Pastoral Care In The Church:

Pastoral Care in the Church C. W. Brister, 1964 Pastoral Care in the Small Membership Church James L. Killen, 2005

An introduction to pastoral care for pastors of small membership churches If you spend your whole life serving small membership churches and doing it well yours will have been a life well spent Small membership churches have a real advantage when it comes to incorporating people into a fellowship where they are known and where their needs are met These churches and their pastors have an opportunity for excellence in this area and should make the most of it Good pastoral care can be the key to effectiveness in all of the other ministries of the church From getting acquainted with your congregation weddings and funerals picking up on subtle cues in a conversation to not so subtle conflicts Killen shares insights from years of ministry in a small membership church setting James L Killen Jr is a retired elder of the Texas Conference contributor to Circuit Rider and author of Who Do You Say That I Am A Personal Reader At Your Best Carey Nieuwhof, 2021-09-14 A perceptive and practical book about why our calendars so rarely reflect our priorities and what we can do to regain control ADAM GRANT Carey s book will help you reorganize your life And then you can share a copy with someone you care about SETH GODIN You deserve to stop living at an unsustainable pace An influential podcaster and thought leader shows you how Overwhelmed Overcommitted Overworked That s the false script an inordinate number of people adopt to be successful Does this sound familiar Slammed is normal Distractions are everywhere Life gets reduced to going through the motions Tired of living that way At Your Best gives you the strategies you need to win at work and at home by living in a way today that will help you thrive tomorrow Influential podcast host and thought leader Carey Nieuwhof understands the challenges of constant pressure After a season of burnout almost took him out he discovered how to get time energy and priorities working in his favor This approach freed up more than one thousand productive hours a year for him and can do the same for you At Your Best will help you replace chronic exhaustion with deep productivity break the pattern of overpromising and never accomplishing enough clarify what matters most by restructuring your day master the art of saying no without losing friends or influence discover why vacations and sabbaticals don t really solve your problems develop a personalized plan to recapture each day so you can break free from the trap of endless to dos Start thriving at work and at home as you discover how to be at your best Nurturing Hope Lynne M. Baab, 2018-08-01 Trends and skills for those who offer pastoral care Christian pastoral care has changed a great deal in the past few decades in response to many factors in our rapidly changing world In part 1 of Nurturing Hope Lynne Baab discusses seven trends in pastoral care shifts in who delivers pastoral care the attitudes and commitments that undergird pastoral care and societal trends that are shaping pastoral care today She illustrates them with stories from diverse congregations where Christian caregivers are meeting those challenges in creative and exciting ways In the second half of the book Baab presents four practical doable energizing skills needed by pastoral carers in our time Focusing on skills that help carers nurture connections between everyday life and

Christian faith she explores the need for carers to understand common stressors listen pray with others and nurture their personal resilience Grounded in an understanding of God as the true caregiver and healer the author offers tips for readers who are training other pastoral carers or developing their own understanding and skills Each chapter ends with discussion and reflection questions making the book helpful for groups Lynne Baab brings readers hope for their caring role and for their own spiritual journey

Caring Pastors, Caring People Marvin Andrew McMickle, 2011 With so many broken and hurting people in our congregations and in our communities how is a church pastor supposed to address so many needs This second volume in Judson Press's new Living Church series explores the nature of pastoral care and invites laity and clergy alike to become partners in this essentially human ministry Beginning with the traditional core of pastoral care as a critical function of the church pastor author professor and veteran pastor Marvin McMickle expands that core into a second circle of care as the pastor equips and empowers church members to partner in caring for one another Finally McMickle throws open the doors of the church and challenges pastor lay leaders and church members alike to extend their ministries of pastoral care to the local community through ministries of advocacy justice healthcare education and service A richly reflective and utterly practical resource this volume deepens the church's understanding of pastoral care and expands that compassionate and priestly ministry in the church and in the world

