Path Without Destination The Long Walk Of A Gentle Hero:

With Good Intentions Celia Haig-Brown, David A. Nock, 2011-11-01 With Good Intentions examines the joint efforts of Aboriginal people and individuals of European ancestry to counter injustice in Canada when colonization was at its height from the mid nineteenth to the early twentieth century These people recognized colonial wrongs and worked together in a variety of ways to right them but they could not stem the tide of European based exploitation The book is neither an apologist text nor an attempt to argue that some colonizers were simply well intentioned Almost all those considered here teachers lawyers missionaries activists had as their overall goal the Christianization and civilization of Canada s First Peoples While their sensitivity and willingness to work in concert with Aboriginal people made them stand out from their less sympathetic compatriots they were nonetheless implicated in the colonialist project as the contributors to this volume make clear By discussing examples of Euro Canadians who worked with Aboriginal peoples With Good Intentions brings to light some of the lesser known complexities of colonization This volume is an important resource for anyone interested in Canadian history particularly post Confederation history and in Native studies and issues of colonization of Native peoples Portfolio

Development and the Assessment of Prior Learning Elana Michelson, Alan Mandell, 2023-08-11 For over thirty years portfolios have been used to help adult learners gain recognition for their prior learning and take greater control of their educational experiences The portfolio has become a distinctive means of assessing such learning serving as a meaningful alternative to conventional papers and standardized testing Portfolio Development and the Assessment of Prior Learning Perspectives Models and Practices provides a primer of flexible approaches to shaping and conducting portfolio development courses It offers practitioners in the field an extensive range of model assignments readings and classroom activities each organized around a specific theme Academic Orientation The Meaning of Education Personal Exploration Learning from the Outsider Within The World of Work and Careers and Dimensions of Expertise Twelve case studies by practitioners in the field then show how academics in the US and around the English speaking world have adapted the portfolio to changing circumstances in order to deliver academically rich educational services for adults These case studies highlight portfolio development in the context of web based instruction changing institutional imperatives service to historically disenfranchised groups partnerships with industry and cross institutional cooperation In addition to serving as a valuable hands on resource for practitioners Portfolio Development and the Assessment of Prior Learning locates portfolios and assessment in a broad social and intellectual context Thus the authors also offer an historical overview of the usefulness of portfolios in the assessment of prior learning and then consider their use in the future given current trends in higher education for adults The book explores the implications of a changing educational landscape in which new student populations budgetary pressures and understandings of knowledge both enrich and challenge student centered approaches such as portfolios The approaches and case studies are not only valuable to adult educators but equally to faculty in higher education concerned with the
