Fowler, EdD,Natalie Ford, PhD,2021-08-03 You speak God s truth when you counsel But do you also communicate His grace The Christian counselor or pastor plays an important role in helping people process the trauma they ve experienced Too often a client leaves the counselor s office with feelings of guilt and shame They feel the heavy burden of what they did wrong But somehow they ve missed the grace of God that makes things right again A counseling model that stays true to a biblical worldview will overflow with grace not cheap grace but real grace that acknowledges sin while offering a hopeful path to redemption and healing In Grace Based Counseling professional counselors Richard Fowler and Natalie Ford offer a model that blends the truths of Scripture the science of psychology and the everlasting hope of the gospel In this book you will find New grace based counseling model Detailed application of the model with case studies Practical toolbox with surveys assessments and counseling helps A Christian counseling model can't just be about admonishment That approach only leads to shame and human efforts that are doomed to fail But when the gospel is brought to bear in the counseling relationship real life change is possible Then the counselor becomes an instrument of divine grace in the hands of a faithful God Brief Pastoral