Pastoral Care Dr. Karen D. Scheib, 2016-02-16 Christian pastoral care is a narrative ecclesial theological practice NET As a narrative practice pastoral care attends to the inseparable interconnection between our own lifestories others stories the larger cultural stories and God's story As a ministry of the church pastoral care is an ecclesial practice that derives its motivation purpose and identity from the larger mission of the church to bear witness to and embody God's mission of love that extends beyond the church for the transformation of the world As a theological practice pastoral care is grounded in God's love story God's profound love for humankind heals our brokenness when human love fails and invites us into an ongoing process of growth in love of God self and neighbor Intended for those who provide care with and on behalf of religious communities author Karen Scheib focuses on listening and restorying practices occurring in the context and setting of congregations By coauthoring narratives that promote healing and growth in love pastoral caregivers become cocreators and companions who help others revise and construct life stories reshaped by the grace of God What Karen Scheib has done in this book is to reposition pastoral care as a theological activity performed in the context of the church She draws deeply upon her Wesleyan theological heritage upon an understanding of life in its fullness as growth in love and grace and upon a communion ecclesiology undergirded by a communal understanding of the Trinitarian life of God Thus grounded she envisions pastoral care first as a rhythm of the life of the whole church and secondarily as a work of trained pastors In her vision pastoral care is rescued from a narrow understanding of it as exceptional acts of intervention performed only in moments of dire crisis Instead it becomes a daily practice of pastoral care an attending in love to the stories of others and a listening for ways God is already present in a life story Solidly theological grounded in the life of the church and eminently teachable Karen Scheib has given us a great gift in this book from the Foreword Thomas G Long Bandy Professor of Preaching Emeritus Candler School of Theology Emory University Atlanta GA In a wonderfully engaging reflective and useful way Karen Scheib captures something absolutely essential to pastoral care and yet often overlooked the utter centrality of storytelling listening the power of stories to heal and their vital connection to bigger stories told within religious communities This book is a real milestone reclaiming the importance of narrative knowing and grounding care not only in community but also within a comprehensive theological framework Bonnie J Miller McLemore E Rhodes and Leona B Carpenter Professor of Religion Psychology and Culture The Divinity School and Graduate Department of Religion Vanderbilt University Divinity School Nashville TN Implementing narrative personality and therapy theories and anchored in ecclesiology and Wesleyan theology NET Karen Scheib s book advances a long awaited and holistic approach to pastoral care Her NET approach presents the embodiment of pastoral care by emphasizing both narrative and paradigmatic knowing proposes the subjectivity of our stories in pastoral care by pointing out the interchangeability between us and our stories as subject and object and underscores the dynamic process of pastoral care through the interconnection of the storyteller listener and context Scheib s image of story companion contributes to the field as a new paradigm of pastoral care and promises to be a significant resource in generating hope and growth in love for both pastoral caregiver and receiver Angella Son Associate Professor Drew University Madison NJ Pastoral theologian Scheib describes a narrative ecclesial and theological approach for listening to people s life stories in such a way as to engender spiritual formation and growth in love Scheib clarifies the connections between caring conversations and Christian theology Clear and accessible prose as well as helpful exercises and discussion starters make this a fine teaching text The Christian Century Sept 29 2016 The Caring Church Howard W. Stone, Howard Stone has given a very useful gift to parish ministers and their congregations in this very concise clearly written practical lucidly illustrated book His contribution grows out of the accumulation of practical experience as well as scholarship David K Switzer Journal of Pastoral Care The Book of Pastoral Rule Saint Gregory the Great, Aeterna Press, With kind and humble intent thou reprovest me dearest brother for having wished by hiding myself to fly from the burdens of pastoral care as to which lest to some they should appear light I express with my pen in the book before you all my own estimate of their heaviness in order both that he who is free from them may not unwarily seek them and that he who has so sought them may tremble for having got them This book is divided into four separate heads of argument that it may approach the reader s mind by allegations arranged in order by certain steps as it were For as the necessity of things requires we must especially consider after what manner every one should come to supreme rule and duly arriving at it after what manner he should live and living well after what manner he should teach and teaching aright with how great consideration every day he should become aware of his own infirmity lest either humility fly from the approach or life be at variance with the arrival or teaching be wanting to the life or presumption unduly exalt the teaching Learn:

Pastoral Care Church of Scotland, 2018-11-09 Learn Pastoral Care is written for all ordained and lay pastoral ministers youth and children's workers community leaders chaplains and volunteers working in all branches of health and residential care This latest volume in the Learn series is designed to provide you with an introductory resource and guidance on Christian pastoral care and to help you to reflect upon your care for others as well as yourself This publication is divided into four parts The first part explores what Christians mean by pastoral care and why we care from biblical theological and missional perspectives The second part considers who could or should provide pastoral care the opportunities for the Church to work in partnership with other professional organisations and where pastoral care should be offered The third part focuses on various ways that pastoral care could be offered while looking at the significance of self awareness when offering care to others and caring for the self Finally the fourth part explores seven selected themes of pastoral care each of which deals with two topics and suggests practical guidance Each part begins with a My Story which shares a real life experience of pastoral care and closes with a prayer Selected themes include Caring for children and young people Relationships and separation Loneliness and isolation Mental health struggles Dementia Caring for the terminally ill and their loved ones Bereavement Attractively illustrated throughout and illuminated by real life human stories this is an essential volume for all involved in working in this key area of ministry

Basic Types of Pastoral Care & Counseling Howard Clinebell, 2011-08-01 Basic Types of Pastoral Care and Counseling remains the standard in pastoral care and counseling This third edition is enlarged and revised with updated resources methods exercises and illustrations from actual counseling sessions This book will help readers be sensitive to cultural diversity ethical issues and power dynamics as they practice holistic growth oriented pastoral care and counseling in the parish

The Care of Souls Harold L. Senkbeil, 2019 In a time when many churches have lost sight of the real purpose of the church The Care of Souls invites a new generation of pastors to form the godly habits and practical wisdom needed to minister to the hearts and souls of those committed to their care Harold Senkbeil helps remind pastors of the essential calling of the ministry preaching and living out the Word of God while orienting others in the same direction And he offers practical and fruitful advice born out of his five decades as a pastor that will benefit both new pastors and those with years in the pulpit Drawing on a lifetime of pastoral experience The Care of Souls is a beautifully written treasury of proven wisdom which pastors will find themselves turning to again and again

The Ministry of the Church Joseph J. Allen, 1986 A three part study of the functions of ministry from an Orthodox perspective

Empowered to Care Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Pastoral Care Office, 1980 The Pastoral Care Case Donald Capps, Gene Fowler, 2010-03-01 The case study method is popular and effective in the pastoral care of individuals This book outlines a method for using the case study approach on a congregational level offering guidelines for analyzing and refining such aspects of ministry as worship preaching and Christian education

Lay Pastoral Care Giving Timothy M. Farabaugh, 2009 A distinguished historian academic and occasional evangelist I know was hushed by his stunned wife after he said to a friend he was visiting in the hospital I hope you don't die A sentiment delivered sincerely but oh so awkwardly Expressing care to someone in need whether within the community of faith or beyond may seem the most natural thing in the world For some it is for others it's less so All can improve Learn to reach out with God's love and care for others as outlined in this practical book Farabaugh offers a systemic path for pastoral care using the gifts of the laity in the church At a district Council on Ministries meeting our conversation focused on the realization that most of the clergy had no assistance in the area of pastoral care and felt overwhelmed by their many sometimes conflicting responsibilities writes Farabaugh Most of the churches did not train anyone in caring ministries Today it is time for clergy and laity to partner in caring for one another Unique to this course is the ongoing training and accountability meetings outlined for those in this invaluable ministry During the monthly meetings participants report on what they have learned and also study aspects of caring for situations and conditions of life such as illness suffering grief and loss

