

Pastoral Care

“The ministry of the cure of souls, or pastoral care, consists of helping acts, done by representative Christian persons, directed toward the healing, sustaining, guiding, and reconciling of troubled persons whose troubles arise in the context of ultimate meanings and concerns.”

- William A. Clebsch and Charles R. Jaekle, Pastoral Care in Historical Perspective (Upper Saddle River, New Jersey: Prentiss-Hall, 1964).

Pastoral Theology in the Classical Tradition Andrew Purves, 2001-11-01 Too often pastoral care is uninformed by historical practice and is overly influenced by psychological theory and practice according to Andrew Purves At least one consequence of this is that it is often disaffiliated from the church's theological heritage Purves examines Christian writers from the past who represent the classical tradition in pastoral theology classical in the sense that they and their texts have shaped the minds and practices of pastors in enduring ways He reflects on texts from Gregory Nazianzus John Chrysostom Gregory the Great Martin Bucer and Richard Baxter He includes a brief biography of each author introduces the major themes in the writer's theology and discusses the issues arising for pastoral work

Scheib, 2016-02-16 Christian pastoral care is a narrative ecclesial theological practice NET As a narrative practice pastoral care attends to the inseparable interconnection between our own lifestories others stories the larger cultural stories and God s story As a ministry of the church pastoral care is an ecclesial practice that derives its motivation purpose and identity from the larger mission of the church to bear witness to and embody God s mission of love that extends beyond the church for the transformation of the world As a theological practice pastoral care is grounded in God s love story God s profound love for humankind heals our brokenness when human love fails and invites us into an ongoing process of growth in love of God self and neighbor Intended for those who provide care with and on behalf of religious communities author Karen Scheib focuses on listening and restorying practices occurring in the context and setting of congregations By coauthoring narratives that promote healing and growth in love pastoral caregivers become cocreators and companions who help others revise and construct life stories reshaped by the grace of God What Karen Scheib has done in this book is to reposition pastoral care as a theological activity performed in the context of the church She draws deeply upon her Wesleyan theological heritage upon an understanding of life in its fullness as growth in love and grace and upon a communion ecclesiology undergirded by a communal understanding of the Trinitarian life of God Thus grounded she envisions pastoral care first as a rhythm of the life of the whole church and secondarily as a work of trained pastors In her vision pastoral care is rescued from a narrow understanding of it as exceptional acts of intervention performed only in moments of dire crisis Instead it becomes a daily practice of pastoral care an attending in love to the stories of others and a listening for ways God is already present in a life story Solidly theological grounded in the life of the church and eminently teachable Karen Scheib has given us a great gift in this book from the Foreword Thomas G Long Bandy Professor of Preaching Emeritus Candler School of Theology Emory University Atlanta GA In a wonderfully engaging reflective and useful way Karen Scheib captures something absolutely essential to pastoral care and yet often overlooked the utter centrality of storytelling listening the power of stories to heal and their vital connection to bigger stories told within religious communities This book is a real milestone reclaiming the importance of narrative knowing and grounding care not only in community but also within a comprehensive theological framework Bonnie J Miller McLemore E Rhodes and Leona B Carpenter Professor of Religion Psychology and Culture The Divinity School and Graduate Department of Religion Vanderbilt University Divinity School Nashville TN Implementing narrative personality and therapy theories and anchored in ecclesiology and Wesleyan theology NET Karen Scheib s book advances a long awaited and holistic approach to pastoral care Her NET approach presents the embodiment of pastoral care by emphasizing both narrative and paradigmatic knowing proposes the subjectivity of our stories in pastoral care by pointing out the interchangeability between us and our stories as subject and object and underscores the dynamic process of pastoral care through the interconnection of the storyteller listener and context Scheib's image of story companion contributes to the field as a new paradigm of pastoral care and promises to be a significant resource in generating hope and growth in love for both pastoral caregiver and receiver Angella Son Associate Professor Drew University Madison NJ Pastoral theologian Scheib describes a narrative ecclesial and theological approach for listening to people's life stories in such a way as to engender spiritual formation and growth in love Scheib clarifies the connections between caring conversations and Christian theology Clear and accessible prose as well as helpful exercises and discussion starters make this a fine teaching text The Christian Century Sept 29 2016

