Password: Death Robin Zeller, Cindy Ziperman, 2000-08-04 Meet Robert Ashton a Southern gentleman who can get inside of a woman's head and has a taste for blood. He has been killing lonely women with impunity and sees no reason to stop. One night while using her new computer for the first time on the World Wide Web, Laura Howard, a Doctor of Psychology and a researcher in the paranormal powers of the mind, sees a woman get murdered while using the computer. She has nowhere to turn to and no one who will believe what she saw except her friend Sydney Chase. Together they decide to go to the police and find out that a woman had been murdered exactly as Laura had described. She soon finds out that there is a serial murderer on the loose and no one can get a handle on him. The cases are too far apart and the women too different to get a good profile on this killer. Laura offers her help to solve this baffling case. Laura and Sydney find themselves teamed up with Bill Rowland, a cop who has his own set of rules, and a beautiful FBI agent Amanda Hawks. Laura finds the team she is on is both less and more than is first expected. The team is viewed as an embarrassment by the suits in charge of the case. Laura's ability to see the crime makes her valuable in helping solve the case, suspecting those in charge. After all, there is nothing to her research in ESP that could lend credence to her visions. Bill is also pigeonholed on the team because he is not a team player. While Sydney is just a computer geek who can help the police get the real professionals online and after this serial killer, their team leader Amanda Hawks is too beautiful to be taken seriously by her superiors, old style cops who think this beautiful woman is more body than brains. Pushed aside and held to the outer edge of the investigation, the team soon learns how slippery their target is, even with Laura's ability to sense his presence. Bill's own skepticism in Laura's abilities suffers a number of blows when Laura seems to know things without being told. Things about the case and things Bill holds closely inside. He finds himself falling in love with this woman so different from any he has ever known and for the first time in his life thinks he might just have found the woman for him. But Robert knows the team is after him. He decides they are getting too close to figuring out who he is and decides to go after them. Amanda is taken out of the picture and Laura falls under his control. Now it's no longer just another case for Bill; his personal death is coming and it wears many faces. It's down to Bill, Laura, and Robert. One will live, one will die, and one will never be the same. It's time to sign on line and find out. Today the password is death.

The Gigolo Murder Mehmet Murat Somer, 2010-07-09 Devastated by the end of her relationship, our heroine swaps her catsuit for pyjamas and hides away from the world. But her friends from the nightclub refuse to let her waste away in self-pity and drag her out to make up the numbers for a party. Only full make-up will suffice and there's serious grooming to be done before our girl's up to the challenge her state of misery has left her so thin that even her favourite Audrey Hepburn number doesn't cling the way it should. At the soiree she becomes entranced with a powerful married man.

but it s unlikely their paths will cross again Until a body is found in the street stabbed to death the victim a gigolo has connections to the object of her affection And it seems that the gigolo lifestyle can leave one ahem exposed to hidden dangers Our girl valiantly agrees to take on the case any meetings with her beloved are an incidental added bonus Murder in Canaryville Jeff Coen,2022-08-02 The grandson and great grandson of Chicago police officers Chicago Police Detective James Sherlock was CPD through and through His career had seen its share of twists and turns but on this day he was at the records center to see the case file for the murder of John Hughes who was seventeen years old when he was gunned down in a park on Chicago s Southwest Side on May 15 1976 The case had haunted many in the department for years and its threads led everywhere More than forty years after the Hughes killing he was hopeful he could finally put the case to rest Then the records clerk handed Sherlock a thin manila folder Sherlock could have left the records center without the folder and cruised into retirement and no one would have noticed Instead he tucked the envelope under his arm and carried it outside

Negative Aesthetics and Political Collapse in Eastern European and Balkan Cinema Zoran Samardzija, 2025-07-18 Negative Aesthetics and Political Collapse in Eastern European and Balkan Cinema examines the theme of political collapse in select contemporary Eastern European and Balkan art cinema and documentaries from the late eighties to the present Engaging with debates in Marxism and contemporary film theory about political aesthetics the book centers around the question of whether we can imagine possible futures through negative aesthetics which are skeptical of cinema's ability to reproduce reality in a comprehensive and unmediated manner In particular it analyzes examples of ambiguous art cinema and related hybrid documentary modes in order to invite spectators to rethink how we understand and represent the unique experiences of living through the collapse of authoritarian communism and the transition to neoliberal capitalism Negative Aesthetics and Political Collapse ultimately argues that the skepticism about political change and representing history found in these films forms an original mode of utopian thinking In other words their negativity about their own artistic autonomy is the very thing that allows them to hint at possible futures that are unrepresentable because they exist outside of the frameworks of contemporary geopolitics and our dominant understandings of cinematic aesthetics Redefining how we understand the intersections between geopolitics art cinema aesthetics and film theory the book presents a unique synthesis of film and political theory that attempts a new understanding of cinematic aesthetics As such it will interest scholars of film theory global art cinema aesthetics regional studies of Eastern Europe and the Balkans and political science
