Past Still Alive The Pittsburgh History Landmarks Foundation:

A Past Still Alive Walter C. Kidney, 1989 Beyond Rust Allen Dieterich-Ward, 2016 Beyond Rust chronicles the rise fall and rebirth of metropolitan Pittsburgh an industrial region that once formed the heart of the world's steel production and is now touted as a model for reviving other hard hit cities of the Rust Belt Writing in clear and engaging prose historian and area native Allen Dieterich Ward provides a new model for a truly metropolitan history that integrates the urban core with its regional hinterland of satellite cities white collar suburbs mill towns and rural mining areas Pittsburgh reached its industrial heyday between 1880 and 1920 as vertically integrated industrial corporations forged a regional community in the mountainous Upper Ohio River Valley Over subsequent decades metropolitan population growth slowed as mining and manufacturing employment declined Faced with economic and environmental disaster in the 1930s Pittsburgh's business elite and political leaders developed an ambitious program of pollution control and infrastructure development The public private partnership behind the Pittsburgh Renaissance as advocates called it pursued nothing less than the selective erasure of the existing social and physical environment in favor of a modernist functionally divided landscape a goal that was widely copied by other aging cities and one that has important ramifications for the broader national story Ultimately the Renaissance vision of downtown skyscrapers sleek suburban research campuses and bucolic regional parks resulted in an uneven transformation that tore the urban fabric while leaving deindustrializing river valleys and impoverished coal towns isolated from areas of postwar growth Beyond Rust is among the first books of its kind to continue past the collapse of American manufacturing in the 1980s by exploring the diverse ways residents of an iconic industrial region sought places for themselves within a new economic order Life and Architecture in Pittsburgh James Denholm Van Trump, 1985

Twentieth-Century Pittsburgh, Volume Two Roy Lubove, 1996-02-15 This volume traces the major decisions events programs and personalities that transformed the city of Pittsburgh during its urban renewal project which began in 1977 Roy Lubove demonstrates how the city showed united determination to attract high technology companies in an attempt to reverse the economic fallout from the decline of the local steel industry Lubove also separates the successes from the failures the good intentions from the actual results Restoring Women's History Through Historic Preservation Gail Lee Dubrow, Jennifer B. Goodman, 2003-01-28 This essay collection draws upon work presented at three national conferences on women and historic preservation held at Bryn Mawr College in 1994 Arizona State University in 1997 and at Mount Vernon College in 2000 Presenting the Past Susan Porter Benson, Stephen Brier, Roy Rosenzweig, 1986 In recent years history has been increasingly popularized through television docudramas history museums paperback historical novels grassroots community history projects and other public representations of historical knowledge This collection of lively and accessible essays is the first examination of the rapidly growing field called public history Based in part on articles written for the Radical History Review these eighteen original essays take a sometimes irreverent look at how history is presented to the public in such diverse settings as children's books Colonial Williamsburg and the Statue of Liberty Presenting the Past is organized into three areas which consider the role of mass media Packaging the Past the affects of applied history Professionalizing the Past and the importance of grassroots efforts to shape historical consciousness Politicizing the Past The first section examines the large scale production and dissemination of popular history by mass culture The contributors criticize many of these Hollywood and Madison Avenue productions that promote historical amnesia or affirm dominant values and institutions In Professionalizing the Past the authors show how non university based professional historians have also affected popular historical consciousness through their work in museums historic preservation corporations and government agencies Finally the book considers what has been labeled people's history oral history projects slide shows films and local exhibits and assesses its attempts to reach such diverse constituents as workers ethnic groups women and gays Of essential interest to students of history Presenting the Past also explains to the general reader how Americans have come to view themselves their ancestors and their heritage through the influence of mass media popular culture and public history Author note Susan Porter Benson is Associate Professor and Chair of History at Bristol Community College in Massachusetts Stephen Brier is Director of the American Social History Project and Senior Research Scholar at the Graduate Center City University of New York Roy Rosenzweig is Associate Professor of History and Director of the Oral History Program at George Mason University in Virginia

Beyond the Surface Walter C. Kidney, 2006 Past Meets Future Antoinette J.

