Faith, Rationality and the Passions Sarah Coakley, 2012-07-20 Faith Rationality and the Passions presents a fresh and original examination of the relation of religious faith philosophical rationality and the passions Contributions see leading scholars refute the widely held belief that religious Enlightenment forced passion and reason apart Leading Philosophical experts offer new research on the relation of faith reason and the passions in classic and Enlightenment figures Overturns the widely held presumption that the Enlightenment was responsible for creating a gulf between reason and passion Presents original and innovative research on the importance of the late 19th century creation of the category of emotion and its striking difference from classic ideas of passion Brings together secular science and philosophy of emotion with philosophical theology to seek a new integration of belief emotion and reason Sermons Joseph Stevens Buckminster, 1821

Larson,2011-12-01 This Companion is the first critical collection of its kind devoted solely to American poetry of the nineteenth century It covers a wide variety of authors many of whom are currently being rediscovered A number of anthologies in the recent past have been devoted to the verse of groups such as Native Americans African Americans and women This volume offers essays covering these groups as well as more familiar figures such as Dickinson Whitman Longfellow and Melville The contents are divided between broad topics of concern such as the poetry of the Civil War or the development of the poetess role and articles featuring specific authors such as Edgar Allan Poe or Sarah Piatt In the past two decades a growing body of scholarship has been engaged in reconceptualizing and re evaluating this largely neglected area of study in US literary history this Companion reflects and advances this spirit of revisionism