Leader's Guide Leading in Lay Pastoral Care Calvin's Company of Pastors Scott M. Manetsch, 2015 In Calvin's Company of Pastors Scott Manetsch examines the pastoral theology and practical ministry activities of Geneva's reformed ministers from the time of Calvin's arrival in Geneva until the beginning of the seventeenth century During these seven decades more than 130 men were enrolled in Geneva's Venerable Company of Pastors as it was called including notable reformed leaders such as Pierre Viret Theodore Beza Simon Goulart Lambert Daneau and Jean Diodati Aside from these better known epigones Geneva's pastors from this period remain hidden from view cloaked in Calvin's long shadow even though they played a strategic role in preserving and reshaping Calvin's pastoral legacy Making extensive use of archival materials published sermons catechisms prayer books personal correspondence and theological writings Manetsch offers an engaging and vivid portrait of pastoral life in sixteenth and early seventeenth century Geneva exploring the manner in which Geneva's ministers conceived of their pastoral office and performed their daily responsibilities of preaching public worship moral discipline catechesis administering the sacraments and pastoral care Manetsch demonstrates that Calvin and his colleagues were much more than ivory tower theologians or quasi agents of the state concerned primarily with dispensing theological information to their congregations or enforcing magisterial authority Rather they saw themselves as spiritual shepherds of Christ's Church and this self understanding shaped to a significant degree their daily work as pastors and preachers

A History of Pastoral Care G. R. Evans, 2000-05-01 A history of pastoral care is a history of the Christian church in action But if any sense is to be made of the centuries of Christian work and effort not only the practicalities of making the message of the Gospel a reality on earth but also the ideas which have shaped the attempt century by century must be examined This is the history of 2000 years of thought and practice in Christian pastoral ministry Until comparatively late in that story the bulk of the formative thinking took place in the Middle East and in Europe and this forms the background for recent developments in understanding human nature and the ways in which that understanding has influenced our thinking in pastoral care Subjects covered range from the Biblical foundations to the sects and new religious movements from the Fathers the monks the Friars the Templars to the changes at the end of the twentieth century

Pastoral Care and Intellectual Disability Anna Katherine Shurley, 2017 Every Christian is called to and gifted for ministry The church can and must engage all of its members if it is to flourish fully Far too often persons with intellectual disabilities are excluded While members with disability are often recipients of the church's ministry they are seldom given the opportunity to reciprocate persons with disability are not always fully empowered to minister In Pastoral Care and Intellectual Disability Anna Katherine Shurley asserts the church's need for mutuality in pastoral care While the shape of each person's vocation is unique all members of the body of Christ are created for ministry with one another as partners in spiritual care In a quest for pastoral care that is fundamentally collaborative and fully inclusive Shurley turns to the psychology of D W Winnicott and to Karl Barth's theology of Christian vocation From this combination she crafts person centered pastoral care for the body of Christ and all its members with or without intellectual disabilities Person centered pastoral care recognizes that people with intellectual disabilities can and must participate as partners in the church Faith communities Shurley suggests can foster collaborative ministry by nurturing pastoral friendships among its membership These sacred friendships are spaces in which people share their lives with one another as a truly collaborative practice of care Through these pastoral friendships mediated by the presence of the Holy Spirit all of God's children can live their particular vocations By engaging person centered practices of pastoral care the church strengthens its witness and truly becomes a place of belonging for all people

African American Pastoral Care Edward P. Wimberly, 2008 This major revision of Wimberly's classic updates his narrative methodology by examining current issues in African American pastoral care and counseling

Becoming a Church that Cares Well for the Abused Brad Hambrick, 2019-06-04 Is your church prepared to care for individuals who have experienced various forms of abuse As we continue to learn of more individuals experiencing sexual abuse domestic violence and other forms of abuse it's clear that resources are needed to help ministries and leaders care for these individuals with love support and in cooperation with civil authorities This handbook seeks to help the church take a significant step forward in its care for those who have been abused Working in tandem with the Church Cares resources and videos this handbook brings together leading evangelical trauma counselors victim advocates social workers attorneys batterer interventionists and survivors to equip pastors and ministry leaders for the appropriate initial responses to a variety of abuse scenarios in churches schools or ministries Though the most comprehensive training is experienced by using this handbook and the videos together readers who may be unable to access the videos can use this handbook as a stand alone resource
