Paternal Rites:

Parental Rites Lawrence Kalkstein, 2012-11-26 Everyone can relate to the hypocrisy or unfair dispensation of justice in our legal system especially our court system We often look at the judiciary as the backbone of our legal system assuming it will be fair and honest Yet Justice Is Blind can quickly become Justice Acting Blindly When justice is so callous not to maximize compassion and love for a child we can understand why America has a complete moral breakdown Often people mistakenly refer to those in government as the leaders Parental Rites is merely one grandfather's thoughts who is trying to come to grasp with the hatred that emanates from the court system and why the system can't be bothered to try and mend family wounds rather than rubbing salt in them Perhaps the story you are about to read can enlighten others or perhaps it can help others choose reconciliation over hatred then maybe there is hope for our society A childhood is too sweet and too short to spend battling in court or to carry animosity in one's daily endeavors We often are told the Judeo Christian Society is that of compassion and reconciliation Yet there are those so subsumed in anger and hatred that they merely preach those words on a Sunday but forget them on Monday So ignore the actual names in this story or interpose your own names of people you know or have heard of that have affected you or your loved ones in a parallel manner and perhaps you can become a leader in a child's life We certainly cannot let a judge or the law guardian for any child who is more eager to play golf or get to lunch than dispense justice be a leader in that child's life Conceiving Identities Kathryn M.

Kueny, 2013-11-01 Explores how medieval Muslim theologians constructed a female gender identity based on an ideal of maternity and how women contested it Conceiving Identities explores how medieval Muslim theologians appropriate a woman's reproductive power to construct a female gender identity in which maternity is a central component Through a close analysis of seventh through fourteenth century exegetical works medical treatises legal pronouncements historiographies zoologies and other literary materials this study considers how medieval Muslim scholars map the female reproductive body according to broader cosmological schemes to generate a woman's role as mother By close consideration of folk medicine and magic this book also reveals how medieval women contest the traditional maternal identities imagined for them and thereby reinvent themselves as mothers and Muslims This innovative examination of the discourse and practices surrounding maternity forges new ground as it takes up the historical and epistemic construction of medieval Muslim women's identities Parental Rights and Responsibilities Stephen Gilmore, 2017-07-05 This volume represents

Archaeologia, Or, Miscellaneous Tracts Relating to Antiquity ,1886 Religious Rights within the Family Esther Erlings,2019-07-05 It is often asserted that A family that prays together stays together But what if a child no longer wishes to pray This book analyses the law in relation to situations where parents force their children to manifest the parental religion From thorough examination of international law it argues that unlike what is generally believed the human rights regime does not grant parents a right to impose manifestations of their religion on their children Instead the author proposes to regard coerced manifestations as a limitation on children s right to freedom of manifestation based on national laws that give parents rights at the domestic level under principles such as parental responsibility The book focuses on two aspects of States positive obligations in this regard First the obligation to provide a regulatory framework that can protect children s right to freedom of manifestation and restricts limitations to those that are proportionate or necessary in a democratic society Second to provide access to remedies which it is argued should consist of access to a family friendly infrastructure for dispute resolution available to parents and children in conflict over religious manifestation Both depend heavily on the way States balance power between parents and children at the national level The book includes three case studies and social research of jurisdictions that offer different perspectives under the principles of parental authority France parental responsibility England and parental rights Hong Kong Macmillan's Magazine ,1889 The Eclectic Magazine of Foreign Literature, Science, and Art ,1889 The Eclectic Magazine John Holmes Agnew,Walter Hilliard Bidwell,1889 complement of constitutional rights the author pieces together basic assumptions about who does and who should qualify for rights Failer s analysis is motivated by her concern that people facing involuntary hospitalization stand to lose the most effective means they have of protecting themselves from abuse their rights She concludes that there is insufficient guidance for deciding who qualifies for regular rights and full citizenship Finally the author calls for the use of flexible standards to determine who should and who does qualify for rights

Rights, Gender and Family Law Julie Wallbank,Shazia Choudhry,Jonathan Herring,2009-12-04 There has been a widespread resurgence of rights talk in social and legal discourses pertaining to the regulation of family life as well as an increase in the use of rights in family law cases in the UK the US Canada and Australia Rights Gender and Family Law addresses the implications of these developments and in particular the impact of rights based approaches upon the idea of welfare and its practical application There are now many areas of family law in which rights and welfare based approaches have been forced together But whilst to many they are premised upon different ethics respectively of justice and of care for others they can nevertheless be reconciled In this respect a central concern is the gender blind character of rights based approaches and the ontological and practical consequences of their employment in the gendered context of the family Rights Gender and Family Law explores the tensions between rights based and welfare based approaches explaining their differences and connections considering whether if at all they are reconcilable and addressing the extent to which they can advantage or disadvantage the interests of women children and men It may be that rights based discourses will dominate family law at least in the way that social policy and legislation respond to calls of equality of rights between mothers and fathers This collection however argues that rights cannot be given centre stage without thinking through the ramifications for gendered power relations and the welfare of children It will be of interest to researchers and scholars working in the fields of family law gender studies and social welfare

LAW, CUSTOM AND PROPERTY RIGHTS AMONG THE ?MA/NYIMA? OF THE NUBA MOUNTAINS IN THE SUDAN Hunud Abia Kadouf,2014-11-18 This book is based on an extensive field work in which the author tried to study the customary law of property of an African agrarian tribal community of ma also known as Nyima of the Nuba Mountains in the northern Sudan The writer has tried to explain the nature of property holding in the light of the people s philosophy evidenced in their social structure and their traditional beliefs Special attention is paid to the traditional structure of political leadership in this highly segmented society that was prone not only to inter tribal wars but was also in a constant fission and fusion among themselves when not at war with other neighboring tribes In discussing jurisdictional issues and traditional settlement mechanisms based partly on law and custom both adopted by this egalitarian society the study is made currently relevant by keen observation on the effect of modernity on traditional ethics and morality of the ma society that was once described by some authors as being impervious to foreign influence Furthermore the reception and assimilation of the state law together with the Shari ah laws in various areas such as that relating to property devolution family institution and burial rites is treated as being of great significance in the overall development of the tribal customary laws Like any other Nuba tribe the consciousness of the ma people of their ethos of identity marks their ferociously guarded customs and traditions prevalent up to date The book is not only a precious academic endeavor full of keen observations in depth study and analysis of tribal customary laws of property but is also a memoir for the author to commemorate formidable tribal group of the ma people in the Nuba Mountains of the Sudan
