Patchens Lost Plays:

Patchen's Lost Plays Kenneth Patchen, 1977 Through the Looking Glass Richard H. Brown, 2019 Through the Looking Glass examines John Cage's interactions and collaborations with avant garde and experimental filmmakers and in turn seeks out the implications of the audiovisual experience for the overall aesthetic surrounding Cage's career. As the commercially dominant media form in the twentieth century cinema transformed the way listeners were introduced to and consumed music, Cage's quest to redefine music intentionality and expression reflect the similar transformation of music within the larger audiovisual experience of sound film. This volume examines key moments in Cage's career where cinema either informed or transformed his position on the nature of sound music expression and the ontology of the musical artwork. The examples point to moments of rupture within Cage's own consideration of the musical artwork pointing to newfound collision points that have a significant and heretofore unacknowledged role in Cage's notions of the audiovisual experience and the medium specific ontology of a work of art. A Dictionary of the Avant-Gardes, 2013-05-13 A Dictionary of the Avant Gardes recognizes that change is a driving force in all the arts. It covers major trends in music, dance, theater, film, visual art, sculpture, and performance art, as well as architecture, science, and culture. Kenneth Patchen Richard G. Morgan, 1978

Lost Plays in Shakespeare's England D. McInnis, M. Steggle, 2014-10-22 Lost Plays in Shakespeare's England examines assumptions about what a lost play is and how it can be talked about; how lost plays can be reconstructed, particularly when they use narratives already familiar to playgoers; and how lost plays can force us to reassess extant plays, particularly through ideas of repertory studies. Beat Culture William T. Lawlor, 2005-05-20 The coverage of this book ranges from Jack Kerouac's tales of freedom seeking Bohemian youth to the frenetic paintings of Jackson Pollock, including 60 years of the Beat Generation and the artists of the Age of Spontaneity. Beat Culture captures in a single volume six decades of cultural and countercultural expression in the arts and society. It goes beyond other works which are often limited to Beat writers like William Burroughs, Charles Bukowski, and Michael McClure to cover a wide range of musicians, painters, dramatists, filmmakers, and dancers who found expression in the Bohemian movement known as the Beat Generation. Top scholars from the United States, England, Holland, Italy, and China analyze a vast array of topics including sexism, misogyny, alcoholism, and drug abuse within Beat circles; the arrest of poet Lawrence Ferlinghetti on obscenity charges; Beat dress and speech; and the Beat pad. Through more than 250 entries which travel from New York to New Orleans, from San Francisco to Mexico City, students, scholars, and those interested in popular culture will taste the era's rampant freedom and experimentation, explore the impact of jazz on Beat writings, and discover how Beat behavior signaled events such as the sexual revolution, the peace movement, and environmental awareness. John Cage's Theatre Pieces William Fetterman, 2012-10-12 The experimental composer John Cage (1912-1992) is best known for his works in percussion, prepared piano, and electronic music, but he is also acknowledged to be one of the most significant figures in 20th century theatre. In Cage's work in theatre composition, there is a blurring of the distinctions between music dance literature art and everyday life Here William Fetterman examines the majority of those compositions by Cage which are audial as well as visual in content beginning with his first work in this genre in 1952 and continuing through 1992 Much of the information in this study comes from previously undocumented material discovered among the unpublished scores and notes of Cage and his frequent collaborator David Tudor as well as author s interviews with Cage and with individuals closely associated with his work including David Tudor Merce Cunningham Bonnie Bird Mary Caroline Richards and Ellsworth Snyder Lost Sound Jeff Porter,2016-03-11 From Archibald MacLeish to David Sedaris radio storytelling has long borrowed from the world of literature yet the narrative radio work of well known writers and others is a story that has not been told before And when the literary aspects of specific programs such as The War of the Worlds or Sorry Wrong Number were considered scrutiny was superficial In Lost Sound Jeff Porter examines the vital interplay between acoustic techniques and modernist practices in the growth of radio Concentrating on the 1930s through the 1970s but also speaking