No Path Home Elizabeth C. Dunn, 2017 The camp and the camp War Intertext 1 Normal situation Chaos Nothing Intertext 2 Void Pressure The devil and the authoritarian state Intertext 3 The state and the state Death Intertext 4 Bright objects All that remains The Road Home Ethan Nichtern, 2015-04-21 A lively exploration of contemporary Buddhism from one of its most admired teachers In this wise and witty invitation to Buddhist meditation Ethan Nichtern a senior teacher in the Shambhala Buddhist tradition investigates the journey each of us takes to find where we belong Drawing from contemporary research on meditation and mindfulness and from his experience as a Buddhist teacher and practitioner Nichtern describes in fresh language the basic existential experience that gives rise to spiritual seeking and also to its potentially dangerous counterpart spiritual materialism He explains exactly how by turning our awareness to what is happening around us and inside us we become able to enhance our sense of connection with others and at the same time change for the better our individual and collective patterns of greed apathy and inattention The Road Home shows that in order to create a truly compassionate and enlightened society we must start with ourselves And this means beginning by working with our own mind in whatever state we find it One of Library Journal's Best Books of 2015 in Religion and Spirituality One of Tech Insider's Nine Books That Defined 2015 Praise for The Road Home The Road Home is a guidebook a compass a map and a trusted companion and as a wanderer I am forever grateful Ruth Ozeki author A Tale for the Time Being Nichtern is as gifted and compassionate a teacher in writing as he is in person I've dog eared my copy so thoroughly it is swollen to twice its normal size Maud Newton Makes ancient Buddhist teachings and texts approachable contemporary and relevant Valuable for readers looking for an introduction to Buddhist teachings as they relate to meditation practice or for those searching for ways to live their lives in the here and now Library Journal starred review Beyond Earth Charles Wohlforth, Amanda R. Hendrix, Ph.D., 2017-10-17 We are at the cusp of a golden age in space science as increasingly more entrepreneurs Elon Musk Richard Branson Jeff Bezos are seduced by the commercial potential of human access to space But Beyond Earth does not offer another wide eyed technology fantasy instead it is grounded not only in the human capacity for invention and the appeal of adventure but also in the bureaucratic political and scientific realities that present obstacles to space travel realities that have hampered NASA's efforts ever since the Challenger disaster In Beyond Earth the authors offer groundbreaking research and argue persuasively that not Mars but Titan a moon of Saturn with a nitrogen atmosphere a weather cycle and an inexhaustible supply of cheap energy offers the most realistic and thrilling prospect of life without support from Earth Prefabulous + Almost Off the Grid Sheri Koonen, 2012-11-15 A beautiful user friendly overview to building more energy efficient and environmentally friendly homes using prefabrication Prefabulous Almost Off the Grid explores the many ways of using prefabrication to build beautiful homes that are not only environmentally friendly but also incredibly energy efficient Profiling more than thirty of the most energy efficient homes in the United States this user friendly guide reveals how homebuilders can achieve similar results whether they want to earn an advanced green certification or just incorporate a few energy saving measures with the help of floor plans detailed resource lists explanations of the latest technologies and brilliant photographs Author Sheri Koones shows that building green doesn't have to be more expensive and in fact can lead to dramatic savings Koones's almost off the grid homes which take energy from the grid when necessary and return any excess energy produced are healthier quieter inside and far cheaper to operate As energy costs continue to rise energy independence is becoming increasingly essential and as this guide shows the almost off the grid home is a solution that is achievable for everyone Recipient of the 2013 Robert Bruss Gold Book Award from the National Association of Real Estate Editors NAREE Praise for Prefabulous Almost Off the Grid The time has come to throw out the old stereotypes and to embrace prefab building techniques as the way of the future and the best approach for today For anyone wanting to create a house that's sustainable in every sense of the word this book is an excellent place to start Sarah Susanka architect and author of The Not So Big House series You can build a high quality environmentally friendly and efficient home at a reasonable price with a look and feel of a traditional home Advancements like those used in our house and the other houses in this book will transform the homebuilding industry Christine Todd Whitman former governor of New Jersey and administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency This is an easy on the eyes guide that includes floor plans and multiple images of the exterior and interior of each home It is not a manual for green construction but a general overview of aspects of prefab and green construction And it does that well Natural Life magazine

Flight Path David Hill, 2017-04-03 A gripping novel for young adults that captures both the daring and the everyday realities of serving in the Air Force during the Second World War Pete and Paul yelled together Bandit Nine o'clock Bandit Jack spun to stare There was the Messerschmitt on their left streaking straight at them Eighteen year old Jack wanted to escape boring little New Zealand But he soon finds that flying in a Lancaster bomber to attack Hitler's forces brings terror as well as excitement With every dangerous mission he becomes more afraid that he'll never get back alive He wants to help win the war but will he lose his own life My Brother's War there are stories that need to be told over and over again to introduce a new generation of readers to important ideas and to critical times in their country's history Hill's descriptions of trench warfare are unforgettable from the Judges Report of the New Zealand Post Book Awards for Children and Young Adults 2013

