Shades of Noir Joan Copjec, 1993 For this was the summer when after the hiatus of the Second World War French critics were again given the opportunity to view films from Hollywood The films they saw including The Maltese Falcon Double Indemnity Laura Murder My Sweet and The Woman in the Window prompted the naming and theorization of a new phenomenon film noir Much of what has been written about the genre since has remained within the orbit of this preliminary assessment While sympathetic towards the early French critics this collection of original essays attempts to move beyond their first fascinated look Beginning with an autonomy of that look of the poujadist climate that nourished it and the imminent collapse of the Hollywood studio system that gave it its mournful inflection Shades of Noir re explores and calls into question the object first constructed by it The impetus for this shift in perspective comes from the films themselves viewed in the light of contemporary social and political concerns and from new theoretical insights Several contributions analyze the re emergence of noir in recent years most notably in the hybrid forms produced in the 1980s by the merging of noir with science fiction and horror for example Blade Runner and Angel Heart and in films by black directors such as Deep Cover Straight out of Brooklyn A Rage in Harlem and One False Move Other essays focus on the open urban territory in which the noir hero hides out the office spaces in Chandler and the palpable sense of waiting that fills empty warehouses corridors and hotel rooms Finally Shades of Noir pays renewed attention to the lethal relation between the sexes to the femme fatale and the other women in noir As the role of women expands the femme fatale remains deadly but her deadliness takes on new meanings Contributors Janet Bergstrom Joan Copjec Elizabeth Cowie Manthia Diawara Frederic Jameson Dean MacCannel Fred Pfeil David Reid and Jayne L Walker Marc Vernet Slavoj Zizek Renoir on Renoir Jean

Renoir,1990-03-30 Renoir on Renoir is a 1990 collection of essays by and interviews of the legendary filmmaker Jean Renoir who created such classics as The Grand Illusion The River and The Rules of the Game Renoir's career in cinema which straddled the transition from silent film to the talkies has influenced a subsequent generation of filmmakers Between 1954 and 1967 Renoir was interviewed by such eminent filmmakers and theorists as Jacques Rivette Francois Truffaut and Jacques Becker The interviews were originally recorded and published in the distinguished French film review Cahiers du Cin ma and shown on French television They are an engaging account of Renoir's deep commitment to his chosen profession Providing additional information on his ideas and theories on screen writing and directing Renoir's essays also include lively anecdotes of the genesis and evolution of each of his films They reveal behind the scenes of some of the masterpieces of French cinema

Art People Malcolm Warner,2020 This book will accompany an exhibition by the same name to be held at Laguna Art Museum 307 Cliff Drive Laguna Beach California 92651 from June 28 to September 20 2020 The exhibition will present Matthew Rolston's larger than life and strangely haunting photographs of participants in Laguna Beach's annual Pageant of the Masters Lavishly illustrated the book will feature essays on various aspects of the project Encyclopedia of Film Noir Geoff Mayer,Brian McDonnell,2007-06-30 When viewers think of film noir they often picture actors like Humphrey Bogart playing characters like Sam Spade in The Maltese Falcon the film based on the book by Dashiell Hammett Yet film noir is a genre much richer The authors first examine the debate surrounding the parameters of the genre and the many different ways it is defined They discuss the Noir City its setting and backdrop and also the cultural WWII and institutional the House UnAmerican Activities Committee and the Production Code Administration influences on the subgenres An analysis of the low budget and series film noirs provides information on those cult classics With over 200 entries on films directors and actors the Encyclopedia of Film Noir is the most complete resource for film fans students and scholars In a Lonely Street Frank Krutnik,2006-10-19 Taking issue with many orthodox views of Film Noir Frank Krutnik argues for a reorientation of this compulsively engaging area of Hollywood cultural production Krutnik recasts the films within a generic framework and draws on recent historical and theoretical research to examine both the diversity of film noir and its significance within American popular culture of the 1940s He considers classical Hollywood cinema debates on genre and the history of the emergence of character in film noir focusing on the hard boiled crime fiction of Dashiell Hammett Raymond Chandler and James M Cain as well as the popularisation of Freudian psychoanalysis and the social and cultural upheavals of the 1940s The core of this book however concerns the complex representation of masculinity in the noir tough thriller and where and how gender interlocks with questions of genre Analysing in detail major thrillers like The Maltese Falcon Double Indemnity Out of the Past and The Killers alongside lesser known but nonetheless crucial films as Stranger on the Third Floor Pitfall and Dead Reckoning Krutnik has produced a provocative and highly readable study of one of Hollywood most perennially fascinating groups of films Ophthalmic Anesthesia James P. Gills, 1993 Film Noir and the Spaces of Modernity Edward Dimendberg, 2004-06-15 Exploring classic examples of film noir such as The Asphalt Jungle Double Indemnity and The Naked City alongside many lesser known works Dimendberg confirms that noir is not simply a reflection of modernity but a virtual continuation of the spaces of the metropolis From the Mountain High, 1855 Every Frenchman Has One Olivia de Havilland, 2016-06-28 Back in print for the first time in decades and featuring a new interview with the author in celebration of her centennial birthday the delectable escapades of Hollywood legend Olivia de Havilland who fell in love with a Frenchman and then became a Parisian In 1953 Olivia de Havilland already an Academy Award winning actress for her roles in To Each His Own and The Heiress became the heroine of her own real life love affair She married a Frenchman moved to Paris and planted her standard on the Left Bank of the River Seine It has been fluttering on both Left and Right Banks with considerable joy and gaiety from that moment on Still her transition from Hollywood celebrity to parisienne was anything but easy And in Every Frenchman Has One her skirmishes with French customs French maids French salesladies French holidays French law French doctors and above all the French language are here set forth in a delightful and amusing memoir of her early years in the City of Light Paraphrasing Caesar Ms de Havilland says I came I saw I was conquered To Have and to Hold Mary Johnston, 1900 A fledgling colony on the shores of the James River struggles desperately to survive and earn the good will of the King of England as Spanish dons ruthless pirates and lurking Indians plot to destroy Jamestown and its handful of colonists Within this world a simple godly soldier braves all odds to defend his honor and his duty to uphold God's sacred laws all the while fighting to win the love of his new wife Mists of Regret Dudley Andrew, 2021-11-09 Just before World War II French cinema reached a high point that has been dubbed the style of poetic realism Working with unforgettable actors like Jean Gabin and Arletty directors such as Renoir Carné Gremillon Duvivier and Chenal routinely captured the prizes for best film at every festival and in every country and their accomplishments led to general agreement that the French were the first to give maturity to the sound cinema Here the distinguished film scholar Dudley Andrew examines the motivations and consequences of these remarkable films by looking at the cultural web in which they were made Beyond giving a rich view of the life and worth of cinema in France Andrew contributes substantially to our knowledge of how films are dealt with in history Where earlier studies have treated the masterpieces of this era either in themselves or as part of the vision of their creators and where certain recent scholars have reacted to this by dissolving the masterpieces back into the system of entertainment that made them possible Andrew stresses the dialogue of culture and cinema In his view the films open questions that take us into the culture while our understanding of the culture gives energy direction and consequence to our reading of the films The book demonstrates the value of this hermeneutic approach for one set of texts and one period but it should very much interest film theorists and film historians of all sorts
