Patchwork Shawl Chronicles Of South Asian Women In America:

A Patchwork Shawl Shamita Das Dasgupta,1998 A Patchwork Shawl sheds light on the lives of a segment of the U S immigrant population that has long been relegated to the margins It focuses on women s lives that span different worlds Bangladesh India Pakistan and the United States This collection of essays by and about South Asian women in America challenges stereotypes by allowing women to speak in their own words Together they provide discerning insights into the reconstruction of immigrant patriarchy in a new world and the development of women s resistance to that reconstruction Shamita Das DasGupta s introduction also acquaints readers with the psychological topography of the South Asian community A Patchwork Shawl considers topics from re negotiation of identity to sexuality violence to intimacy occupations to organizing within the community The essays bear witness to women s negotiations for independent identities their claim to their own bodies and the right to choose relationships based on their own histories and truths They bring new understanding to the intersection of gender ethnicity race sexuality and class

Older South Asian Migrant Women's Experiences of Ageing in the UK Nafhesa Ali,2024-03-13 Drawing on empirical research with older South Asian migrant women this book puts forth new understandings on how older settled migrant women construct and understand age through recollections of key life course events that are structured around gendered positions Divesting from a Western centric view and applying a decolonial and Black feminist lens to ageing the author presents intersectionality and transnational positionality as useful tools to connect old age migration and memory in critical studies on aging Chapters flesh out life course memories at different key stages and examines how the intersections of multiple markers of identity race gender language immigration status age etc shape how older South Asian migrant women understand and experience their lives This book will be of interest to scholars with a focus on Gender Studies Migration Studies Ageing Studies and Mobility Studies

Handbook of Feminist Family Studies Sally A. Lloyd, April L. Few, Katherine R. Allen, 2009-04-14 The Handbook of Feminist Family Studies presents the important theories methodologies and practices in feminist family studies The editors showcase feminist family scholarship providing both a retrospective and a prospective overview of the field and creating a scholarly forum for interpretation and dissemination of feminist work

Body Evidence Shamita Das Dasgupta,2007-04-01 When South Asians immigrated to the United States in great numbers in the 1970s they were passionately driven to achieve economic stability and socialize the next generation to retain the traditions of their home culture During these years the immigrant community went to great lengths to project an impeccable public image by denying the existence of social problems such as domestic violence sexual assault child sexual abuse mental illness racism and intergenerational conflict It was not until recently that activist groups have worked to bring these issues out into the open In Body Evidence more than twenty scholars and public health professionals uncover the unique challenges faced by victims of violence in intimate spaces within families communities and trusted relationships in South Asian American communities Topics include cultural obsession with women s

chastity and virginity the continued silence surrounding intimate violence among women who identify themselves as lesbian bisexual or transgender the consequences of refusing marriage proposals or failing to meet dowry demands and ultimately the ways in which the United States courts often confuse and exacerbate the plights of these women Transnational Migration and the Politics of Identity Meenakshi Thapan,2005-11-05 Publisher Description Desis In The House Sunaina Maira,2012-06-20 Making the desi scene in New York The Columbia Guide to Asian American History Gary Y. Okihiro,2005-03-30 Offering a rich and insightful road map of Asian American history as it has evolved over more than 200 years this book marks the first systematic attempt to take stock of this field of study It examines comments and questions the changing assumptions and contexts underlying the experiences and contributions of an incredibly diverse population of Americans Arriving and settling in this nation as early as the 1790s with American born generations stretching back more than a century Asian Americans have become an integral part of the American experience this cleverly organized book marks the trajectory of that journey offering researchers invaluable information and interpretation Part 1 offers a synoptic narrative history a chronology and a set of periodizations that reflect different ways of constructing the Asian American past Part 2 presents lucid discussions of historical debates such as interpreting the anti Chinese movement of the late 1800s and the underlying causes of Japanese American internment during World War II and such emerging themes as transnationalism and women and gender issues Part 3 contains a historiographical essay and a wide ranging compilation of book film and electronic resources for further study of core themes and groups including Chinese Japanese Filipino Hmong Indian Korean Vietnamese and others Decolonial Thinking María Lugones,Patrick M. Crowley,2025-05-06 Decolonial Thinking delves into the intricate web of colonial practices terms and ideas that have woven themselves into people s lives It seeks to understand how the tendrils of coloniality have insidiously attached themselves to the very fabric of self understanding From the mundane to the profound this exploration sheds light on our relationship with all that constitutes life Editors Mar a Lugones and Patrick M Crowley have meticulously curated 11 unique articles by interdisciplinary theorists These thought provoking pieces compellingly address questions surrounding colonial legacies Organized into five sections the book navigates themes ranging from sexualities and multiple worlds to differential topographies It also examines the relation between women of color politics to decoloniality exploring resistance coalition building and pluriversality As decolonial theory gains global recognition it has emerged as a critical lens through which we view capitalism racism gender discrimination violence and Eurocentrism Decolonial Thinking boldly rejects oppressive rationalities prompting fresh strategies for shared meanings These strategies diverge radically from dominant disciplinary and academic categories of knowledge inviting us to reimagine our understanding of the world Feminist Constitutionalism Beverley Baines,Daphne Barak-Erez,Tsvi Kahana,2012-04-16 Constitutionalism affirms the idea that democracy should not lead to the violation of human rights or the oppression of minorities This book aims to explore the relationship between constitutional law and feminism The contributors offer a spectrum of approaches and the analysis is set across a wide range of topics including both familiar ones like reproductive rights and marital status and emerging issues such as a new societal approach to household labor and participation of women in constitutional discussions online The book is divided into six parts I feminism as a challenge to constitutional theory II feminism and judging III feminism democracy and political participation IV the constitutionalism of reproductive rights V women s rights multiculturalism and diversity and VI women between secularism and religion

