journeys across the vast seemingly endless sand dunes she helps herd sheep rides horses chases after camels builds an underground home using manure gathers snow for water and more With a keen eye for the understated elegance of the natural world and a healthy dose of self deprecating humor Li vividly captures both the extraordinary hardships and the ordinary preoccupations of the day to day of the men and women struggling to get by in this desolate landscape Her companions include Cuma the often drunk but mostly responsible father his teenage daughter Kama who feels the burden of the world on her shoulders and dreams of going to college his reticent wife a paragon of decorum against all odds who is simply known as sister in law In bringing this faraway world to English language readers here for the first time Li creates an intimate bond with the rugged people the remote places and the nomadic lifestyle In the signature style that made her an international sensation Li Juan transcends the travel memoir genre to deliver an indelible and immersive reading experience on every page
