Passport To Life:

Passport to Life Emanuel Tanay, 2004 Memoirs of a Jew who was born as Emanuel Tenenwurzel in 1928 in Vilna and moved to Mieszków as a child. The Polish antisemitism he experienced before the war worsened under German occupation. In early 1941 his family was interned in the Mieszków ghetto whose Judenrat he depicts as facilitating Jewish survival. His family escaped deportation and he hid in a Catholic monastery. He was sexually abused by a monk there then hidden by a member of the Polish underground in a village. From there a good German helped him get to Kraków where his mother and sister hid. After escaping to Hungary he was caught trying to emigrate to Eretz Israel. He was briefly incarcerated in Yugoslavia and then in Budapest where he met the paratrooper Peretz Goldstein who had been sent to occupied Europe from Palestine. Claims that the paratroopers did not strengthen Jewish resistance but increased the risk to the local Jewish underground. Under the Arrow Cross regime he managed to obtain Aryan papers. After the war he encountered anti Jewish hostility in Mieszków and learned that his father had perished. He lived for some time in Germany and emigrated to the U S in 1952. Pp 219-278. Reflections discuss hate, Islamic fundamentalism, genocide, Christianity and the Holocaust and Holocaust historiography. Contends that to survive was heroic, to revolt was suicidal. Passport to Independence Robin J.

Wilson, 2017-12-10. Many treatment programs for persons who have sexually offended use a Good Lives framework that suggests that successful people are able to manage their lives in a variety of important domains. However, some of those domains can be a bit challenging for clients to fully appreciate and understand. Passport to Independence is not a treatment curriculum in and of itself. Rather, it is a collection of exercises that treatment providers and clients can use to make concepts such as community and being good at work and play clearer and easier to incorporate into clients' lives. Moving forward, Passport to Independence covers all of the components of life that clients in treatment need to consider to be successful.

The Passport Project Kellie McIntyre, 2022-03-15. When 14 and 12 year old sisters embark on a global family adventure, they learn that surviving new cultures and customs is even scarier than surviving middle school. This TRUE dual POV coming of age journey features maps and images of people and places across the globe. THANKS FOR RUINING MY LIFE. Delaney's eighth grade dreams crumble when her parents announce their global family field trip. While her younger sister Riley is thrilled to ditch middle school for world school, Delaney cringes at trading parties and friends for a passport and 24/7 family time. While Riley researches bungee jumping and packing tips, Delaney must decide whether to continue the silent treatment or embrace this adventure. What about school? Forgetting science and math: the only way to pass this class is to survive. Scam artists, monster cockroaches, deadly stingers, projectile vomiting, public nudity and toilet catastrophes. And those lessons aren't in their textbooks. Each passport stamp is a real life social studies lesson in new religions and new rules, resulting in so many awkward family moments. But when an itinerary mistake puts the family's freedom at risk, they learn the most valuable lesson of their lives. Trapped together in their parents' mid-life crisis, will the sisters survive this global adventure? And will non
