Harms, World Intellectual Property Organization, 2012 With this publication WIPO and the author aim at making available for judges lawyers and law enforcement officials a valuable tool for the handling of intellectual property cases To that effect the case book uses carefully selected court decisions drawn from various countries with either civil or common law traditions The extracts from the decisions and accompanying comments illustrate the different areas of intellectual property law with an emphasis on matters that typically arise in connection with the enforcement of intellectual property rights in civil as well as criminal proceedings The Craft of Research, 2nd Edition Wayne C. Booth, Gregory G. Colomb, Joseph M. Williams, 2003-04-14 Along with many other topics The craft of research explains how to build an argument that motivates readers to accept a claim and how to create introductions and conclusions that answer that most demanding question So what Patents in the Knowledge-Based Economy National Research Council, Policy and Global Affairs, Board on Science, Technology, and Economic Policy, Committee on Intellectual Property Rights in the Knowledge-Based Economy, 2003-09-11 This volume assembles papers commissioned by the National Research Council's Board on Science Technology and Economic Policy STEP to inform judgments about the significant institutional and policy changes in the patent system made over the past two decades The chapters fall into three areas The first four chapters consider the determinants and effects of changes in patent quality Quality refers to whether patents issued by the U S Patent and Trademark Office USPTO meet the statutory standards of patentability including novelty nonobviousness and utility The fifth and sixth chapters consider the growth in patent litigation which may itself be a function of changes in the quality of contested patents The final three chapters explore controversies associated with the extension of patents into new domains of technology including biomedicine software and business methods Reading Law Antonin Scalia, Bryan A. Garner, 2012 In this groundbreaking book Scalia and Garner systematically explain all the most important principles of constitutional statutory and contractual interpretation in an engaging and informative style with hundreds of illustrations from actual cases Is a burrito a sandwich Is a corporation entitled to personal privacy If you trade a gun for drugs are you using a gun in a drug transaction The authors grapple with these and dozens of equally curious questions while explaining the most principled lucid and reliable techniques for deriving meaning from authoritative texts Meanwhile the book takes up some of the most controversial issues in modern jurisprudence What exactly is textualism Why is strict construction a bad thing What is the true doctrine of originalism And which is more important the spirit of the law or the letter The authors write with a well argued point of view that is definitive yet nuanced straightforward yet sophisticated Plagiarism, the Internet, and Student Learning Wendy Sutherland-Smith, 2008-04-24 Written for Higher Education educators managers and policy makers Plagiarism the Internet and Student Learning combines theoretical understandings with a practical model of plagiarism and aims to explain why and how plagiarism developed It offers a new way to conceptualize plagiarism and provides a framework for professionals dealing with plagiarism in higher education Sutherland Smith presents a model of plagiarism called the plagiarism continuum which usefully informs discussion and direction of plagiarism management in most educational settings The model was developed from a cross disciplinary examination of plagiarism with a particular focus on understanding how educators and students perceive and respond to issues of plagiarism The evolution of plagiarism from its birth in Law to a global issue poses challenges to international educators in diverse cultural settings The case studies included are the voices of educators and students discussing the complexity of plagiarism in policy and practice as well as the tensions between institutional and individual responses A review of international studies plus qualitative empirical research on plagiarism conducted in Australia between 2004 2006 explain why it has emerged as a major issue The book examines current teaching approaches in light of issues surrounding plagiarism particularly Internet plagiarism The model affords insight into ways in which teaching and learning approaches can be enhanced to cope with the ever changing face of plagiarism This book challenges Higher Education educators managers and policy makers to examine their own beliefs and practices in managing the phenomenon of plagiarism in academic writing Genre in a Changing World Charles Bazerman, Adair Bonini, 2009-09-16 Genre studies and genre approaches to literacy instruction continue to develop in many regions and from a widening variety of approaches Genre has provided a key to understanding the varying literacy cultures of regions disciplines professions and educational settings GENRE IN A CHANGING WORLD provides a wide ranging sampler of the remarkable variety of current work The twenty four chapters in this volume reflecting the work of scholars in Europe Australasia and North and South America were selected from the over 400 presentations at SIGET IV the Fourth

Reducing Inequalities Rémi Genevey, R. K. Pachauri, Laurence Tubiana, 2013-01-01 The reduction of inequalities within and between countries stands as a policy goal and deserves to take centre stage in the design of the Sustainable Development Goals agreed during the Rio 20 Summit in 2012 The 2013 edition of A Planet for Life represents a unique international initiative grounded on conceptual and strategic thinking and most importantly empirical experiments conducted on five continents and touching on multiple realities This unprecedented collection of works proposes a solid empirical approach rather than an ideological one to inform future debate The case studies collected in this volume demonstrate the complexity of the new systems required to accommodate each country's specific economic political and cultural realities These systems combine technical financial legal fiscal and organizational elements with a great deal of applied expertise and are articulated within a clear well understood growth and job generating development strategy Inequality reduction does not occur by decree neither does it automatically arise through economic growth nor through policies that equalize incomes downward via ill conceived fiscal policies Inequality reduction involves a collaborative effort that must motivate all concerned parties one that constitutes a genuine political and social innovation and one that often runs counter to prevailing political and economic forces

The Making of Modern Intellectual Property Law Brad Sherman, Lionel Bently, 1999-07-08 One of the common themes in recent public debate has been the law's inability to accommodate the new ways of creating distributing and replicating intellectual products In this book the authors argue that in order to understand many of the problems currently confronting the law it is necessary to understand its past This is its first detailed historical account In this book the authors explore two related themes First they explain why intellectual property law came to take its now familiar shape with sub categories of patents copyright designs and trade marks Secondly the authors set out to explain how it is that the law grants property status to intangibles In doing so they explore the rise and fall of creativity as an organising concept in intellectual property law the mimetic nature of intellectual property law and the important role that the registration process plays in shaping intangible property
