Militarization and Democracy in West Germany's Border Police, 1951-2005 David M. Livingstone, 2024 A social history of West Germany's Bundesgrenzschutz BGS Federal Border Police that complicates the telling of the country's history as a straightforward success story The 2020 murder of George Floyd by Minneapolis police officers shows that police violence is still a problem in Western democracies Floyd's murder prompted some critics to hail the German police as a model of democratic policing that should be emulated After 1945 Germany's police forces had supposedly shed the militarization and authoritarian impulses still prevalent in other nations' forces These uncritical appraisals however deserve closer analysis This book is a social history of West Germany's Bundesgrenzschutz BGS a federal border guard established in 1951 that became reunified Germany's first national police force It argues that the BGS revived authoritarian traditions of militarized policing and kept them alive long into the postwar era even though the country was supposedly consigning these problematic legacies to its past The BGS was staffed and led by Wehrmacht and SS veterans until the late 1970s and while West Germany was democratizing BGS commanders were still planning to fight wars and were teaching its officers street fighting tactics While the end outcome was positive the study contributes to the growing body of recent research that complicates the writing of the Federal Republic's history as a success story Dealing explicitly with post fascist West Germany's struggle to establish a democratic police force the book enters a conversation with studies concerned with democratization security and Germany's effort to overcome its Nazi past DAVID M LIVINGSTONE holds a PhD in History from the University of California San Diego He is retired as Chief of Police of Simi Valley California and is an adjunct professor at California Lutheran University

Wehrmacht Diary Wolfgang Cooper,2000-05-04 In the beginning I was so proud of my country and what I thought we were accomplishing Yet by 1943 I knew the Nazi government was leading Germany and the world down a path of destruction Not in my wildest dreams did I think I would someday be standing in the basement of the Fuhrer Bunker preparing to shoot Adolf Hitler Siegfried Knappe WEHRMACT DIARY is a fascinating and true story that offers a unique look at the German side of World War II and a world in ruins In WEHRMACT DIARY writer Wolfgang Cooper and Siegfried Knappe who rose through the ranks of the General Staff College to become a highly respected major in the Wehrmacht give the reader a reflective and illuminating perspective on Knappes experiences as a German soldier who served on every major battle front in the European theater of war This unique and timely book chronicles the life of an ordinary man who found himself caught in the middle of extraordinary world events and how he survived to start a new life in America But most importantly Siegfried Knappe a long time resident of Xenia Ohio is one of the few people alive today who met Adolf Hitler face to face In fact he met the German dictator three times in six year intervals The first time was in 1933 when Knappe was an apolitical teenage shutterbug intent only on photographing Germanys new Chancellor pulling up outside a hotel in Knappes hometown of Leipzig The young Knappe ignored Hitlers chauffeur hopped onto the running board of the open limousine and snapped off three frames Over sixty years later Knappe still has the pictures The second time Knappe came face to face with Hitler was in early 1939 Knappe was by then a junior artillery officer at Kriegsschule Potsdam a military academy where he trained under legendary Field Marshall Erwin Rommel Knappe was being congratulated for his war college performance by the Fuhrer at a formal Reich Chancellory reception in Berlin Recognition for his exemplary achievements at Potsdam would promote Knappes advancement up the ranks throughout his military career The third time he met with Hitler was almost six years later and in the same building It was April 1945 As a top aide to General Helmut Weidling the commander of Berlins final defenses Major Knappe waited outside the briefing room in the Fuhrer bunker The Red Army was only 500 meters away clawing its way toward the bunker and the final destruction of the Third Reich Outside Berlin was a world of smoke fire death and horror recalled Knappe Inside protocol dictated that Major Knappe be presented by his commander to Hitler and Minister of Propaganda Joseph Goebbels I saluted and Hitler walked toward me As he neared I was shocked by his appearance He looked very old at least 20 years older than his 56 years remembers Knappe The major was shaken Like so many in Germany he had given his youth to a leader who stood for the nation Now Knappe could see that Hitler physically resembled his country withered defeated cursed Major Knappe decided to shoot Hitler the next morning On that last day in the bunker he stood near Hitler coolly calculating pistol range only to change his mind Let Hitler martyr himself Knappe decided After Knappe surrendered to the Russians he realized that the Fuhrer had inadvertently saved his life Major Knappe had become an eyewitness an eyewitness who would live to tell his incredible story All history granted a wide enough perspective is merely irony The ironies of Siegfried Knappes life are beyond number He survived five years of combat including four serious wounds three tours on the dreaded Eastern front and the final Allied assault on Berlin He helped negotia
