Pastoral Counseling A Ministry Of The Church:

Pastoral Counseling: A Ministry of the Church John H. Patton, 2002-08-27 Pastoral counseling is unique and John Patton widely known practitioner and teacher explains that uniqueness in the context of other forms of therapy available He then determines what pastoral counseling is and how it is done His theory focuses on the centrality of the pastoral relationship reclaiming pastoral counseling as a legitimate ministry of the church He shows that the pastoral relationship is common to both the generalist and the specialist in counseling and explains how his concept of relational humanness is the norm for Christian pastoral counseling The accountability of the pastoral counselor in regard to the story of Jesus in terms of his her role and function as minister and in relation to the community the church which ordains and the peers in ministry is discussed How to structure a pastoral counseling interview how to determine the unit of care and how healing occurs in pastoral counseling are all important facets of this excellent book Case studies an index and notes are included Basic

Types of Pastoral Care & Counseling Howard Clinebell, 2011-08-01 Basic Types of Pastoral Care and Counseling remains the standard in pastoral care and counseling This third edition is enlarged and revised with updated resources methods exercises and illustrations from actual counseling sessions This book will help readers be sensitive to cultural diversity ethical issues and power dynamics as they practice holistic growth oriented pastoral care and counseling in the parish

Strategic Pastoral Counseling David G. Benner, 2003-09-01 Therapeutic counseling in a Christian context can be highly effective when it maintains narrowly focused goals in a time limited setting The details of this proven model of pastoral counseling are described in this practical guide This second edition of Strategic Pastoral Counseling has been thoroughly revised and includes two new chapters Benner includes helpful case studies a new appendix on contemporary ethical issues and updated chapter bibliographies His study will continue to serve clergy and students well as a valued practical handbook on pastoral care and counseling The Pastor and Counseling Jeremy Pierre, Deepak Reju, 2015 Written as a step by step

Counseling and Mental Health in the Church Kevin Van Lant, Robyn Bettenhausen Geis, 2019-03-04 Featuring chapters written by mental health professionals who are also experienced Christian practitioners Counseling and Mental Health in the Church The Role of Pastors and the Ministry provides ministry leaders with a foundational understanding of common mental health issues typical approaches to treatment and sage advice for supporting those experiencing mental health concerns Recognizing that parishioners may seek guidance from pastors or others Giving Counsel Donald Capps, 2001-11-01 For most ministers pastoral counseling is a part of daily ministry whether it is in an office counseling session or in a chance meeting with a parishioner outside the church Whatever the setting ministers are often called on to provide counsel and by virtue of their calling and training are expected to do so This how to guide for seminary students and ministers explores the role of the minister as counselor and provides a method for giving counsel Renowned pastoral care expert Donald Capps equips readers with basic knowledge and skills and helps them to create a framework to ensure that all conversations where counsel is given will be valuable and not harmful to the person involved Using a problem resolving approach Capps leads readers through How to Create a Listening Environment How to Construct a Conversation How to Think Systemically How to Interpret Stories How to Manage Boundaries Giving Counsel is the perfect resource for seminary students and ministers of all faiths whether you are beginning your study or looking for a single resource to serve your ministry Competent to Counsel Jay E Adams, 2023-12-19 This classic has helped thousands of pastors students laypeople and Christian counselors develop both a general approach to Christian counseling and a specific response to particular problems A Lifting Up for the Downcast William Bridge, 1961 Too often believers are convinced that Christians should never be unhappy But Scripture records many instances of men and women who glorified God while facing a season of discouragement and despair In A Lifting up for the Downcast Puritan Pastor William Bridge reasons that there is no reason for discouragement no matter what cause and conditions may arise Hyperlinked with hundreds of embedded Scripture references and helpful footnotes this edition is an entirely new gently modernized text that is approachable to today's readers while retaining its original character Includes a biographical preface Pastoral Theology in the Classical Tradition Andrew Purves, 2001-11-01 Too often pastoral care is uninformed by historical practice and is overly influenced by psychological theory and practice according to Andrew Purves At least one consequence of this is that it is often disaffiliated from the church's theological heritage Purves examines Christian writers from the past who represent the classical tradition in pastoral theology classical in the sense that they and their texts have shaped the minds and practices of pastors in enduring ways He reflects on texts from Gregory Nazianzus John Chrysostom Gregory the Great Martin Bucer and Richard Baxter He includes a brief biography of each author introduces the major themes in the writer's theology and discusses the issues arising for pastoral work Solution-focused Pastoral Counseling Charles Allen Kollar, 1997 This groundbreaking book now updated and expanded furthers its original effective time saving approach that benefits pastors overtaxed by counseling demands Dr

Charles Kollar presents a departure in pastoral counseling showing that counseling need not be long term or depend on psychological manipulation to produce dramatic results. In most cases the solution lies with the counselees themselves. Using the tested methods found in Solution Focused Pastoral Counseling, pastors apart from counselors will be well equipped to help their counselees discover a solution and put it in motion speedily and productively. SFPC is short term, typically one to five sessions, in which the counselor seeks to create solutions with, not for, the counselee. The focus is on the possibility of life without the problem through an understanding of what is different when the problem does not occur or is less intrusive. The goal is healthy change sooner rather than later by helping the counselee see and work on the solution with God's activity already present in his or her life. The solution focused approach does not require the counselor to be a highly trained psychological expert. It requires biblically based sensitivity and common sense. Yet this approach also recognizes its limitations and understands that there are situations in which other professional and/or medical help is required.

Of the Mortification of Sin in Believers John Owen, 2017-10-13. A series of addresses focusing mainly on Romans 8, this work gives a well-grounded view on the way of sin in the life of a believer. This aspect of Christianity is often neglected and most people in the faith just accept it with blind duty. The doctrine has wide ramifications in our theologies as it makes it evident to us how sin works in our lives and whether it should have any kind of hold on us.
