come without cost This is a personal story too a candid revealing self portrait of a woman who has not relinquished her remarkable efforts to save the world Reading with a Passion Jeffrey Staley, 2002-06-01 In this strikingly personal account of recent literary approaches to the Bible Jeffrey Staley shows how people's life experiences relate to what they read in the Scriptures He illustrates his argument from theories of autobiography where recent literary and feminist critiques provide him with tools for reflecting upon his childhood on a Navajo reservation and his family's five generations of contact with the Navajo people in northern Arizona and New Mexico. Using Tony Hillerman's popular detective novels as a lens to refract his own childhood memories, Staley investigates how his cross-cultural childhood and family history have contributed to his understanding of the Fourth Gospel. By combining such diverse materials as popular fiction, medieval passion plays, cultural anthropology, rhetorical studies, and autobiographical reflection, Staley takes his readers on a fascinating spiritual and intellectual journey through the Gospel of John. A Passion for Souls Lyle W. Dorsett, 2003-10-01 Dwight Lyman Moody was the greatest evangelist of the 19th century. In the pre-television era, he traveled more than one million miles to preach the gospel to more than 100 million people. Although equipped with just four years of formal schooling, Moody launched ministries in education and publishing that remain vital and fruitful today. Moody had a passion for souls. Yet with all of his accomplishments for God, D. L. Moody remained a humble man. His greatest riches were found in the love of his Lord and the souls that had been changed for the glory of God. In these pages, today's believers will find a model of biblical passion, vision, and commitment. Lyle Dorsett reveals the heart of this great evangelist, recounting his life and realistically probing his strengths, weaknesses, virtues, faults, triumphs, struggles, and motivations to find a man after God's own heart. The Deluxe Leather Collector's Edition is perfect for people of any age.

Passionate Lives Sondra Zeidenstein, Willa Schneberg, Joseph Miller, Amanda Powell, 1998 In her introduction to this anthology of eight chapbooks, Elizabeth Claman writes, "Each of the poets whose work is showcased in Passionate Lives is consumed by different kinds of passion. The title of this anthology grew organically from their poetry that represents in passionately charged language lives lived with passionate intensity. Whether they write as lovers, social activists, parents, political observers, or chroniclers of family history, all record what they have experienced in deeply personal ways. The eight chapbooks represented all follow the same structure: each is introduced by a writer who is familiar with the poet's work, discussing its content, style, and aesthetics, and concludes with an afterword by the individual author in which he or she discusses the concerns that were paramount during the creation of the poem cycle." Cutting for Stone Abraham Verghese, 2012-05-17 Marion and Shiva Stone are twin brothers born of a secret union between a beautiful Indian nun and a brash British surgeon. Orphaned by their mother's death and their father's disappearance and bound together by a preternatural connection and a shared fascination with medicine, the twins come of age as Ethiopia hovers on the brink of revolution. Moving from Addis Ababa to New York City and back again, Cutting for Stone is an unforgettable story of love and betrayal, medicine and ordinary miracles, and two brothers whose fates are forever intertwined. The Art of Biography William Roscoe Thayer, 1920 Charlotte Brontë Lyndall Gordon, 1995 Critically acclaimed on both sides of the Atlantic, Lyndall Gordon's portrait of Charlotte Brontë looks beyond the insistent image of the modest Victorian lady, the slave to duty in the shadow of tombstones. Instead, she reveals a strong, fiery woman who shaped her own life and transformed it into art.

This biography looks at the shared gifts and class ambitions of the Brontë family at Charlotte's ally the active feminist Mary Taylor her demanding mentor Constantin Heger and her publisher George Smith as Charlotte strove to possess them in life and in fiction Drawing on unpublished letters the Roe Head Journal early stories the manuscript of Villette and her last unfinished novel Gordon explores the gaps in Charlotte's life taking us into that unseen space in which this woman of genius was able to live and create

Jørgensen: an Autobiography Johannes Jørgensen, 1929 Autobiography, a Collection of the Most Instructive and Amusing Lives Ever Published, 1829 Living with Nietzsche Robert C. Solomon, 2003-08-21 Friedrich Nietzsche is one of the most popular and controversial philosophers of the last 150 years Narcissistic idiosyncratic hyperbolic irreverent never has a philosopher been appropriated deconstructed and scrutinized by such a disparate array of groups movements and schools of thought Adored by many for his passionate ideas and iconoclastic style he is also vilified for his lack of rigor apparent cruelty and disdain for moral decency In Living with Nietzsche Solomon suggests that we read Nietzsche from a very different point of view as a provocative writer who means to transform the way we view our lives This means taking Nietzsche personally Rather than focus on the true Nietzsche or trying to determine what Nietzsche really meant by his seemingly random and often contradictory pronouncements about the Big Questions of philosophy Solomon reminds us that Nietzsche is not a philosopher of abstract ideas but rather of the dazzling personal insight the provocative challenge the incisive personal probe He does not try to reveal the eternal verities but he does powerfully affect his readers goading them to see themselves in new and different ways It is Nietzsche's compelling invitation to self scrutiny that fascinates us engages us and guides us to a rich inner life Ultimately Solomon argues Nietzsche is an example as well as a promulgator of passionate inwardness a life distinguished by its rich passions exquisite taste and a sense of personal elegance and excellence
