Consuming Desires Frances Hasso, 2011 Consuming Desires examines new forms of marriage emerging in Egypt and the United Arab Emirates in reaction in part to the governments increasing attempts to control sexuality with shari a law Radical Relations Daniel Winunwe Rivers, 2013-09-03 In Radical Relations Daniel Winunwe Rivers offers a previously untold story of the American family the first history of lesbian and gay parents and their children in the United States Beginning in the postwar era a period marked by both intense repression and dynamic change for lesbians and gay men Rivers argues that by forging new kinds of family and childrearing relations gay and lesbian parents have successfully challenged legal and cultural definitions of family as heterosexual These efforts have paved the way for the contemporary focus on family and domestic rights in lesbian and gay political movements Based on extensive archival research and 130

interviews conducted nationwide Radical Relations includes the stories of lesbian mothers and gay fathers in the 1950s lesbian and gay parental activist networks and custody battles families struggling with the AIDS epidemic and children growing up in lesbian feminist communities Rivers also addresses changes in gay and lesbian parenthood in the 1980s and 1990s brought about by increased awareness of insemination technologies and changes in custody and adoption law

California. Court of Appeal (6th Appellate District). Records and Briefs California (State)., Boy 11963 John Cameron,2021-04-08 Truth telling and truth recovery have seldom been as heart breaking or necessary as in this powerful story of human vulnerability and failure and the ultimate triumph of the human spirit JOE DUFFY At only five months old John Cameron was abandoned in a Dublin orphanage and fostered out as a child labourer by age three In 1944 when he turned eight he was incarcerated in Artane Industrial School where he became boy 11963 Now in his mid eighties John Cameron tells his shocking but inspirational story for the first time As a child reduced to a number he survived savage assaults sexual abuse and the tragic deaths of children around him Along with other forgotten boys he battled for his life against the heartless adversity of the church and the Irish state As a young man a much loved schoolteacher devoted to his growing family John was haunted by his unknown past and embarked on a lifelong quest to unravel the truth about his origins Buried in a labyrinth of lies he finally uncovered a story of forbidden love and passion that scandalised rural Ireland and made national headlines in the 1930s Boy 11963 is a unique account of overcoming almost insurmountable obstacles to find out who you truly are Jet ,1995-06-12 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news

Sex in an Old Regime City Julie Hardwick,2020-07-18 Our ideas about the long histories of young couples relationships and women s efforts to manage their reproductive health are often premised on the notion of a powerful sexual double standard In Sex in an Old Regime City Julie Hardwick offers a major reframing of the history of young people s intimacy Based on legal records from the city of Lyon Hardwick uncovers the relationships of young workers before marriage and after pregnancy occurred even if marriage did not follow and finds that communities treated these occurrences without stigmatizing or moralizing She finds a hidden world of strategies young couples enacted when they faced an untimely pregnancy If they could not or would not marry they sometimes tried to terminate pregnancies to make the newborn go away by a variety of measures or to charge the infant to local welfare institutions Far from being isolated couples drew on the resources of local communities and networks Clerics midwives wet nurses landladies lawyers parents and male partners in and outside the city offered pragmatic sympathetic ways to help young unmarried pregnant women deal with their situations and hold young men responsible for the reproductive consequences of their sexual activity This was not merely emotional work those involved were financially compensated These support systems ensured that the women could resume their jobs and usually marry later without long term costs In doing so communities managed and minimized the disruptions and consequences even of cases of abandonment and unprosecuted infanticide This richly textured study re thinks the ways in which fundamental issues of intimacy and gendered power were entwined with families communities and religious and secular institutions at all levels from households to neighborhoods to the state Hagos: Customary Versus Modern

Laws of Eritrea ,2023-04-13 The research of Muluberhan Hagos compares the customary laws of ethnic groups in Eritrea and the modern laws of the country with a focus on the legal issues in society that emerge understood from a gender perspective These issues include the laws of person and gender abortion family law succession and property the law of contracts and criminal and civil liabilities in gender related offences Muluberhan Hagos treats customary law as a system that is dynamic and alive and responds to community matters It is an excellent and detailed study on the relevance of customary law today The book which is part of the GAIC Network and African studies series published with Langa makes an important contribution to the literature on legal studies African studies social protection and governance Views from the Margins Kevin J. Callahan,Sarah Ann Curtis,2008-01-01 What does it mean to be French What constitutes Frenchness Is it birth language attachment to republicanism adherence to cultural norms In contemporary France these questions resonate in light of the large number of non French and non European immigrants many from former French colonies who have made France home in recent decades Historically French identity has long been understood as the product of a centralized state and culture emanating from Paris that was itself central to European history and civilization Likewise French identity in terms of class gender nationality and religion mainly has been explained as a strong indivisible core against which marginal actors have been defined This collection of essays offers examples drawn from an imperial history of France that show the power of the periphery to shape diverse and dynamic modern French identities at its center Each essay explains French identity as a fluid process rather than a category into which French citizens and immigrants are expected to fit In using a core periphery framework to explore identity creation Views from the Margins breaks new ground in bringing together diverse historical topics from politics religion regionalism consumerism nationalism and gendered aspects of civic and legal engagement Comparative Tort Law Thomas Kadner-Graziano,2018-03-20 Comparative Tort Law promotes a learning by doing approach to comparative tort law and comparative methodology Each chapter starts with a case scenario followed by questions and expertly selected material such as legislation extracts of case law soft law principles and where appropriate extracts of legal doctrine Using this material students are invited to solve the proposed scenario according to the laws of several jurisdictions compare the approaches and solutions they have identified evaluate their respective pros and cons and reflect upon the most appropriate approach and solution This book is essential reading for all students and scholars of comparative tort law and comparative law methodology and is the ideal companion for those wishing to both familiarise themselves with real world materials and understand the many diverse approaches to modern tort law General Laws of