The Heart of the Path Lama Zopa Rinpoche, 2009-01-01 From a review in BuddhaDharma magazine The Heart of the Path is a lengthy teaching on guru yoga by a contemporary exemplar of the practice Lama Thubten Zopa A close disciple of Lama Thubten Yeshe for more than three decades Lama Zopa has taught by word and example the importance and power of properly following a guru The book is based on several decades of dharma talks organized by editor Ailsa Cameron into twenty four chapters beginning with the question of why one needs a teacher to progress along the path The remaining chapters discuss in considerable detail how to cultivate and practice devotion and generate the view of one's own teacher as the Buddha It concludes with several short guru yoga visualization practices Throughout the book Lama Zopa offers personal reflections and stories to illustrate his message that guru yoga truly is the heart of the path to liberation From a review in Tricycle magazine For those interested in stepping beyond the realm of ideas into the world of practice the latest book from Tibetan master Lama Zopa Rinpoche is a helpful guide to one important aspect of the spiritual path The Heart of the Path explains the importance of guru devotion and Zopa's view of the proper way to develop a student teacher bond Lama Zopa has had many teachers but his unwavering devotion to Lama Thubten Yeshe shines through on every page Drawing on this experience and the Buddha's teachings Zopa effectively conveys the value of relationships based on Buddhist ideals From a review in Mandala magazine Although guru devotion is a foundational concept within Tibetan Buddhist thought for many it remains a bewildering and impenetrable topic Fortunately for contemporary practitioners Lama Zopa Rinpoche has spoken extensively on guru devotion giving teachings and advice about what it really means to have devotion to one's spiritual friend Drawing from nearly fifty teachings this treasure is the result of seven years of painstaking editing by Ven Ailsa Cameron Not only does it include teachings on the traditional sub topics that fall under guru devotion found in Tsongkhapa's lam rim but also a useful outline to guide your reading several supplementary prayers and teachings from other renowned Tibetan masters and inspiring images of Lama Zopa Lama Yeshe and other amazing teachers peppered throughout A perusal of this masterful work by Lama Zopa Rinpoche will assuage any doubts about the utility or possibility of seeing the guru as Buddha This book is made possible by kind supporters of the Archive who like you appreciate how we make these teachings available in so many ways including in our website for instant reading listening or downloading and as printed and electronic books Our website offers immediate access to thousands of pages of teachings and hundreds of audio recordings by some of the greatest lamas of our time Our photo gallery and our ever popular books are also freely accessible there Please help us increase our efforts to spread the Dharma for the happiness and benefit of all beings You can find out more about becoming a supporter of the Archive and see all we have to offer by visiting our website Thank you so much and please enjoy this e book

No Path Home Elizabeth Cullen Dunn, 2018-01-15 For more than 60 million displaced people around the world humanitarian aid has become a chronic condition No Path Home describes its symptoms in detail Elizabeth Cullen Dunn shows how war creates a deeply damaged world in which the structures that allow people to occupy social roles constitute economic value preserve bodily integrity and engage in meaningful daily practice have been blown apart After the Georgian war with Russia in 2008 Dunn spent sixteen months immersed in the everyday lives of the 28 000 people placed in thirty six resettlement camps by official and nongovernmental organizations acting in concert with the Georgian government She reached the conclusion that the humanitarian condition poses a survival problem that is not only biological but also existential In No Path Home she paints a moving picture of the ways in which humanitarianism leaves displaced people in limbo neither in a state of emergency nor able to act as normal citizens in the country where they reside

Home Grown Ben Hewitt, 2014-09-09 The charming story of one family's mission to build a deeper lasting connection to land and community on their Vermont farm When Ben Hewitt and his wife bought a sprawling acreage of field and forest in northern Vermont they were eager to start a self sustaining family farm But over the years the land became so much more than a building site it became the birthplace of their two sons the main source of family income and food and even a classroom for their children Through self directed play exploration and experimentation on their farm Hewitt s children learned how to play and read test boundaries and challenge themselves fail and recover Best of all this environment allowed their personalities to flourish fueling further growth In Home Grown Hewitt shows us how small mindful decisions about day to day life can lead to greater awareness of the world in our backyards and beyond In telling the story of his sons unconventional education in the fields and forests surrounding his family s farm he demonstrates that the sparks of learning are all around us just waiting to be discovered Learning is a lifelong process and the best education is never confined to a classroom
