The Heart of a Great Pastor H. B. Jr. London, Neil B. Wiseman, 2006-09-05 The Heart of a Great Pastor salutes pastors everywhere those wanting to take a fresh look at their ministries as well as those just starting out As the baton is passed to the new breed of pastors there is a great need to help them count the cost of serving Christ and equip them with the tools wisdom and encouragement from those who have gone before them H B London Jr and Neil B Wiseman bring their experiences and heart to pastors for such a task To the new breed they ask Do you have a mentor Have you examined your unique call and place in society Do you have buy in from your spouse and children Do you spend as much time in the Word and study as you do in the entrepreneurial pursuits of your ministry Do you genuinely love people Do you really understand how invested God is in you and how important it is for you to make it Here is help for young pastors and their mentors to stay strong personally while taking churches to the edge of creative imaginative newness for Christ while remaining safely anchored to the abiding and adventuresome gospel Brothers, We Are Not Professionals

John Piper, 2013-02-01 In this revised and expanded edition of Brothers We Are Not Professionals that includes a new introduction and select all new chapters best selling author John Piper pleads through a series of thoughtful essays with fellow pastors to abandon the professionalization of the pastorate and pursue the prophetic call of the Bible for radical ministry We pastors are being killed by the professionalizing of the pastoral ministry he writes The mentality of the professional is not the mentality of the prophet It is not the mentality of the slave of Christ Professionalism has nothing to do with the essence and heart of the Christian ministry The more professional we long to be the more spiritual death we will leave in our wake For there is no professional childlikeness there is no professional tenderheartedness there is no professional panting after God Brothers we are not professionals We are outcasts We are aliens and exiles in the world Our citizenship is in Heaven and we wait with eager expectation for the Lord Phil 3 20 You cannot professionalize the love for His appearing without killing it And it is being killed The world sets the agenda of the professional man God sets the agenda of the spiritual man The strong wine of Jesus Christ explodes the wine skins of professionalism Pastors in Transition Dean R. Hoge, Jacqueline E. Wenger, 2005-05-02 Whether they leave out of preference for another ministry or due to serious conflict pastors who relinquish parish ministry face misunderstanding and even hostility Pastors in Transition brings clarity to this little examined aspect of the pastorate by examining the main reasons why pastors in five Protestant denominations have left parish ministry The fruit of careful sociological research Pastors in Transition presents the findings of the largest ever study of recently ended ministries More than 900 ex ministers representing the Assemblies of God the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod the Presbyterian Church USA and the United Methodist Church were surveyed or interviewed Besides gathering facts and figures the book contains personal stories forthright opinions and concrete recommendations from former pastors for strengthening parish ministry in the future They Call Me Pastor H. B. London, Neil B. Wiseman, 2000-08-02 Pastor What a beautiful word What a unique relationship it conveys Each time someone calls me pastor I am awestruck It humbles me but I am grateful There is no higher privilege than being a pastor So writes H B London who once again joins with his frequent collaborator Neil Wiseman to encourage and inspire church leaders with their most passionate stirring book to date They Call Me Pastor is an unabashed celebration of the deeply felt bond between a pastor and the congregation he serves a testimony to the love of God and the miracles it can work in the lives of a shepherd and his flock if only His love is shared and allowed to flourish Fight for Your Pastor Peter Orr, 2022-10-31 Practical Ways to Support and Care for Your Pastor Do you pray for your pastors Do you encourage them Do you have realistic expectations for them The office of pastor is simultaneously a rewarding and draining position Pastors today have immense pressure on their shoulders and they need the support of their congregations Peter Orr has written Fight for Your Pastor as an exhortation for church members to stand behind their pastors through the difficulties of ministry Orr specifies ways in which congregations can be intentional in caring for church leaders including prayer encouragement generosity and forgiveness Featuring stories from current pastors about their struggles this book is perfect for thoughtful church members eager to understand the weight of their pastors positions and support leaders in their important ministry For Thoughtful Christians Specifically those wanting to know more about their pastors and how to care for them Current Features insight from pastors about their personal experiences in ministry Applicable Gives practical examples of how to love and care for pastors including specific prayers for church leaders and the best ways to encourage them The Pastor's Guide to Personal Spiritual Formation Various Authors, 2005 Experienced church leaders who understand firsthand the importance of maintaining one's own spiritual formation challenge and inspire pastors to reach new and deeper levels of spiritual vitality and growth A Pastor's Toolbox Paul A. Holmes, 2014-01-28 Today's parish leaders are expected to be holy and prayerful spiritual guides great preachers and compassionate confessors but also to make important decisions in key areas like finance budgeting hiring and firing fundraising risk management relationship building and more often with virtually no transition or training And with all the requisite education in philosophy and theology they must provide future pastors in addition to formation in priestly spirituality and pastoral care seminaries can do little to prepare priests to deal with the difficult temporal issues pastors face A Pastor s Toolbox is designed to help fill that void It is loaded with valuable information insights and practical tools that pastors need in order to begin handling the complexities of parish management in the twenty first century The book is an outgrowth of The Toolbox for Pastoral Management a nationally recognized joint project of The National Leadership Roundtable on Church Management and Seton Hall University The Leadership Roundtable is a nonprofit organization of Catholic lay leaders religious and clergy working together to promote excellence and best practices in the management finances communications and human resources development of the Catholic Church in the U S through the greater incorporation of the expertise of the laity Learn more at www TheLeadershipRoundtable org to pastoral care for pastors of small membership churches If you spend your whole life serving small membership churches and doing it well yours will have been a life well spent Small membership churches have a real advantage when it comes to incorporating people into a fellowship where they are known and where their needs are met These churches and their pastors have an opportunity for excellence in this area and should make the most of it Good pastoral care can be the key to effectiveness in all of the other ministries of the church From getting acquainted with your congregation weddings and funerals picking up on subtle cues in a conversation to not so subtle conflicts Killen shares insights from years of ministry in a small membership church setting James L Killen Jr is a retired elder of the Texas Conference contributor to Circuit Rider and author of Who Do You Say That I Am A Personal Reader 12 Faithful Men Collin Hansen,Jeff Robinson,2018-07-03 Most pastors know when they enter the ministry that they will spend time helping others through times of suffering What they usually do not realize though is that they too will suffer Caught off guard many of them end up deeply hurt and quit the ministry deciding that perhaps they misunderstood God's call on their lives or that they simply do not have what it takes But church history is filled with compelling stories of men who were profoundly afflicted while they carried out their ministry and yet persevered faithfully until death Now the editors of The Gospel Coalition have collected inspiring stories of twelve faithful men who endured great suffering for the cause of Christ The stories of the apostle Paul John Calvin Charles Spurgeon John Bunyan Wang Mindao and others show that suffering in the context of ministry is expected and it's never wasted Pastors and ministry leaders as well as those who support them will find in this collection encouragement to run the race with endurance
