Passive Sentences In English And Portuguese:

Passive Sentences in English and Portuguese Milton Mariano Azevedo,1980 This study analyzes passive sentences in English and Portuguese which result from a post semantic transformation applied when a noun which does not play the semantic role of actor is chosen as syntactic subject Choice between a passive and its non passive or active counterpart reflects differences in the distribution of information in the sentence as regards the relative importance of the latter's constituents for communication Such distribution is analyzed in terms of Prague school theory especially that involving the notions of communicative dynamism and the distribution of theme and rheme The book concludes with a contrastive analysis of English and Portuguese passive sentence patterns which serves as the basis for observations on the teaching of Portuguese passives to native speakers of English