Global Perspectives on Prostitution and Sex Trafficking Dalla, Defrain, Baker, 2011-04-01 This book is part of a two volume set that examines prostitution and sex trafficking on a global scale with each chapter devoted to a particular country in one of seven geo cultural areas of the world The 16 chapters in this volume Volume II are devoted to examination of the commercial sex industry CSI in countries within Africa Asia Middle East and Oceania while the 18 chapters comprising Volume I focus exclusively on Europe Latin America and North America This volume also includes a global section which includes chapters that are globally relevant rather than those devoted to a particular country or geographic location The content of each Volume as well as each chapter reflects great diversity diversity in focus writing style and personal position regarding the commercial sex industry Diversity extends to the contributors who are comprised of international scholars service providers and policy advocates representing a variety of fields and disciplines with distinct and varied frames of reference and theoretical underpinnings with regard to the commercial sex industry In addition to addressing aspects of the CSI across the globe as impacted by geography and culture authors have also provided a spectrum of implications of their work implications ranging from continued scholarship and research to legislative maneuvers and policy change to suggestions for collaboration across NGOS fieldworkers clinicians and service providers Together the 34 expertly crafted chapters provide a wealth of knowledge from which to more deeply appreciate and contemplate the global commercial sex industry By uniting contributors from around the world this book aims to build a relatively common knowledge base on global prostitution and sex trafficking Viewed from a unified global perspective it is hoped that this common understanding will lead to a grounded theory and integrated view with applicable suggestions for international efforts aimed at intervention

New Cosmopolitanisms Gita Rajan, 2006-02-09 This book offers an in depth look at the ways in which technology travel and globalization have altered traditional patterns of immigration for South Asians who live and work in the United States and explains how their popular cultural practices and aesthetic desires are fulfilled They are presented as the twenty first century s new cosmopolitans flexible enough to adjust to globalization s economic political and cultural imperatives They are thus uniquely adaptable to the mainstream cultures of the United States but also vulnerable in a period when nationalism and security have become tools to maintain traditional power relations in a changing world

Roots and Reflections Amy Bhatt, Nalini Iyer, 2013-05-15 Immigrants from South Asia first began settling in Washington and Oregon in the nineteenth century but because of restrictions placed on Asian immigration to the United States in the early twentieth century the vast majority have come to the region since World War II Roots and Reflections uses oral history to show how South Asian immigrant experiences were shaped by the region and how they differed over time and across generations It includes the stories of immigrants from India Pakistan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka who arrived from the end of World War II through the 1980s Watch the trailer <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JHjtOvH0YdU> list UUge4MONgLFncQ1w1C_BnHcw index 3 feature plcp

Unsettling India Purnima Mankekar, 2015-04-25 In Unsettling India Purnima Mankekar offers a new understanding of the affective and temporal dimensions of how India and Indianness as objects of knowledge production and mediation circulate through transnational public cultures Based on over a decade of ethnographic fieldwork in New Delhi and the San Francisco Bay Area Mankekar tracks the sense of unsettlement experienced by her informants in both places disrupting binary conceptions of homeland and diaspora and the national and transnational She examines Bollywood films Hindi TV shows advertisements and such commodities as Indian groceries as interconnected nodes in the circulation of transnational public cultures that continually reconfigure affective connections to India and what it means to be Indian both within the country and outside Drawing on media and cultural studies feminist anthropology and Asian American studies this book deploys unsettlement as an analytic to trace modes of belonging and not belonging

Ethnic Routes to Becoming American Sharmila Rudrappa, 2004 The author examines the paths South Asian immigrants in Chicago take toward assimilation in the late 20th century United States She examines two ethnic institutions to show how immigrant activism ironically abets these immigrants assimilation

Managing Multicultural Lives Pawan Dhingra, 2007 This book examines how second generation Asian American professionals bring together contrasting identities in the cultural spaces of daily life and the implications for theories of immigrant adaptation and stratification Aging and the Indian Diaspora Sarah E.

Lamb,2009-07-06 The proliferation of old age homes and increasing numbers of elderly living alone are startling new phenomena in India These trends are related to extensive overseas migration and the transnational dispersal of families In this moving and insightful account Sarah Lamb shows that older persons are innovative agents in the processes of social cultural change Lamb s study probes debates and cultural assumptions in both India and the United States regarding how best to age the proper social moral relationship among individuals genders families the market and the state and ways of finding meaning in the human life course Moving in the Shadows Liz Kelly,Yasmin Rehman,Hannana

Siddiqui,2016-04-15 In the UK the number of people who came from a minority ethnic group grew by 53 per cent between 1991 and 2001 from 3 0 million in 1991 to 4 6 million in 2001 Whilst much has been written about the impact of these demographic changes in relation to policy issues black and minority women and children remain under researched Recent publications have tended to focus on South Asian women forced marriage and honour related violence Moving in the Shadows brings together for the first time in a single volume an examination of violence against women and children within the diverse communities of the UK Its strength lies in its gendered focus as well as its understanding of the need for an integrated approach to all forms of violence against women whilst foregrounding the experiences of minority women the communities they are part of and the organizations which have advocated for their rights and given them voice The chapters contained within this volume explore a set of core themes the forms and contexts of violence minority women experience the continuum of violence the role of culture and faith in the control of women and girls the types of intervention within multi cultural and social cohesion policies the impacts of violence on British born and migrant women and girls and the intersection of race class gender and sexuality highlighting issues of similarity and difference Taken together they provide a valuable resource for scholars students activists social workers and policy makers working in the field
