Enlightenment era religious reformers and a new chapter in an age old power game between popular practice and religious orthodoxy By focusing on how Nahuas localized the universalizing narrative of Christ s Passion Staging Christ s Passion in Eighteenth Century Nahua Mexico offers an unusually in depth view of religious life under colonial rule Burkhart s accompanying website also makes available transcriptions and translations of the six Nahuatl language plays four Spanish language plays composed in response to the suppression of the Nahuatl practice and related documentation providing a valuable resource for anyone interested in consulting the original material Comments restricted to single page plays composed in response to the suppression of the Nahuatl practice and related documentation providing a valuable resource for anyone interested in consulting the original material Passion Perseverance & Prayer Pooja Ruprell,2014-08-01

Greiffenberg 1633-94 was the foremost German woman poet and writer in the seventeenth century German speaking world. Privileged by her social station and education, she published a large body of religious writings under her own name to a reception unequalled by any other German woman during her lifetime. But once the popularity of devotional writings as a genre waned, Catharina's works went largely unread until scholars devoted renewed attention to them in the twentieth century. For this volume, Lynne Tatlock translates for the first time into English three of the thirty-six meditations, restoring Catharina to her rightful place in print. These meditations foreground women in the life of Jesus Christ, including accounts of women at the Incarnation and the Tomb and in Scripture in general. Tatlock's selections give the modern reader a sense of the structure and nature of Catharina's devotional writings, highlighting the alternative they offer to the male-centered view of early modern literary and cultural production during her day and redefining the role of women in Christian history. The Passion of Jesus in the Gospel of Luke Donald Senior, 1992.