to the rising popularity of today s narrative broadcasts such as This American Life Radiolab Serial and The Organist Porter s close readings of key radio programs show how writers adapted literary techniques to an acoustic medium with great effect Addressing avant garde sound poetry and experimental literature on the air alongside industry policy and network economics Porter identifies the ways radio challenged the conventional distinctions between highbrow and lowbrow cultural content to produce a dynamic popular culture Bernard Kops William Baker,Jeanette Roberts Shumaker,2013-12-18 This is the first book length study on the Anglo Jewish writer Bernard Kops who became famous as part of the new wave of British drama with the production of his play The Hamlet of Stepney Green in 1958 Noise, Water, Meat Douglas Kahn,2001-08-24 An examination of the role of sound in twentieth century arts This interdisciplinary history and theory of sound in the arts reads the twentieth century by listening to it to the emphatic and exceptional sounds of modernism and those on the cusp of postmodernism recorded sound noise silence the fluid sounds of immersion and dripping and the meat voices of viruses screams and bestial cries Focusing on Europe in the first half of the century and the United States in the postwar years Douglas Kahn explores aural activities in literature music visual arts theater and film Placing aurality at the center of the history of the arts he revisits key artistic questions listening to the sounds that drown out the politics and poetics that generated them Artists discussed include Antonin Artaud George Brecht William Burroughs John Cage Sergei Eisenstein Fluxus Allan Kaprow Michael McClure Yoko Ono Jackson Pollock Luigi Russolo and Dziga Vertov Kenneth Patchen and American Mysticism Raymond Nelson,1984 Focusing on same sex desire in Victorian autobiographical writing this book offers significant new readings of works by Newman Symonds Wilde Carpenter and Forster Critical Survey of Poetry: McGrath Frank Northen Magill,1992 Vol 8 includes guidelines to poetry explication Bitterroot National Forest (N.F.), Lost Trail Ski Area Expansion, Sula Ranger District ,1997 Documents of Performance in Early Modern England Tiffany Stern,2009-09-17 As well as play makers and poets playwrights of the early modern period were known as play patchers because their texts were made from separate documents This book is the first to consider all the papers created by authors and theatres by the time of the opening performance recovering types of script not previously known to have existed With chapters on plot scenarios arguments playbills prologues and epilogues songs staged scrolls backstage plots and parts it shows how textually distinct production was from any single unified book And as performance documents were easily lost relegated or reused the story of a play s patchy creation also becomes the story of its co authorship cuts revisions and additions Using a large body of fresh evidence Documents of Performance in Early Modern England brings a wholly new reading to printed and manuscript playbooks of the Shakespearean period redefining what a play and what a playwright actually is

The Journal of Albion Moonlight Kenneth Patchen,1961 A chronicle of violent fury and compassion written when Surrealism was still vigorous and doing battle with psychotic reality The Journal of Albion Moonlight is the American monument to engagement

The Beat Generation: Authors I-Z Lynn Marie Zott,2003 Descant ,1998 The Beats Ann Charters,1983 Patches on My Britches James Alfred Davidson,1998-12 Trailing Emotions is the second poetry book authored by Shirley J Black which continues from her first book A Place For My Soul Filled With Flowers which exposes the author s pure feelings and emotions from a life dealing with cancer From confusion and pain to love and life Shirley tells a story in poetry of the reflections of her life Trailing Emotions is wholly embodied in the emotions of her later life in 2007 having lived through the pain and emotional agony to a certain stage Culminated in this book is not just the story of her livelihood and fight against her medical conditions but the emotional distress in the lack of intimacy and her lack of romance and love for her loved ones This book is a reflection of Shirley s aggressive determination and strength to prove to others in her capacity of how one can be a role model even through trying times like hers She further goes into the depths of her love life and the dreams of an ideal setting should she had never faced herself with a deadly disease like breast cancer A truly sensational and intimate poetry art is delivered in this book through her own preferred and selected words
