Passport To Oblivion:

Passport to Oblivion James Leasor, 2022 Some Kind of Hero Matthew Field, Ajay Chowdhury, George Lazenby, 2015-10-12 For over 50 years Albert R Broccoli's Eon Productions has navigated the ups and downs of the volatile British film industry enduring both critical wrath and acclaim in equal measure for its now legendary James Bond series. Latterly this family run business has been crowned with box office gold and recognised by motion picture academies around the world. However it has not always been plain sailing. Changing financial regimes forced 007 to relocate to France and Mexico, changing fashions and politics led to box office disappointments and changing studio regimes and business disputes all but killed the franchise. And the rise of competing action heroes has constantly questioned Bond's place in popular culture. But against all odds the filmmakers continue to wring new life from the series and 2012's Skyfall saw both huge critical and commercial success crowning 007 as the undisputed king of the action genre. Some Kind of Hero recounts this remarkable story from its origins in the early 60s right through to the present day and draws on hundreds of unpublished interviews with the cast and crew of this iconic series.

All Our Names Dinaw Mengestu, 2014-03-04 A Kirkus Reviews Best Fiction Book of the Century. From acclaimed author Dinaw Mengestu, a recipient of the National Book Foundation's 5 Under 35 award, The New Yorker's 20 Under 40 award and a 2012 MacArthur Foundation genius grant, comes an unforgettable love story about a searing affair between an American woman and an African man in 1970s America and an unflinching novel about the fragmentation of lives that straddle countries and histories. All Our Names is the story of two young men who come of age during an African revolution, drawn from the safe confines of the university campus into the intensifying clamor of the streets outside. But as the line between idealism and violence becomes increasingly blurred, the friends are driven apart, one into the deepest peril as the movement gathers inexorable force and the other into the safety of exile in the American Midwest. There, pretending to be an exchange student, he falls in love with a social worker and settles into small town life. Yet this idyll is inescapably darkened by the secrets of his past, the acts he committed and the work he left unfinished. Most of all he is haunted by the beloved friend he left behind the charismatic leader who first guided him to revolution and then sacrificed everything to ensure his freedom Elegiac blazing with insights about the physical and emotional geographies that circumscribe our lives All Our Names is a marvel of vision and tonal command Writing within the grand tradition of Naipul Greene and Achebe Mengestu gives us a political novel that is also a transfixing portrait of love and grace of self determination and the names we are given and the names we earn This eBook edition includes a Reading Group Guide