Crisp,2015-11-01 Joy is crucial to human life and central to God s relationship to the world yet it is remarkably absent from contemporary theology and increasingly from our own lives This collection remedies this situation by considering the import of joy on human flourishing These essays written by experts in systematic and pastoral theology Christian ethics and biblical studies demonstrate the promise of joy to throw open new theological possibilities and cast fresh light on all dimensions of human life With contributions from Jürgen Moltmann N T Wright Marianne Meye Thompson Mary Clark Moschella Charles Mathewes and Miroslav Volf this volume puts joy at the heart of Christian faith and life exploring joy s biblical dogmatic ecclesiological and ethical dimensions in concert with close attention to the shifting tides of culture. Convinced of the need to offer to the world a compelling Christian vision of the good life, the authors treat the connections between joy and themes of creation, theodicy, politics, suffering, pastoral practice, eschatology, and more, driven by the conviction that a vital relationship with the living God is integral to our fullest flourishing as human creatures. Renewing Pastoral Practice Neil Pembroke, 2013-05-28. This is the first comprehensive treatment of the relationship between the doctrine of the Trinity and pastoral care and counselling. Neil Pembroke contends that an in-depth reflection on the relational dynamics in the Godhead has the capacity to radically renew pastoral practice. Pembroke applies the notion of relational space to care in a parish setting. The life of the triune God is defined by both closeness and open space. The divine persons indwell each other in love, but they also provide space for the expression of particularity. This principle of closeness with space is applied in three different pastoral contexts: namely, community life, spiritual friendship, and pastoral conversations. The specialized ministry of pastoral counselling is the focus in the second half of the book. Informing the various explorations is the principle of participation through love: the divine persons participate in each other's existence through loving self-communication. Pembroke shows how this trinitarian virtue is at the centre of three key counselling dynamics: the counselling alliance, empathy, and mirroring. The Care of Souls Harold L. Senkbeil, 2019. In a time when many churches have lost sight of the real purpose of the church, The Care of Souls invites a new generation of pastors to form the godly habits and practical wisdom needed to minister to the hearts and souls of those committed to their care. Harold Senkbeil helps remind pastors of the essential calling of the ministry: preaching and living out the Word of God while orienting others in the same direction. And he offers practical and fruitful advice born out of his five decades as a pastor that will benefit both new pastors and those with years in the pulpit. Drawing on a lifetime of pastoral experience, The Care of Souls is a beautifully written treasury of proven wisdom which pastors will find themselves turning to again and again. Pastoral Theology in the Baptist Tradition R. Robert Creech, 2021-10-26. A veteran Baptist pastor and ministry professor offers a distinctive free church vision for pastoral leadership, attending to voices from the past four centuries as they speak about the practice of ministry. The book contains theological reflection on current ministry issues among Baptists based on biblical and historical foundations and reflects a diversity of Baptist life across time and around the world, including many different voices. Each chapter contains reflection questions to help readers consider the implications of Baptist thinking. Pastoral Care and Counseling Helsel, Philip Browning, 2019. Addresses the critique that pastoral care is indistinguishable from secular psychotherapy by placing a person's relationship to God at the center of pastoral care. A Roman Catholic Theology of Pastoral Care Regis A. Duffy OFM, 2010-05-01. Drawing upon the long history of care in the sacramental mission of the clergy, especially since the reforms of Vatican II, Father Duffy offers a new model that can stimulate both Catholic and Protestant pastoral care to fresh thinking and imaginative reconstruction. The model derives from the catechumenate, that lengthy process of study and service which down through the ages has preceded baptism and guided

Christian formation Reflecting a judicious use of interdisciplinary insights and praxis theology Father Duffy s vision represents an ecumenical contribution to sharpened focus and strengthened identity for pastoral care and practice
