Passions Gift:

Every Gift Matters Carrie Morgridge, 2015-05-05 Charitable giving is on the rise in America. Despite the lingering effects of the economic downturn, Americans continue to give generously of their time, talent, and money—more than $335 billion in 2013, a 44% increase from 2011. What's more, the bulk of that charitable giving (72%) came not from large foundations or corporations but from individuals making small gifts. For those with passion for a cause and a generous spirit, it's vitally important that they leverage their gift in the right way in order to have the greatest impact possible. In her first book, EVERY GIFT MATTERS (Greenleaf, May 2015), Carrie Morgridge shares inspiring stories of powerful gifts in action, showing readers how to turn the act of giving into a vehicle for positive change. Drawing on 15 years of experience supporting causes that align with her passions through gifts, Morgridge demonstrates how a smart strategy, high expectations, a deep network, and hands-on personal involvement will ensure that one's gift is compounded over time to have the biggest impact possible. Each person and every gift can make a difference, writes Morgridge. Whoever you are, no matter how much or how little you have, your gift matters. The smallest seemingly unimportant donation can transform a life. And the best news is that giving transforms two lives: the one who receives and the one who gives. Through her role as Vice President of The Morgridge Family Foundation, Morgridge has learned what works and what doesn't when it comes to giving. She argues that in order to ensure meaningful and lasting change, a gift must be more than simply a grant of money. The giver must assess whether the program is the right fit, work hand in hand with the key leaders, develop a plan for making the endeavor sustainable, and ensure that their gift can be leveraged to have a bigger impact on the community. By sharing real-life stories of how this hands-on approach to giving has transformed lives, including her own, Morgridge inspires others to believe that they can also make a difference in their community, no matter the size of their gift. Passion for Wine Jean-Charles Boisset, Marnie Old, 2018 The Passion Dream Book Whitney Otto, 1997 In a mix of story and history, we follow the lives of artists Romy March and Augustine Marks. Passions James M. Gabler, 1995 This is a biography of Thomas Jefferson at leisure, enjoying two of his passions: wine and travel. Twelve of the sixteen chapters cover Jefferson's five years in France, where he served as our minister and traveled through France, England, Germany, Italy, and Holland. Passions was selected by Robert M. Parker Jr. as 1995 Wine Book of the Year and was the winner of the 1995 Veuve Clicquot Wine Book of the Year competition. It is a marvelous account of America's first wine connoisseur and gourmet. Newly reissued in paperback, Blood Rites takes readers on an original journey from the elaborate human sacrifices of the ancient world to the carnage and holocaust of twentieth-century total war. Ehrenreich sifts deftly through the fragile records of prehistory and discovers the wellspring of war in an unexpected place: not in a killer.

The Gift of Beauty and the Passion of Being William Desmond, 2018 This book gathers a set of reflections on the gift of beauty and the passion of being There is something surprising about beauty that we receive and that moves the passion of being in us The book takes issue with an ambiguous attitude to beauty among some who proclaim their advanced aesthetic authenticity Beauty seems bland and lacks the more visceral thrill of the ugly indeed the excremental We crave what disrupts and provokes us not what gives delight or even consoles By contrast attention is given to how beauty arouses enigmatic joy in us and we enjoy an elemental rapport with it as other Surprised by beauty our breath is taken away but we are more truly there with the beautiful when we are taken outside of ourselves We are first receivers of the gift of surprise and only then perceivers and conceivers My attention to the passion of being stresses a patience a receptivity to what is other What happens is not first our construction There is something given something awakening something delighting something energizing something of invitation to transcendence The theme is amplified in diverse reflections on life and its transient beauty on soul music and its relation to self on the shine on things given in creation on beauty and Schopenhauer's dark origin on creativity and the dynamis in Paul Weiss's creative ventures on redemption in Romanticism in the thought of Stanley Cavell on theater as a between or metaxu on redeeming laughter and its connection with the passion of being

The Individual without Passions Elena Pulcini, 2012-08-09 The Individual without Passions Modern Individualism and the Loss of the Social Bond offers an innovative look at an extremely timely and important issue individualism from the point of view of a theory of passions This book underlines the importance of the problem of the passions in both forming individual identity and building the social bond Drawing inspiration from classic authors that represent fundamental milestones along the route of modern individualism from Montaigne to Hobbes from Locke to Smith from Rousseau to Tocqueville The Individual without Passions puts forward new hypotheses that contrast with the consolidated views of contemporary reflection both modern and postmodern Elena Pulcini argues that passions are crucial not only when they are strong homo oeconomicus but also when absent or weak homo democraticus in both cases producing pathological effects on the Self and the social bond Finally this book underlines that the image of the modern individual does not end with the egoistical passions and that it is possible to reactivate empathetic and solidaristic passions furthermore it proposes the hypothesis that the solidaristic passions go to fight the egoistical passions This hypothesis seems confirmed and is most evident in the phenomenon of the gift as interpreted by Marcel Mauss and his contemporary heirs the hidden testimony of a desire for belonging which enables us to propose a new figure of the individual homo reciprocus Slaves of the Passions Mark Schroeder,2007-12-13 Long claimed to be the dominant conception of practical reason the Humean theory that reasons for action are instrumental or explained by desires is the basis for a range of worries about the objective prescriptivity of morality As a result it has come under intense attack in recent decades A wide variety of arguments have been advanced which purport to show that it is false or surprisingly even that it is incoherent Slaves of the Passions aims to set the record straight by advancing a version of the Humean theory of reasons which withstands this sophisticated array of objections Mark Schroeder defends a radical new view which if correct means that the commitments of the Humean theory have been widely misunderstood Along the way he raises and addresses questions about the fundamental structure of reasons the nature of normative explanations the aims of and challenges facing reductive views in metaethics the weight of reasons the nature of desire moral epistemology and most importantly the relationship between agent relational and agent neutral reasons for action Passion's Price Linda Andersen,1990 Passion's Mistress Helen Bianchin,2019-08-12 A woman reunites with her husband in order to save the child he never knew about in this sexy international romance from a USA Today bestselling author How much would a mother sacrifice for her child Carly Taylor had made it on her own for six years raising her daughter and hiding from the heart breaking memories of the husband who betrayed her But when her daughter s life is threatened Carly is desperate enough to go to the man she d tried to forget and ask for his help Stefano Alessi is the embodiment of power and once he learns he has a child he s determined to wield that power ruthlessly He gives Carly one option return to his home and to his bed But for Carly that s where the danger lies She knows once she s locked in Stefano s embrace the world will cease to matter For how can she fight the sheer force of a man whose greatest weapon is the desire she feels for him Desert Passions Hsu-Ming Teo,2012-11-15 The Sheik E M Hull s best selling novel that became a wildly popular film starring Rudolph Valentino kindled sheik fever across the Western world in the 1920s A craze for all things romantically Oriental swept through fashion film and literature spawning imitations and parodies without number While that fervor has largely subsided tales of passion between Western women and Arab men continue to enthrall readers of today s mass market romance novels In this groundbreaking cultural history Hsu Ming Teo traces the literary lineage of these desert romances and historical bodice rippers from the twelfth to the twenty first century and explores the gendered cultural and political purposes that they have served at various historical moments Drawing on high literature erotica and popular romance fiction and films Teo examines the changing meanings of Orientalist tropes such as crusades and conversion abduction by Barbary pirates sexual slavery the fear of renegades the Oriental despot and his harem the figure of the powerful Western concubine and fantasies of escape from the harem She analyzes the impact of imperialism decolonization sexual liberation feminism and