Lee, 1995-07-19 Emanating from a special National Preservation Conference leading experts present 33 essays on future trends in the historic preservation field Topics range from cultural diversity to the future of American communities This book will guide preservations and anyone concerned about our built environment into the next quarter century

Industrial Heritage and Regional Identities Christian Wicke, Stefan Berger, Jana Golombek, 2018-04-09 Heritage is not what we see in front of us it is what we make of it in our heads Heritage sites have been connected to a range of identarian projects both spatial and non spatial One of the most common links with heritage has been national identity This book stresses that heritage has developed powerful links to regional and local identities Contributors deal explicitly with regions of heavy industry in different parts of the world exploring non spatial forms of identity including class religious ethnic racial gender and cultural identities In many heritage sites non spatial forms of identity are interlinked with spatial ones Civil society action has been important in representations of regional identities and industrial heritage campaigns Region branding seems to determine the ultimate success of industrial heritage a process that is closely connected to the marketing of regions to provide a viable economic future and attract tourism to the region Selected case studies on coal and steel producing regions in this book provide the first global survey of how regions of heavy industry deal with their industrial heritage and what it means for regional identity and region branding This book draws a range of powerful conclusions about the path dependency of particular forms for post industrial regional identity in former regions of heavy industry It highlights both commonalities and differences in the strategies employed with regard to the regions industrial heritage This book will appeal to lecturers students and scholars in the fields of heritage management industrial studies and cultural geography Organizing Access To Capital Gregory Squires,2011 Gaining financial equality through community activism Historic Resource Study Sharon A. Brown,1989 City Options National Endowment for the Arts,1975 Living Architecture James F. O'Gorman,1997 Elegantly written and filled with lush full color photos this is the first in depth portrait of H H Richardson the greatest American architect of the 19th century and a man whose magnetic colorful personality was equal to his genius 150 photos 100 in full color Report to the President and the Congress of the United States United States. Advisory Council on Historic Preservation, A Report to the President and the Congress of the United States United States. Advisory Council on Historic Preservation,1977 Congressional Record United States. Congress,1979 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873 Mellon Square Susan Rademacher,2014-11-18 The second volume in our Modern Landscapes series examines the evolution of Pittsburgh s first modern garden plaza Completed in 1955 from a design by the acclaimed landscape design firm Simonds Simonds and architects Mitchell Ritchey Mellon Square functioned as an urban oasis that provided downtown office workers a much needed respite from the city s infamous smoke pollution Now more than six decades later Mellon Square is undergoing a major restoration by Patricia O Donnell of Heritage Landscapes that aims to restore this urban garden and help revitalize downtown Pittsburgh Featuring new photography and archival material Mellon Square is the only book to showcase the development of this iconic urban landscape Historic Preservation and the Livable City Eric W. Allison,Lauren Peters,2010-12-20 For both the preservation professional and urban planner this book shows how preservation is a key to the creation of livable cities The author Eric Allison the founder and coordinated of the graduate historic preservation program at Pratt Institute in New York City offers tools and case studies that preservationists and planners can learn from in implementing preservation projects or plans in cities large and small This book is a must read for anyone working in or interested in these fields and the creation and maintenance of livable cities Landmark Architecture of Palm Beach Barbara D. Hoffstot,2015-02-24 Palm Beach is a remarkably small town to be so famous its population is only a little over 10 000 Nor is it an old town the oldest extant building dates from about 1885 and the town itself was not incorporated until after 1900 What has granted Palm Beach its fame is the same combination of elements that made Bath famous in the 18th century a very few clear sighted men they can be counted on the fingers of one hand wealthy families attracted to what these men had to offer and some remarkable architecture built when wealth and vision intermingled This book records that architecture The contents are strategically arranged so that the visitor can drive or walk the area and see the buildings sequence of location Within this compendium of photographs and descriptive text you will find more than 150 Palm Beach buildings written and photographed by a resident active in historic preservation The book does not attempt to evaluate but rather to exhibit the richness and diversity of this extraordinary place The work of famous architects is featured notably that of Addison Mizner Marion Wyeth Maurice Fatio Howard Major John Volk and the designer Joseph Urban Also covered are the famous Breakers Hotel the Bath and Tennis Club the Everglades Club and the shops of Worth Avenue

Preservation In American Towns And Cities Nathan Gerald Weinberg, 2022-01-26 This book provides a glimpse of what has happened in the preservation movement in 130 years from the lawns of Mount Vernon to the row houses of Mount Auburn It discusses the need to continue refining standards identifying weaknesses and extolling excellence in the marketplace of preservation
